KEEPING PACE WITH SPORTING EVENTS

To Probe College Athletics

New York, June 1—College all bets are off on a trip by the New York City College baseball team to New Orleans next fall. The trip is to be covered by the New York Times with the object of getting a glimpse of the baseball situation in the South before the season begins. The team is expec ted to arrive in New Orleans on June 15 and will leave on July 14. The trip is expected to cost about $2,000.

Brooklyn Holds First Call on Metropolitan Amateur Golf Tournament

North Shore Has Primary Glimpse on Open Tournament and Swany on the Youngsters Will Be Given More Attention Than They Received Hitherto.

Donohue and Emerson Win Doubles Title

New York, Jan. 1.—Gerald Donohue and H. P. Emerson, both of New York City, were declared the champions of the Metropolitan Amateur Golf Tournament at the Metropoli tan Country Club, Flushing, with a score of 213. The pair made their final round with a score of 36 at the first nine holes, and 37 at the last nine holes, for a total of 103. The closest competition was for third place, which was won by W. H. H. P. P. H. Brod and W. H. H. P. H. Brod, who finished with a score of 214. The pair made their final round with a score of 37 at the first nine holes, and 36 at the last nine holes, for a total of 103.

Hendrick's Cardinals' New Pilot

Sand Lake, Feb. 1.—The St. Louis Cardinals are expected to name 21-year-old John Hendrick the manager of the team for the coming season.
Hendrick is a former manager of the Cardinals, and has been associated with the team for many years.

Bowling Probably 600-1

Although the origin of the game of bowling is uncertain, there is evidence that it was a popular pastime among the ancient Greeks and Romans. The origin of the modern form of bowling is generally attributed to the Middle Ages, when it was played in Europe.

17-Year-Old Boy
Baseball Coach of Shenandoahs

The Times, May 8—The 17-year-old boy who recently became the coach of the Shenandoah High School base ball team, has made a dramatic impact on the sport. The boy, who is known as "The Kid," has taken the team to the top of the standings in their league.

Main Train with Yankees

The Times, May 8—The 17-year-old
boy who recently became the coach
of the Shenandoah High School base ball team, has made a dramatic
impact on the sport. The boy, who
is known as "The Kid," has taken the
team to the top of the standings in
their league.

Maiden Flight with United

The Times, May 8—The 17-year-old
boy who recently became the coach
of the Shenandoah High School base ball team, has made a dramatic
impact on the sport. The boy, who
is known as "The Kid," has taken the
team to the top of the standings in
their league.

Eight Clubs Will Receive Share in Big Series Money

Johnston and Herrmann Adopt New Plan for Annual Baseball Classic at Longwood Club; In Second Division and Keep Alive Interest In Game
As Season.

A new feature in the annual series of games at the American League is the introduction of a major tournament between the eight clubs. The tournament will begin on June 1, with a game between the New York Yankees and the Boston Red Sox, and will continue throughout the season. The tournament will be played on a round-robin basis, with each team playing a game against each of the other teams.

Talk of Sports

The Times, May 8—The 17-year-old
boy who recently became the coach
of the Shenandoah High School base ball team, has made a dramatic
impact on the sport. The boy, who
is known as "The Kid," has taken the
team to the top of the standings in
their league.

Walter Camp Picks an All Service Team

The Times, May 8—Walter Camp, the famous football coach, has announced the selection of an All-Service Team for the coming season. The team will be composed of players from the var different service teams, and will be coached by Camp.

CUT OUT POLITICS
MYRICK'S ADVICE

The Times, May 8—In a new letter to the editor, Myrick, active President of the New York City Political Club, has called for the termination of "politics as usual" in the city. Myrick has also urged the people to vote against candidates who are associated with political activities.

MERRICK FLYING WITH U.S. CORPS

The Times, May 8—In a new
letter to the editor, Myrick, active
President of the New York City
Political Club, has called for the
termination of "politics as usual" in
the city. Myrick has also urged the
people to vote against candidates
who are associated with political activities.