

CITY NEWS.

Sacred Heart church fair at City hall to-night. Sergeant Cox predicts fair weather, followed by rain; higher temperature.

POLICE COURT.

Two young boys named Donovan and Riggs were before the court this morning on the charge of throwing stones through the windows of the residence of a man named Goff, on Halloween night.

SUDDEN DEATH.

A. S. Mace Found Dead in His Room in Hellmann's Hotel. A. S. Mace was found dead in his room in the Hellmann hotel on Grand street, this morning.

OFFICIAL RETURNS.

Judge Morris Receives a Majority of Forty-Two Votes. HARTFORD, Nov. 7.—At 2:45 o'clock this afternoon the Hartford Times received official figures from the office of secretary of state, showing that Judge Morris is elected by the people, having received a majority of 42.

CONNECTIONS INDUSTRIES.

Weekly Record of Business in a Very Busy State. The summary of the Weekly Record of New Haven for the current week reports real estate sales: New Haven 43, Bridgeport 27, Hartford 7, Waterbury 13, Meriden 6, New Britain 1, Danbury 1.

OUR NEW NAVAL GUNS.

Terrific Weapons That Are Experiencing New Developments Every Day. From an article on the above by Commander C. F. Goodrich, in the Century, we quote as follows: "How very few persons, by the way, appreciate the latent power of a modern projectile when in motion."

PRISON MATTERS.

Eight Convicts to be Released From Wethersfield This Month. Eight prisoners are to be released from the state prison at Wethersfield before the present month expires. Four more convicts will be allowed to go on parole in December.

CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION.

What the Senate is Advised to Do With Its Partisan Power. "If" remarked a democrat to-day, "it seems out to be true that Gen. Merwin's election is assured by the legislature, then the democratic party should do two things."

HUNGARIAN LABOR.

A Bridgeport Hungarian's Violation of the Law. BRIDGEPORT, Nov. 7.—About three weeks ago D. J. Marich, a Hungarian barber of this city, suddenly left town, after selling his barber shop at a sacrifice.

LOCAL LINES.

Fredus Ladd, the oldest and most reliable grocer in the city, is the youngest old man in the business. Call at his store when you want groceries and vegetables at the lowest prices.

The Waterbury Harmonic soci... has engaged City hall for December 9. Go and hear the little ones in their entertainment at City hall to-night.

The First division, A. O. H. social committee will hold a meeting this evening. A team owned by M. Guilfoile ran away on South Main street this morning badly wrecking the wagon.

The county commissioners will be in City hall next Wednesday and Thursday for the purpose of issuing licenses. The first division, A. O. H. will give their annual social at City hall, Thanksgiving evening.

Miss Maria Frenette, aged 20 years, died this morning at the home of her mother on Jewell street. The funeral will take place at 3 p. m. Sunday. "Honest Hearts and Willing Hands," the new play of Duncan Harrison and John L. Sullivan, will be produced in Waterbury soon, under the management of Henry Plimack.

Mrs. Mary Nolan, aged 40 years, died last night at her home on the corner of Orange and East Main streets. The funeral will take place to-morrow afternoon. Mrs. Mary Cummerford, wife of Patrick Cummerford, died last evening at her home on East Main street.

Clothesline thieves are again getting in their work in certain sections of the city. Wednesday night the line in the rear of four houses on South Main street, below Washington, were stripped. A number of milk pails were also taken. There is no clue to the thieves.

Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Rice held a reception at their home, 23 Church street, yesterday afternoon and evening. Over 300 friends called, many of the guests being from out of town.

The case of the Concordia Singing society of Bridgeport, against the officers of the state Sengerbund, was held before Justice Bill in Hartford, yesterday afternoon and night.

Waterbury will try and secure an appropriation for a new court house during the coming session of the legislature, and already have citizens at work for that purpose.

George Barker of Hartford, a fireman on the New York & New England road, while going to work last night in a rather intoxicated condition, fell from the northeast side of the bridge over a depot into Church street.

A small boy with a slung shot got in his work this morning. Three boys were standing near the Waterbury bank discussing the merits of a slung shot.

An Associated Press dispatch from Fall River, Mass., says: Dr. James Leonard was arrested this afternoon on a charge of criminal malpractice.

The regular meeting of the board of sewer commissioners was held last night. A communication was received from P. B. Rice asking to have the sewer assessments on several residents on Hillside avenue abated.

The Waterbury Harmonic soci... has engaged City hall for December 9. Go and hear the little ones in their entertainment at City hall to-night.

The First division, A. O. H. social committee will hold a meeting this evening. A team owned by M. Guilfoile ran away on South Main street this morning badly wrecking the wagon.

The county commissioners will be in City hall next Wednesday and Thursday for the purpose of issuing licenses. The first division, A. O. H. will give their annual social at City hall, Thanksgiving evening.

Miss Maria Frenette, aged 20 years, died this morning at the home of her mother on Jewell street. The funeral will take place at 3 p. m. Sunday. "Honest Hearts and Willing Hands," the new play of Duncan Harrison and John L. Sullivan, will be produced in Waterbury soon, under the management of Henry Plimack.

Mrs. Mary Nolan, aged 40 years, died last night at her home on the corner of Orange and East Main streets. The funeral will take place to-morrow afternoon. Mrs. Mary Cummerford, wife of Patrick Cummerford, died last evening at her home on East Main street.

Clothesline thieves are again getting in their work in certain sections of the city. Wednesday night the line in the rear of four houses on South Main street, below Washington, were stripped. A number of milk pails were also taken. There is no clue to the thieves.

Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Rice held a reception at their home, 23 Church street, yesterday afternoon and evening. Over 300 friends called, many of the guests being from out of town.

The case of the Concordia Singing society of Bridgeport, against the officers of the state Sengerbund, was held before Justice Bill in Hartford, yesterday afternoon and night.

Waterbury will try and secure an appropriation for a new court house during the coming session of the legislature, and already have citizens at work for that purpose.

George Barker of Hartford, a fireman on the New York & New England road, while going to work last night in a rather intoxicated condition, fell from the northeast side of the bridge over a depot into Church street.

A small boy with a slung shot got in his work this morning. Three boys were standing near the Waterbury bank discussing the merits of a slung shot.

An Associated Press dispatch from Fall River, Mass., says: Dr. James Leonard was arrested this afternoon on a charge of criminal malpractice.

The regular meeting of the board of sewer commissioners was held last night. A communication was received from P. B. Rice asking to have the sewer assessments on several residents on Hillside avenue abated.

The Waterbury Harmonic soci... has engaged City hall for December 9. Go and hear the little ones in their entertainment at City hall to-night.

The First division, A. O. H. social committee will hold a meeting this evening. A team owned by M. Guilfoile ran away on South Main street this morning badly wrecking the wagon.

The county commissioners will be in City hall next Wednesday and Thursday for the purpose of issuing licenses. The first division, A. O. H. will give their annual social at City hall, Thanksgiving evening.

Miss Maria Frenette, aged 20 years, died this morning at the home of her mother on Jewell street. The funeral will take place at 3 p. m. Sunday. "Honest Hearts and Willing Hands," the new play of Duncan Harrison and John L. Sullivan, will be produced in Waterbury soon, under the management of Henry Plimack.

Mrs. Mary Nolan, aged 40 years, died last night at her home on the corner of Orange and East Main streets. The funeral will take place to-morrow afternoon. Mrs. Mary Cummerford, wife of Patrick Cummerford, died last evening at her home on East Main street.

Clothesline thieves are again getting in their work in certain sections of the city. Wednesday night the line in the rear of four houses on South Main street, below Washington, were stripped. A number of milk pails were also taken. There is no clue to the thieves.

Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Rice held a reception at their home, 23 Church street, yesterday afternoon and evening. Over 300 friends called, many of the guests being from out of town.

The case of the Concordia Singing society of Bridgeport, against the officers of the state Sengerbund, was held before Justice Bill in Hartford, yesterday afternoon and night.

Waterbury will try and secure an appropriation for a new court house during the coming session of the legislature, and already have citizens at work for that purpose.

George Barker of Hartford, a fireman on the New York & New England road, while going to work last night in a rather intoxicated condition, fell from the northeast side of the bridge over a depot into Church street.

A small boy with a slung shot got in his work this morning. Three boys were standing near the Waterbury bank discussing the merits of a slung shot.

An Associated Press dispatch from Fall River, Mass., says: Dr. James Leonard was arrested this afternoon on a charge of criminal malpractice.

The regular meeting of the board of sewer commissioners was held last night. A communication was received from P. B. Rice asking to have the sewer assessments on several residents on Hillside avenue abated.

The Waterbury Harmonic soci... has engaged City hall for December 9. Go and hear the little ones in their entertainment at City hall to-night.

The First division, A. O. H. social committee will hold a meeting this evening. A team owned by M. Guilfoile ran away on South Main street this morning badly wrecking the wagon.

The county commissioners will be in City hall next Wednesday and Thursday for the purpose of issuing licenses. The first division, A. O. H. will give their annual social at City hall, Thanksgiving evening.

Miss Maria Frenette, aged 20 years, died this morning at the home of her mother on Jewell street. The funeral will take place at 3 p. m. Sunday. "Honest Hearts and Willing Hands," the new play of Duncan Harrison and John L. Sullivan, will be produced in Waterbury soon, under the management of Henry Plimack.

Mrs. Mary Nolan, aged 40 years, died last night at her home on the corner of Orange and East Main streets. The funeral will take place to-morrow afternoon. Mrs. Mary Cummerford, wife of Patrick Cummerford, died last evening at her home on East Main street.

Clothesline thieves are again getting in their work in certain sections of the city. Wednesday night the line in the rear of four houses on South Main street, below Washington, were stripped. A number of milk pails were also taken. There is no clue to the thieves.

Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Rice held a reception at their home, 23 Church street, yesterday afternoon and evening. Over 300 friends called, many of the guests being from out of town.

The case of the Concordia Singing society of Bridgeport, against the officers of the state Sengerbund, was held before Justice Bill in Hartford, yesterday afternoon and night.

Waterbury will try and secure an appropriation for a new court house during the coming session of the legislature, and already have citizens at work for that purpose.

George Barker of Hartford, a fireman on the New York & New England road, while going to work last night in a rather intoxicated condition, fell from the northeast side of the bridge over a depot into Church street.

A small boy with a slung shot got in his work this morning. Three boys were standing near the Waterbury bank discussing the merits of a slung shot.

An Associated Press dispatch from Fall River, Mass., says: Dr. James Leonard was arrested this afternoon on a charge of criminal malpractice.

The regular meeting of the board of sewer commissioners was held last night. A communication was received from P. B. Rice asking to have the sewer assessments on several residents on Hillside avenue abated.

I Mean Business.

As I intend to make a business February 1st, I shall close out my stock at prices that will surprise you all. Having bought a large stock of rubber goods early in the summer before the rise in rubber stock, I shall sell you goods at prices less than they can be bought at wholesale.

RAMETTI,

16 East Main St. Branch 197 Bank St.

E. T. TURNER & Co.

Special Display of Bargains in Every Department This Week.

ON THE FIRST FLOOR—We shall offer very attractive prices on our large stock of Dress Goods, Silks, Flannels, Blankets, Hosiery, Underwear, etc., etc., Fancy Goods, Notions, Laces and Trimmings.

E. T. Turner & Co.

ON THE SECOND FLOOR—Which is accessible by elevator, we are showing a very fine assortment of Ladies' Cloaks, Ladies' Suits, Capes, Wraps, Furs, Newmarkets and Shawls, Misses' and Children's Cloaks, Gretchens, Jackets, Connemaras and Dressers.

E. T. Turner & Co.

ON THE THIRD FLOOR—(Accessible by elevator) may be seen one of the largest and most complete stocks of Carpets, Rugs, Curtains, Mattings, Upholstery Goods, Oil Cloths, Paper Hangings, etc., that we have ever shown.

E. T. Turner & Co.

With our new store, new elevator (the only complete one in the city, running from first floor to top of building,) new cash system and our elegant stock of goods, with the best light in the city to show them by, we guarantee our customers that we can save them money every time.

E. T. TURNER & Co.

The All Absorbing Subject of Conversation in Nearly Every Household Lately Has Been

FUR CAPES.

And the demand is largely for the Best Furs. For reliable Furs go to Hawleys where you will find the largest assortment in the city. The most popular in Fur Capes are Alaska Seal, Mink, Beaver and Black Martin. In low priced Capes the Astrachan, French Seal, Black Hare and Wool Seal.

Hawley The Hatter And Furrier,

Exchange Place.

UNION TEA CO.

Can sell you the best Teas, Coffees and Spices in this city. Special Presents Saturdays. 72 SOUTH MAIN ST.

A Penny A Word

Do you want a situation? Advertise in the DEMOCRAT. Do you want to buy anything? Advertise in the DEMOCRAT. Do you want "help" male or female? Advertise in the DEMOCRAT. Do you want servants, clerks or mechanics? Advertise in the DEMOCRAT. Do you want to rent a room, house or store? Advertise in the DEMOCRAT. Do you want to rent or sell your house, office or store? Advertise in the DEMOCRAT. Have you lost or found anything? Advertise in the DEMOCRAT.

A Penny A Word

I. CHASE,

ARCADE BUILDING.

Peach Baskets,

MARKET BASKETS, CLOTHES BASKETS, DINNER BASKETS, COAL BASKETS, WILLOW BASKETS, SPLITTING BASKETS, —ALL SIZES.

D. B. WILSON.

11 EAST MAIN STREET.

Owing To The Mild Weather

of last winter, woolen hose were a drug on the market, and we took advantage of an opportunity to buy, in March, a lot of

250 DOZEN

at a price that enables us to offer them very low.

100 dozen Ladies' Seamless All Wool Hose at 17c, regular price 25c.

150 dozen Ladies' Seamless All Wool Ribbed Hose at 25c, regular price 37c.

Ask to see Walter Aiken's Solid Knit and Seamless Wool Hose for Misses at 25c. They are the best.

150 dozen Children's Seamless Wool Hose at 13c.

Our Children's Seamless Ribbed Black Cotton Hose at 12c have created a demand that has kept us busy to meet. We have just received a large supply of them and they are moving rapidly.

We are the leaders in originators of

Low Prices

and have everything to be found in a well kept hosiery stock.

Miller & Peck,

OUR STOCK

Boots and Shoes

Are now ready for inspection. We think they are the best lines in the city for the money. The following are a few of them.

Men's Heavy Oil Grain in Bal & Creammore $2.50 to $4.00

Men's Heavy Parian Calf Bal Creammore, $4.00.

Men's Heavy Parian Calf Bal Creammore, $3.00.

Men's Heavy Calf, cork soles Bal & Congress, $3.00 to $5.00.

Men's Heavy Calf, cork soles Bal & Congress, $3.00 to $5.00.

These shoes are made in all styles cap, plain and glaze toes. Our children's School Shoes are all solid and warranted in every part for $1.00 and $1.25. Call on us and save money.

E. J. FINN,

13 East Main St.

CRISP CRACKER?

Are you thinking of getting that new Piano? If so, just consult the Sisters of Notre Dame and Sisters of Charity, to whom we have lately sold elegant Shoninger Pianos. As they are ever ready to give you the best of advice on other matters, so they will also on the Piano question.

B. SHONINGER & CO.,

161 Bank Street, GEO. L. PELHAM, Manager.

The Daisy Milk Biscuit.

Received by KELLY during October, 875 barrels, and still the people wonder why he can sell it so cheap.

EGGS

Received by KELLY during October, 7,000 dozen, and still people wonder why he can sell fresh Eggs for 27c per dozen. If you doubt either of these statements, visit the N. E. freight station and see for yourselves.

FLOUR

Received by KELLY during October, 875 barrels, and still the people wonder why he can sell it so cheap.

CRISP CRACKER?

Are you thinking of getting that new Piano? If so, just consult the Sisters of Notre Dame and Sisters of Charity, to whom we have lately sold elegant Shoninger Pianos. As they are ever ready to give you the best of advice on other matters, so they will also on the Piano question.

B. SHONINGER & CO.,

161 Bank Street, GEO. L. PELHAM, Manager.

CONNECTIONS INDUSTRIES.

Weekly Record of Business in a Very Busy State. The summary of the Weekly Record of New Haven for the current week reports real estate sales: New Haven 43, Bridgeport 27, Hartford 7, Waterbury 13, Meriden 6, New Britain 1, Danbury 1.

Terrific Weapons That Are Experiencing New Developments Every Day. From an article on the above by Commander C. F. Goodrich, in the Century, we quote as follows: "How very few persons, by the way, appreciate the latent power of a modern projectile when in motion."

PRISON MATTERS. Eight Convicts to be Released From Wethersfield This Month. Eight prisoners are to be released from the state prison at Wethersfield before the present month expires.

CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION. What the Senate is Advised to Do With Its Partisan Power. "If" remarked a democrat to-day, "it seems out to be true that Gen. Merwin's election is assured by the legislature, then the democratic party should do two things."

HUNGARIAN LABOR. A Bridgeport Hungarian's Violation of the Law. BRIDGEPORT, Nov. 7.—About three weeks ago D. J. Marich, a Hungarian barber of this city, suddenly left town, after selling his barber shop at a sacrifice.

LOCAL LINES. Fredus Ladd, the oldest and most reliable grocer in the city, is the youngest old man in the business. Call at his store when you want groceries and vegetables at the lowest prices.

The Waterbury Harmonic soci... has engaged City hall for December 9. Go and hear the little ones in their entertainment at City hall to-night.

The First division, A. O. H. social committee will hold a meeting this evening. A team owned by M. Guilfoile ran away on South Main street this morning badly wrecking the wagon.

The county commissioners will be in City hall next Wednesday and Thursday for the purpose of issuing licenses. The first division, A. O. H. will give their annual social at City hall, Thanksgiving evening.

Miss Maria Frenette, aged 20 years, died this morning at the home of her mother on Jewell street. The funeral will take place at 3 p. m. Sunday. "Honest Hearts and Willing Hands," the new play of Duncan Harrison and John L. Sullivan, will be produced in Waterbury soon, under the management of Henry Plimack.

Mrs. Mary Nolan, aged 40 years, died last night at her home on the corner of Orange and East Main streets. The funeral will take place to-morrow afternoon. Mrs. Mary Cummerford, wife of Patrick Cummerford, died last evening at her home on East Main street.

Clothesline thieves are again getting in their work in certain sections of the city. Wednesday night the line in the rear of four houses on South Main street, below Washington, were stripped. A number of milk pails were also taken. There is no clue to the thieves.

Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Rice held a reception at their home, 23 Church street, yesterday afternoon and evening. Over 300 friends called, many of the guests being from out of town.

The Waterbury Harmonic soci... has engaged City hall for December 9. Go and hear the little ones in their entertainment at City hall to-night.

The First division, A. O. H. social committee will hold a meeting this evening. A team owned by M. Guilfoile ran away on South Main street this morning badly wrecking the wagon.

The county commissioners will be in City hall next Wednesday and Thursday for the purpose of issuing licenses. The first division, A. O. H. will give their annual social at City hall, Thanksgiving evening.

Miss Maria Frenette, aged 20 years, died this morning at the home of her mother on Jewell street. The funeral will take place at 3 p. m. Sunday. "Honest Hearts and Willing Hands," the new play of Duncan Harrison and John L. Sullivan, will be produced in Waterbury soon, under the management of Henry Plimack.

Mrs. Mary Nolan, aged 40 years, died last night at her home on the corner of Orange and East Main streets. The funeral will take place to-morrow afternoon. Mrs. Mary Cummerford, wife of Patrick Cummerford, died last evening at her home on East Main street.

Clothesline thieves are again getting in their work in certain sections of the city. Wednesday night the line in the rear of four houses on South Main street, below Washington, were stripped. A number of milk pails were also taken. There is no clue to the thieves.

Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Rice held a reception at their home, 23 Church street, yesterday afternoon and evening. Over 300 friends called, many of the guests being from out of town.

The case of the Concordia Singing society of Bridgeport, against the officers of the state Sengerbund, was held before Justice Bill in Hartford, yesterday afternoon and night.

Waterbury will try and secure an appropriation for a new court house during the coming session of the legislature, and already have citizens at work for that purpose.

George Barker of Hartford, a fireman on the New York & New England road, while going to work last night in a rather intoxicated condition, fell from the northeast side of the bridge over a depot into Church street.

A small boy with a slung shot got in his work this morning. Three boys were standing near the Waterbury bank discussing the merits of a slung shot.

An Associated Press dispatch from Fall River, Mass., says: Dr. James Leonard was arrested this afternoon on a charge of criminal malpractice.

The regular meeting of the board of sewer commissioners was held last night. A communication was received from P. B. Rice asking to have the sewer assessments on several residents on Hillside avenue abated.

I. CHASE,

ARCADE BUILDING.

Peach Baskets,

MARKET BASKETS, CLOTHES BASKETS, DINNER BASKETS, COAL BASKETS, WILLOW BASKETS, SPLITTING BASKETS, —ALL SIZES.

D. B. WILSON.

11 EAST MAIN STREET.

Owing To The Mild Weather

of last winter, woolen hose were a drug on the market, and we took advantage of an opportunity to buy, in March, a lot of

250 DOZEN

at a price that enables us to offer them very low.

100 dozen Ladies' Seamless All Wool Hose at 17c, regular price 25c.

150 dozen Ladies' Seamless All Wool Ribbed Hose at 25c, regular price 37c.

Ask to see Walter Aiken's Solid Knit and Seamless Wool Hose for Misses at 25c. They are the best.

150 dozen Children's Seamless Wool Hose at 13c.

Our Children's Seamless Ribbed Black Cotton Hose at 12c have created a demand that has kept us busy to meet. We have just received a large supply of them and they are moving rapidly.

We are the leaders in originators of

Low Prices

and have everything to be found in a well kept hosiery stock.

Miller & Peck,

OUR STOCK

Boots and Shoes

Are now ready for inspection. We think they are the best lines in the city for the money. The following are a few of them.

Men's Heavy Oil Grain in Bal & Creammore $2.50 to $4.00

Men's Heavy Parian Calf Bal Creammore, $4.00.

Men's Heavy Parian Calf Bal Creammore, $3.00.

Men's Heavy Calf, cork soles Bal & Congress, $3.00 to $5.0