EXPOSING THE PLOT

Two Italian Prisoners to Make a Confession.

THE MAFIA'S MEMBERS EXCITED.

A Secret Meeting Held in an Old Building in New Orleans.

The Subject of the Recent Lynching Debated—Police Unable to Learn Whether Any Threats Were Made—O'Malley Says He Will Return to New Orleans and Give Important Evidence.

NEW ORLEANS, March 23.—The promised expose of the Mafia plot, which ended in the assassination of Chief of Police Hendry by Sunzeri and Natali, two of the Italian prisoners now in jail, has caused a great deal of excitement in the Italian quarters.

Last evening a secret meeting was held in an old building near Congo square, which was attended by 100 Italians, who discussed the report for nearly an hour. The police have information that the subject of the recent lynching was taken up and certain plans were discussed, but they have not been able to learn whether or not any threats were made.

It is claimed that both Sunzeri and Natali have been told the most complete story to Attorney-General Rogers and to members of the committee of safety, and that they have consented to repeat it to the grand jury whenever that body gets ready to hear them.

Nicholls' Letter on the Way. Gov. Nicholls' long-expected reply to Secretary of State Blaine's telegram demanding a report of the Saturday uprising has been written at last and left for Washington last night's mail.

O'MALLEY LOCATED.

He Says He Will Return to New Orleans and Tell Everything.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., March 23.—Detective O'Malley of New Orleans, whose presence in this city was only learned by chance, does not appear to be at all worried over the state of affairs in the Crescent city nor for his own personal safety.

He is accompanied by his wife and child. He is registered under an assumed name. To a reporter he said at midnight: "I was present at the Clay Statue meeting and hid in New Orleans for two days and nights, and then I went first to Houston, Tex., and then to Conango. Then turning about I came northward to Brinkley, Ark., and from that place to Memphis. It is my intention to return to New Orleans next Wednesday or Thursday."

"I will certainly expose the workings of the Mafia, I have been in the employ of the Mafia faction of the Mafia for six years, and in my capacity as detective have plenty of information which I am sure no other man has."

O'Malley declined to say anything in connection with the bribing of the jury, except that he thinks they were bribed. He said, in conclusion, that six of the Italians killed were guilty of complicity in the Hennessy case.

DAMAGE AT LONG BRANCH.

Gap Torn in the Bluff by Angry Seas and Property Destroyed.

LONG BRANCH, N. J., March 23.—The destructive storm along the Jersey coast, which set in with a howling gale from the northeast Friday, steadily increased in velocity last night, and the indications are that it will eclipse the damaging storm of September three years ago.

Saturday and Sunday the sea ran high and was fully as rough as it was Friday. Its damaging attack upon the much torn Long Branch bluff at high tide last night renders it only a question of hours when Ocean avenue will have been obliterated to such an extent that it will be impassable at points and entirely beyond repair at the Howland House property, where Friday's high seas washed tons of drift away.

The fences around the gaps on the East End property, between Long Branch and North Long Branch, were nearly all carried out to sea yesterday, together with great blocks of the bluff.

The washout near the United States Hotel has been the most serious test since Friday's storm set in, while public travel over the famous drive is extremely dangerous near the De Feyster cottages, and the washout near the Howland House property, where Friday's high seas washed tons of drift away.

A Man's Residence Burned and His Body Found in the Ruins.

FRANKLIN, Pa., March 23.—About 5 a. m. the residence of N. P. Tobin was burned and shortly after the body of Tobin was found in the ruins. There is a suspicion that Tobin was murdered by burglars and the house burned to conceal the crime.

Twenty years ago Tobin was brought from Canada to whip Ben Hogan, then an oil region terror, but one evening he wandered into a Methodist prayer meeting, and before he left he was converted and has since lived an earnest Christian life and had successfully conducted a business in the oil region.

He leaves a family, who were visiting in New Castle, Pa. Several arrests have been made.

The President, in issuing it, simply complies with the statute enacted by the 60th Congress, which requires him to do this once a year, just before the approach of the fishing season. It is hinted that the coming promulgation will be even more vigorous than that of 1890.

The proposal to dispatch at least two war vessels to Alaskan waters means that the President intends that the pirates shall be punished if they resume the depredations of former years. GEN. JOHNSTON'S FUNERAL.

The Body to be Interred in Baltimore Without Military Display.

CABINET RUMORS.

Secretary Proctor's Friends Say He Has No Intention of Resigning.

WASHINGTON, March 23.—No confirmation of the report that Secretary Proctor contemplates resigning his office can be obtained in Washington.

Those who would be apt to know if the Secretary had any such intention are of opinion that there is no foundation for the report. A gentleman who traveled South with the Secretary last week says that Mr. Proctor then spoke enthusiastically of War Department work that he would be glad to do during the next two years, and that, judging from that conversation, he thinks the Secretary could not possibly be contemplating a resignation.

Mr. Proctor's present tour is far from being a "junket." This tour will extend over a month, and is planned to produce the most favorable impression on the military circles for the coming two years. Then, too, he has just brought from the West an officer whom he intends to make his military aide. He would hardly do this, it is argued, were he to resign.

Kincaid's Trial Begun.

FOR HER SISTER'S MURDER.

Caroline Schmidt and Her Husband Called For Trial To-day.

PHILADELPHIA, March 23.—A half-crazed woman walks her narrow cell in the Media jail day and night. The theory of the prosecuting officers of the county is that it is remorse for the slaying of a sister which drives her mad and peace from her brain. The woman's friends declare that it is shame and nervous shock at an unjust accusation of a brutal crime which has nearly made a mad creature of her.

To-day in the county courthouse the judicial sifting of the evidence for and against these widely different theories has begun. The woman is Mrs. Caroline Schmidt, who jointly with her husband is charged with the murder of Emma Fitzsimmer at Chester on the early morning of December 4.
