

BEER

Is the very first item on the list of articles which had that imposition called war tax taken off it, but the 10c per pound on tea still remains. Well, that's pretty work for the politicians; you can readily see what kind of men have been sent to Washington. Just reflect on this matter. Keeping a duty of 10 cents per pound on tea, an article which is a necessity providing you wish to enjoy good health and a long and happy life and taking the tax off a drink (beer), which is a costly luxury and in many instances raises ructions and causes many a sore head and black eye, and sometimes is the direct cause of spending a thirty or sixty days' vacation in jail or town house. Say, the politicians who made the above blunder virtually passed a law the other day whereby the soldiers are deprived of their beer, yet the same fellows took the tax off the "stuff." For pity, sake are they insane? Well, we sent the lawmakers over to Washington and we must abide by their decision. Remember, it doesn't matter whether they leave the tax on Tea or not; we will look after our patrons' welfare and see they get the good quality every time. We guarantee our Tea and Coffee to be the top notch quality, and we sell at the bottom notch price. If you doubt us just give us a trial, then judge for yourself whether we tell the truth or not at

CITY NEWS.

The eyelet department of the Manhattan factory will begin running over-time until 9 o'clock to-night. The class in shorthand at the C. W. A. will meet at 8 o'clock and the penmanship class will meet Thursday night. Last evening the firemen stationed in the Burton street house elected Frank Keeley president and Frank J. Hollywood secretary and treasurer of the newspaper club. Mayor Kilbuck left yesterday afternoon for Charleston, S. C. where he will represent Waterbury at the convention of the League of American Municipalities which will be held there on December 15, 14 and 15. The funeral of the late Michael Pace will take place from his late residence on South Main street to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock with service at the church of Our Lady of Lourdes and interment in Calvary cemetery. During the Christmas holidays members of the alumni of St. Mary's school will give a short drama in the Music hall of the school. The play which has been selected is "Fabiola," dramatized from Cardinal Wiseman's book of the same name. Miss J. Margaret Beard, principal of the Montgomery, Ala. Industrial school, delivered an address before the Mission circle of the Second Baptist church yesterday afternoon. Her discourse pertained principally to the work among the negroes. The members of the Burton street engine house will petition the board of public safety to allow them to put in a punching bag. If they succeed, the firemen of the other houses throughout the city will petition likewise, for they have practically no exercise whatever. Abraham Lincoln camp, S. of V. held a meeting last night and elected the following officers: Captain, J. S. Gallagher; first lieutenant, J. S. Lynch; second lieutenant, S. L. Turner; members of the camp council, Edward Pratt, Nathan Czamanski, C. L. Loomis, Jr. representatives to division camp-council, S. L. Turner, F. D. Goodall; alternate, C. Lynch. A letter from Private Joseph Monaghan to his sister, Mrs. James Grant of Pine Woods, dated at the Imperial palace, Peking, China, gives a brief description of the palace and says the empress dowager's bedroom is filled with the clocks, some of them Waterbury make. He is a member of the Ninth United States regiment and is on guard at the palace. Hendrickson council, K. of C. held a meeting last night and elected the following officers: Grand knight, T. F. Conway; deputy grand knight, C. E. McComb; recording secretary, A. L. Hoss; financial secretary, James M. Lynch; treasurer, Dr. J. L. Egan; chaplain, Rev. J. H. O'Donnell; warden, Harry Bamann; chamberlain, W. H. Monagan; lecturer, George C. Kilbuck; inside guard, Frank E. Lewis; outside guard, J. J. Plutain; trustees, John J. Riley, D. G. Sullivan and James Madigan. Another one of those delightful receptions for which Professor Bailey's pupils are noted, was held last evening at his academy hall. It being the closing lesson of the Monday night class the gentlemen took it on themselves to make it a merry one, and invited a large number of friends to take part in it. After the last number of songs had been sung, the happy dancers, all departed thanking the members and wishing them future success. Refreshments were served. Joseph N. Begnal of North Leonard street has been appointed foreman of the sewer department and entered upon his duties this morning. Mr. Begnal is a son of the late Alderman Michael Begnal of Riverside street, and one of the best known men in the Waterbury district. There were several other good men after the job, but of course but one could get it and Mr. Begnal happened to be the choice and it seems to be believed that the appointment will meet with general approval. The following are the officers of the Naugatuck Valley Poultry association: President, E. J. Chatfield; vice-president, Richard Preusser; secretary, J. D. McGowan; treasurer, Henry Baumgartner; recording secretary, W. C. Bon; superintendent, D. B. Wilson. The association will hold an exhibit hall from January 8 to January 10. The affair will be managed by Superintendent Wilson. A. F. Pierce of Winchester, N. H.; H. S. Ball of Winchester, Mass.; F. E. Field, Somers, Conn., will act as judges. A well attended meeting of the alumni of the Waterbury High school was held last night in the High school building. President Carmody presiding. Enthusiasm and zeal marked the doing of those present, all of whom were eager to assist in every way possible in making the annual concert and ball on New Years night in the City hall an elaborate affair. It was decided advisable to appoint a committee of fifteen to work in connection with the executive committee in arranging the details for the affair. The committee consists of the following: The Messrs. Jennie Cullane, Sara McDonald, Helen Kaiser, Myrtle Northrop, Clara Livingston, Edith Sanderson, Elizabeth Wagner, Myra Nelson, Lillian Kirschbaum and Loretta Hayes and Edward B. McEligott, John B. Gray, Michael J. Noonan, Frank K. Spellman and James A. McDonald. To-night there will be another meeting at which every graduate of the school is requested to be present. At this meeting various sub-committees will be appointed and other business will be transacted for the furtherance of the arrangements for the promenade. The meeting will be held in the High school building at 8.30.

WANT COMMITTEE APPOINTED.

So That William D. Ashley Will Not Squander $75,000.

New York, Dec. 11.—A hearing is in progress before a sheriff's jury in the Kings county court, Brooklyn, on an application for the appointment of a committee of the person of William D. Ashley of Flatbush, N. Y. Ashley forwent away to Nebraska, his family following him. About three years ago he inherited some property and divided $75,000 between his wife, son and daughter, on condition, it is said, that they were to give him a sum monthly for his support. The application for the appointment of a committee of the person was made by his daughter, Miss Elsie M. Ashley. She testified that the family was willing to turn over the $75,000 to the care of a committee. Miss Ashley deposed that her father had been drinking for years and that his family had been obliged to follow him over many parts of the country. He disappeared in 1897 and was found some months later in Jersey City and declared that he had been robbed. In 1898 Ashley, the daughter said, had spent six weeks in a home in Brooklyn, and while an inmate of an institution in Foxborough, Mass. he got away, and with $4,000 in his possession started for Flatbush. He displayed the roll of bills on the train and the conductor took it from him for safe keeping. The money was returned to him later. The hearing will be resumed.

BITTER AGAINST BOERS.

Christiana, Dec. 11.—Henrik Ibsen, the dramatist, in the Orledadet, reiterates the statements he previously made against the Boers, claiming that they formerly oppressed weaker peoples. He says he thinks the Boer sympathy manifested in so many countries is unwarranted, and rather ridiculous.

SICK SOLDIERS RETURNING.

One Commits Suicide, Fearing He Will Not Recover. San Francisco, Dec. 11.—The United States transport Hancock has arrived from Manila, via Nagasaki. She left Manila with 309 enlisted sick and discharged soldiers and civilians. On the voyage from Nagasaki ten of the sick soldiers died. Private A. K. Clausen, Forty-second Infantry, died of pneumonia on recovery, cut an artery in his wrist and died two days later. All the bodies the Hancock had taken from Honolulu and Guam were transferred at Manila to the Thomas and Grant and others of the transport fleet. The Grant, now on her way here, has about 250 bodies on board.
