POLICE COURT DOINGS

Lynch Children Will Be Taken in Charge By Friends. The city court this morning was the scene of a very sad affair, the partitioning of a family. Joseph McGinness and Mrs Margaret Lynch were before the court charged with disorderly conduct, to which they both pleaded not guilty. Officer Noonan and Trust Officer Turley, who arrested McGinness testified to a deplorable condition of things existing in the Lynch home. The husband left the wife last July, leaving four small children dependent upon their mother for support. At that time McGinness boarded with the Lynches and it appeared that he was frequent caller there since then. The suspicions of the neighborhood were aroused that all was not right in that house and yesterday morning Officer Noonan's attention was called to the place, with the result as already stated. But it was not on this evidence alone that the case was brought before the court; the oldest little girl of the family, aged 8 years, told the whole state of affairs to the prosecutor and he told it in court. McGinness was fined $10 and costs and sentenced to thirty days in jail. Sentence was suspended in the woman's case for one week in order to give her time to distribute her children among her relatives, whom it appears are anxious that they should be taken from her. If at the end of a week the order of the court has not been carried out the court will order, pass sentence upon the woman and make formal order that the children shall be taken care of in other ways. When Mrs Lynch heard her boy, 4 years old, who sat with her in the dock heard the order of the court they burst into tears and the picture they presented was strikingly lamentable. Daniel Lynch was found guilty of non-support and sentenced to sixty days in jail. He took an appeal and a bond of $200 was ordered that he should pay his wife $1 a week pending the hearing of the appeal. Lynch has been working in Torrington for some months, yesterday he came to town and was arrested. James Moran was fined $10 and costs for putting his wife and children out of the house last evening. The people live in Waterville. Constable Lunny, who made the arrest, testified that he has been repeatedly called upon by Mrs Moran to act as peacemaker.

ST. JOHN'S, N. P.

ST. JOHN'S, N. P., Nov. 21.—Only one legislative district has not yet declared the result of its poll during the recent colonial general election. Yesterday official returns were received from the Burgeo district, showing another success for Mr. Bond, the premier. The delay in declaring the result was due to the continued stormy weather, which had prevented a collection of the ballot boxes. With one district yet to be heard from, Mr. Bond's supporters in the new house of assembly will number 31 and Mr. Moirine's 4.

ST. PAUL, Nov. 21.—A quiet day was passed by United States Senator Davis, his condition yesterday afternoon being reported unchanged. At Senator Davis' home it was stated that the physicians had reported their patient as being stronger than for the last two days. The delirium, it is understood, continues, and his his worst symptoms. The respiration is eight above normal and the temperature slightly higher than Monday. The pulse is exactly as it was. This ability of the stomach to receive and of the system to assimilate nourishment is the one factor upon which the sick statesman must rely in his prolonged fight with disease.

Playwright Hoyt Dead

CHARLESTOWN, N. H., Nov. 21.—Charles H. Hoyt, the well known playwright, died at his residence here at 7:15 o'clock last night of paralysis from which he had been suffering for several months past. Ever since his return to Charlestown, after his release from a private asylum in Hartford by order of the court in August, he had been in a declining condition and his nearest friends that there was little or no chance for his recovery, but Mr. Hoyt had seemed hopeful of ultimate recovery. Previous to two weeks ago he had been able to get about the house and had periods of depression. About two weeks ago his appetite failed and he had a bad turn, from which he only partially recovered. The people here at Charlestown, Constable Lunny, who made the arrest, testified that he has been repeatedly called upon by Mrs Moran to act as peacemaker.

President Angell's Opinion

DETROIT, Nov. 21.—President James B. Angell of the University of Michigan, ex-minister to China, in the course of an address on China before the New England society of this city last night said that the Chinese problem—first, to deposit the opium and place some one else in his place, but who to replace him with President Angell confessed his inability to suggest a name, and second, to keep the present emperor on the throne, and to keep the emperor dowager from all power. In conclusion, Mr. Angell said he believed the future of China rested on the success of a union of the Christian religion into the country.

TO ADAPT STRONGER MEASURES

LONDON, Nov. 21.—"At last," says a Shanghai correspondent of The Morning Post, "the Chinese government has decided to adapt stronger measures to bring matters to a crisis. They have asked the viceroy of Nankin to state definitely his position toward the Chinese court and the question of forwarding supplies." "It is credibly reported," says the Shanghai correspondent of The Daily Telegraph, under yesterday's date, that the emperor dowager has telegraphed a secret decree warning all governors and viceroys to prepare for immediate war against the allies everywhere."

INDEPENDENCE MINE GUARDED

VICTOR, Colo., Nov. 21.—John Hays Hammond arrived in the city yesterday morning and immediately began his examination of Stratton's Independence mine. He remained underground until noon. When asked if he admitted that the mine had been cut off, he replied: "I do. It is too early yet to make an estimate of the ore in sight, but I will have a report ready in a few days which I will not withhold from you. It is necessary to restore confidence, and this can easily be done. This independence matter will have a great effect on the future disposal of European capital and will decide whether any further Colorado enterprise is to be undertaken from the other side of the water."

MINISTER YU IN PHILADELPHIA

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 21.—Minister Fung, the Chinese minister at Washington, delivered an address last night before the American Academy of Political and Social Science. Mr. Fung, who has made frequent trips to this city, but never had seen the sights of the city, was taken on a tour of observation by members of the academy. A visit was made to the University of Pennsylvania, the League Island yard, Cramps' shipyard, Standard Oil works and a number of large industrial establishments. After completing his sightseeing tour the minister was the guest of Provost Charles C. Harrison of the University of Pennsylvania.

SENATOR DAVIS GAINS STRENGTH

ST. PAUL, Nov. 21.—A quiet day was passed by United States Senator Davis, his condition yesterday afternoon being reported unchanged. At Senator Davis' home it was stated that the physicians had reported their patient as being stronger than for the last two days. The delirium, it is understood, continues, and his his worst symptoms. The respiration is eight above normal and the temperature slightly higher than Monday. The pulse is exactly as it was. SILE MILLS TO CLOSE

PATERSON, N. J., Nov. 21.—The Pioneer Silk company, the oldest concern in this city, with mills at Allentown, Pa., and in Paterson, will ask for the appointment of a receiver to wind up its affairs at both places. The concern has been running down for some time, but will be asked to pay on all its indebtedness. The shutdown will throw 2,000 hands out of work. The mill was founded by the late John Ryle, the father of the silk industry in America.

REAR ADMIRAL STENBEL DEAD

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—Rear Admiral Roger N. Stenbel, retired, is dead from pneumonia at the Fifth Avenue hotel. He would have been 90 years old next month, and with the exception of Thomas O. Selfridge, the elder, had more years of life and service than any man in the list of rear admirals. Rear Admiral Stenbel had a record of gallant service in the civil war. He made his home in Washington, passing the summer at Narragansett Pier.

TWO MORE DEER REPORTED

East Hampton, Nov. 21.—Baker L. Siebert saw a pretty doe yesterday morning while he was driving to Moodus. It crossed the road in front of his cart just south of the E. W. Daniels place. A buck with a fine pair of antlers was seen yesterday feeding near the watering trough near the Plains by William Wall and Henry Flood.

BROOKLYN BRIEFS

—William Morgan of 505 Washington avenue, a caster in the employ of Holmes, Booth & Hayden's company, met with a slight but painful accident this morning. While engaged in work, he was struck in some manner in the face by a large plank, thus receiving a deep cut in the cheek bone. Dr. Russell dressed the wound, which required four stitches.

—Last Monday night at the parsonage of the Third Congregational church a local chapter of the Daughters of the Covenant was formed.

—The young ladies signed the covenant, thus becoming active members of the society, which promises to become a very flourishing one. The object of the society is well expressed in the following, which is a part of the covenant, which each member must sign: "I gladly enter into the covenant of obedience that I will not cease to make offerings of prayer, time and money, to the end that the daughters of sorrow in heathen lands may know the love of God. As a result of this work the society will work for the benefit of the church and local missionary work. Each member of the society is presented with an altar cloth, a prayer book, a covenant for framing, also a pretty note book, the contents of which will be collected periodically and will be contributed to missionary work. The badge of the society is a little sterling silver key pin which every member votes to procure and wear as a sign of their membership. The officers of the society are as follows: Mrs Charles E. Grant, president; Miss Minnie Hunter, secretary, and Miss Ethel Wood, treasurer.

FIRE IN CLOTHES CLOSET

Chemical Engine Put the Blaze Out Before Damage was Done. This morning an alarm was rung in from box 21, corner of North Elm and Kingsbury streets, calling the department to the residence of Anthony Moore, 145 North Elm street, where the fire had broken out in a clothes closet. The building is a three-story tenement owned by Blake & Johnson, and occupied by several families and with the right kind of a start would make a conflagration that would be difficult to handle, but it did not amount to much, though, and was got under control and extinguished without the use of water, the chemical engine doing the work in the shape. Aside from the clothing belonging to the family, which was practically destroyed, which was amounted to nothing to speak of. It attracted a big crowd and broke the monotony of things for the time being for the hands in the factories across the way, some of whom live in the big block and came trooping around prepared to make a fight to save their belongings in case the fire threatened to wipe out the building.

STOLE BRASS FITTINGS

Peccoliar Booty Obtained by Thieves at Berlin Brick Yards. New Britain, Nov. 21.—A peculiar case of theft was discovered yesterday at the works of the Berlin Brick Co. on the road to Berlin. The company has two engines, one in the brick department and the other in the terra cotta department. It was found that thieves during the night had effected an entrance into the engine rooms through a window and by breaking down a door. They then stripped the engines of all the brass valves, cocks and other brass parts, and the engines cannot run until these parts are replaced. Toward's brickyard was also visited by the thieves. They took a quantity of brass there also, besides tools which they found in the blacksmith building. There is no clue to the identity of their tracks were washed away by the rain. From investigations made yesterday it is thought two men took part in the burglary.

A BANDANNA EVENING

On Thursday, December 6th, Mrs Jennie Robinson Murphy, of New York city, formerly of St. Louis, Ky., will appear at Leavenworth hall for the benefit of the colored people in her famous impersonation of "Negro Slave Songs and Plantation Folk-Lore." Early in life this genuine daughter of the South was fascinated by the music of the negroes and sang ballads of the negro race, and with unusual facilities at her command she set herself to the task of studying and mastering the folk-songs and folk-lore of those who had once been slaves. Her studies were rewarded by her loving enthusiasm. She went among the poor and lowly, and from field, cabin and "Prayers House" took from the lips of the negroes the songs and stories which she now reproduces with remarkable realism. Exclusive critical audiences have applauded loudly this unapproachable entertainment. It is at once new, instructive and amusing. She has opened her own field of effort, in which she stands pre-eminent and alone.

DEMOCRATS WIN

Wallington, Nov. 21.—At the borough election yesterday the democratic ticket was elected by a narrow margin from 176 for warden down to 168. The only republicans elected were William H. Newton, for Burgess, and Charles D. Morris, for treasurer and treasurer of water fund. A surprise was sprung by the election of Wilbur C. Northrop for borough clerk over Frary Hale. It was Northrop's third nomination and first election. Hale having held the position for ten years past. George E. Dickerman, a well known hardware dealer, defeated his republican opponent, Horace Botsford, a contractor, for warden by the vote of 711 to 535. In '94 the same parties ran for office and Botsford won out.

CONTESTED ELECTION CASE

Meriden, Nov. 21.—At the recent election, W. S. Fenn, one of the republican candidates for representative from the town of Meriden, was defeated by seven votes according to the returns of the town moderator. Mr Fenn is thinking of contesting the election of the democrat who was declared elected, and yesterday his attorney was at the state secretary's office looking up the records in contested election cases to obtain precedents which will be cited in case of a contest.
