Lovers of the stars and the mystery of the heavens will be delighted Thursday afternoon when they attend the lecture to be given by B. E. Baumgardt under the auspices of the Bridgeport Art League, at The Stratfield hall room.

WINTER SPORTS CLOTHES.

Sports clothes, which, a few years ago, were the exclusive possession of the summer wardrobe, now claim winter wear.

BLACK SNOW

"As white as snow" is one of the stock comparisons of every day, and there is nothing so clear whiter than newly-fallen snow.

DUTCH WINTERS

"In winter, when their canals are frozen, every house is forsaken and all people are on the ice; sleds drawn by horses and skates are used for the remaining amusements."

THE NEW CLOTHES

Chinese blue and yellow is a pretty combination in a navy blue gabardine which conforms to figure at waist-line and has its rolling collar linked.

WOMEN AT WORK

During the war, millions of women have been at work in vocations into which they have never before been called—in Munition Factories, Chemical Works, Metal Works, Street Railways, and as Ambulance Drivers, Barbers, and Elevator Girls.

GOOD THING FOR SUFFRAGE PROHIBITION QUESTION OVER

BY ANNIE G. PORITT, Press Chairman, of the Connecticut Branch National Woman's Party.

The ratification of the prohibition amendment has been greeted with intense satisfaction by Suffragists generally. The satisfaction is not all due to the fact that most Suffragists are personally in favor of prohibition, though this has long been undoubtedly true.

In New Jersey in 1915 there was a tremendous onslaught on Woman Suffrage certain machine politicians headed by "Jim" Nugent and supported almost entirely by the saloon interests.
