

Its Comical

To hear what political talking machines will say, look at the full dinner pails during the last four years. The other fellow will answer yes, but filled with what? Some with air, more with stale bread, etc. And, my friend, how about a full coal hod this winter? But the latest reason we've heard why one should vote for McKinley is that it won't cost so much as it will if Bryan is elected. Well, for goodness sake, if William J. Bryan will keep people at home put him in by all means. There certainly isn't enough work here now for the working people. The same person says if Bryan goes in it will cost $0.34 to send $5 out of the country. More power to Mr. Bryan. We hope he will make it 57 cents more. If we have too much money, there are lots of opportunities to spend it right here in our own country. There isn't any too much money here to fill dinner pails, cosy parlors and coal bins. Speaking of coal reminds us of some nice, well made, galvanized coal hods which we are giving with each pound of our warranted good Baking Powder. Secure one while we have them. If you don't need a coal hod we will give you a wheelbarrow instead. Say, if McKinley eats as good butter as we sell, he's in luck. Try some this week at

Two Ways To Chop. 12 Quart Galvanized Pails 18c. One's the old-fashioned, slow, unsatisfactory with chopping knife and tray—the other's the up-to-date, easy, labor saving, food saving way—with the "Enterprise Food Chopper" It chops all kinds of meat, raw or cooked, and all kinds of fruits and vegetables, into clean cut, uniform pieces, fine or coarse, without mashing, and with great rapidity. Unlike other choppers, it has four cutters, including nut butter cutter—a steel ring takes up the wear—a flanged screw makes it juice tight. See them in our south window, priced $1.25.

CITY NEWS.

Miss Margaret O'Neill of Great Barrington, Mass., is spending a short vacation with Miss Helen Ryan of East Main street. Edward Doyle of Pittsfield, Mass., who has been enjoying a short vacation at the home of the Misses Grimes of Wall street, has returned home. Jane Marie, the 1-year-old daughter of Mr and Mrs William Barth of Hudson street, died this morning. The funeral took place this morning, with interment in Calvary cemetery. To-morrow will be All Saints' day, a holy day of obligation in the Catholic church. Mass will be celebrated at 5:30 o'clock in the morning for the accommodation of people who have to go to work. If the cost of raw material is not any higher and the price of labor is not so low, it is not surprising that commodities are going up every day? Probably one of the speakers will answer this question at the democratic rally in the auditorium to-morrow night. Buffalo Genoa, aged 27 years, died last night at his home, 56 Livery street. He leaves a widow and two children. The funeral will take place to-morrow morning at 7:30 o'clock, with a mass of requiem at the church of Our Lady of Lourdes and interment in Calvary cemetery. E. Kleinke, son of Commissioner Kleinke of the board of safety, attained his nineteenth birthday last evening, and to help him celebrate it a number of his friends from various parts of the state who were aware that it was his birthday anniversary called upon him in a body and made merry until early morning. In the litigation in which the Rev. Father Curtin and Earle Smith, of the Waterbury Buckle company oppose the county commissioners in granting a license to Michael Hartnett, a motion to dismiss the plaintiff's appeal was argued in the superior court last week. To-day Judge Wheeler handed down his decision in the matter, deciding against the motion. The case will now go before the court. A farmer's team ran away on West Side hill this forenoon. The team was hitched to a small tree on the roadside. This the horse pulled up and then dashed down the hill at a terrific gallop, leaving a trail of farm produce in its wake. Before it reached the bottom of the hill the wagon was in pieces and the horse was tumbling somersaults. Near the bridge it ran into a passing tea wagon, throwing the driver out and almost overturning his wagon. They escaped injury, however. The runaway horse was subsequently shot.

On Thursday, November 1, a special meeting will be conducted at the Salvation army by Captain Boyd Yorke, brother of the late Captain Yorke, whose life and labors are so well remembered here. Mrs. Ensign Yorke conducted the service on Sunday last, when the hall, corner of Grand and Bank streets, was filled with friends and sympathizers, and by special request she will also assist at the Thursday meeting before returning to Providence, R. I., where she is at present in charge of the army's operations. Special attention is called to this notice, as it is the last meeting she will be able to conduct.

The attorneys in the Odd Fellows building agreed to pray for rain this evening, provided none comes before that time. Attorney U. G. Church will preside, he being the only church member among his brethren. The expenses of the effort, for it is taken for granted that it has been a mighty struggle each lawyer had with himself to get down to the praying point, will be defrayed by a collection, and Judge Love has been appointed collector. Judge Cole has said that it will be a vain effort, time thrown away, for nothing was ever known to result from a lawyer's prayer, except trouble for some one else.

The residence of Contractor William McGrath on Fuller street was a happy place last evening. A merry party filled the house to give a hearty welcome to Mr McGrath's son, Michael F., upon his return home. For some time the young man has been traveling in the interests of a wholesale firm in Massachusetts, but at his father's request he severed his relations with that concern to enter the meat business here. All of the young man's friends were present, and with music they made merry until it was time to remember the creature comforts of life. At midnight the happy gathering broke up.

Halloween! What memories it awakens! It will be with us to-night and while a large number of people will be making merry with jovial companions others will while the time away thinking of the games they used to play and the boys and girls they knew in the dear dead Halloweens of the long ago when they joined in the frivolities of the hour with an abandon that would make some of the youngsters of to-day wonder what kind of a place Waterbury was when it could not boast of a third of its present population. One of the best of the evening's parties will be a private social and dance which will be given by employees of the Watch shop at Pythian hall in Waterville.

Mortimer Moriarty of Manchester and Miss Margaret Hart of this city were married this morning at the Immaculate Conception church by the pastor, Rev. W. J. Sheehan, who also celebrated the nuptial mass. Miss Margaret Moriarty was maid of honor and H. B. Moriarty did the honors for the groom. A wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Peter F. Sheehan of Simons street, where a large number of relatives and friends were entertained. The out of town guests included Marcus and Hannah Moriarty, Mrs. Kate Connor, Miss McDonough, John Hayes, Miss Lizzie Conroy and Cornelius Curran of Manchester. Mr and Mrs Moriarty left for a wedding tour.

A masquerade party consisting of A. F. Crowley, Eberks, surprised Miss Margaret Lynch of Ridgewood street Monday evening and spent the time in a very pleasant manner. Instrumental and vocal music was enjoyed during the evening. Under the direction of Miss Kathryn Beaumont of New York, Miss Alice King danced all with her Scotch dance, Miss Suckley and Frank Clark rendered a duet and Miss Shannon gave one of her pleasing recitations. Joseph Hartley of Boston rendered a tenor solo. Among the vocalists were the Misses Kinslow, Stigberg, Hansen and Fitzgerald. Dancing was indulged in and when the dancers had become weary all sat down to a bounteous repast. Several toasts were proposed by the young men. Miss Suckley was crowned her grandmother's wedding dress, 120 years old.

Joseph C. Spring, aged 28 years, died last night at his home, 60 State street. The funeral will take place at 2 o'clock to-morrow afternoon. George Spurway of Holmes avenue, who recently resigned his position as assistant foreman of the training department of the New England Watch Co to accept the position of foreman at Steele & Johnson's left vacant by the death of Richard Leroy, has been removed to the hospital suffering from typhoid pneumonia. List of letters remaining unclaimed in the postoffice: C. E. Butler, James E. Carey, F. Comber, for Andrew Doolan; Miss Annie Ellis, Mr. William F. Gwla, Mrs. John H. Hall, Miss Kate Kelley, Mrs. Emily S. Lewis, Miss Eliza Murphy, Miss Mary McDermott, George Reilly, Miss Bertha Somers, Adolph Westberg, Miss Anna Wood, James E. Worthington.

FERRELL ATTEMPTS SUICIDE.

Found Guilty of the Murder of Messenger Lane, Tries to Smother Himself. Marysville, Oct. 31.—The jury at midnight returned a verdict of murder in the first degree without recommendation against Rosslyn H. Ferrell, for the murder on the night of August 10 last of Charles Lane, an express messenger on a Pan Handle east bound train. The murder was committed for the purpose of robbery. Early this morning he tried to commit suicide in his cell by smothering himself with the bed clothes. When his purpose was discovered the guards pulled the clothes off him while Ferrell fought to prevent it.

BOY KILLS HIS PLAYMATE.

Chicago, Oct. 31.—Because he kicked over a little sand house, Ernest Dieter, 9 years old, was killed yesterday with a toy shovel in the hands of 6-year-old George Waterman. In childish rage the smaller boy struck the other on the back of the head, fracturing his skull.

CASE AGAIN ADJOURNED.

New York, Oct. 31.—Cornelius J. Alward, the embazzling note teller of the First National bank, was rearraigned in court to-day before Judge Flannery, and the case was again continued until to-morrow morning at 11 o'clock.

Rooster Says If Bryan is

Elected president your sugar will cost you double the price you are paying now, and he gives the following reasons for saying so: In 1898 we consumed 4,474,150,500 pounds of sugar. We only raised 804,031,680 pounds. This compelled us to go into foreign countries and purchase 3,670,118,820 pounds of sugar that we paid for with gold dollars. Nothing else would be accepted. We all know that one gold dollar is equal to two silver dollars of the brand of William J. Bryan. If this reasoning is not sound, will some democrat let me know and I will sell milk for 5 cents a quart all winter.
