The Hon Grover still keeps the politicians guessing. From the present outlook, however, it is safe to say he will go a gunning next week and keep it up until after election.

When old Zach Chandler made Hayes a possibility by claiming his election after the returns showed Tilden's election, he established a precedent that has been slavishly followed by the republican managers of every national campaign since.

General Joe Wheeler was very polite, also very emphatic in denying Teddy's claim that he was a flopper. General Joe is a rockbound democrat, and will vote for Bryan and Stevenson.

The policy of imperialism has been openly advocated in the past, says a writer in the New York Irish World. We remember the newspaper called The Imperialist that was published in New York for many months to test public opinion.

millionaires and the trusts, see in this revolutionary change a way to make America a country fit for a gentleman to live in, as Astor said, and a country where the damned lower orders, as a defunct Vandervort said, shall be taught to know and keep their places.

Banker Henry Clewes takes a hopeful view of our present situation in regard to foreign matters, especially of the Chinese trouble, which he says, is bound to bring more business and money to this country.

The Hon Grover still keeps the politicians guessing. From the present outlook, however, it is safe to say he will go a gunning next week and keep it up until after election.

Hanna's clownish antics and talk will cause many disgusted republicans to vote for Bryan and Stevenson.

When nominations and election to office are sought for cold cash, they will be no use denying that the dollar mark has become our national emblem, and it will be an insult to intelligence to call this a free country.

In Williamstown, Wednesday night, a gang of toughs who call themselves the Morgan G. Bulkeley Rough Riders, deliberately set fire to and destroyed the democratic banner.

HELPED BY A BOER MAID.

Writing from Springs, South Africa, on August 1, a correspondent in the first Canadian contingent gives the following romantic history of the failure of a Boer plot to recapture Johannesburg...

"The Boers purposed attending this meeting armed with revolvers, and having a large number of confederates, armed likewise with Mausers, hiding in buildings in the immediate vicinity of the racetrack, ready to act upon the given signal.

"It appears that a pretty Boer maiden in Johannesburg had two lovers, one an Englishman and the other a burgher. They were both very pressing for the hand of this young girl.

"The governor acted promptly, cancelled the gymkhana, and had all the Boers whose names appeared on the lists arrested and at once sent to Cape Town.

"I do be raydin' a deal in the paypers these days about th' shurrty-wastye man," said Dan Keegan to his partner, as they straightened themselves up from the ditch where they were at work to stare at a party of golfers coming down the lane.

"The Pioneer Shirt-Waist Man. "I do be raydin' a deal in the paypers these days about th' shurrty-wastye man," said Dan Keegan to his partner, as they straightened themselves up from the ditch where they were at work to stare at a party of golfers coming down the lane.

When you want a team or hack go to Austin's. Telephone. As a slinger of billingsgate Boss Hanna is a howling and disgusting success.

One of the big insurance companies has already re-elected Mr McKinley. But that won't prevent the election of Mr Bryan on election day.

Possibly Mr Fessenden believes that not even his aid can save McLean, and is, therefore, willing to give it. He says he feels "in honor bound by the action of the convention."
