

Herald Cameramen Tell Their Story

CAN'T REMEMBER WHO SHE IS—This pretty and cultured girl of 20, a victim of amnesia, has proved a puzzle to Los Angeles police. She has been unable to tell authorities her name or where she lives. She "came to" while strolling aimlessly along a street and in terror went to the police for aid in orienting herself.

DURING COMMUNIST DEMONSTRATIONS IN THREE CITIES—(1) Demonstration in front of White House, Washington; (2) cheering Communists carry leader, Fat Devine, in Pittsburgh; (3) New York mounted police charge throngs in demonstration at Union Square, and (4) a policeman dressed in workmen's clothes chases a Communist in New York and thumps him on the head a moment after this photo is taken.

CHIEF JUSTICE BUYS HOUSE—The new chief justice of the United States supreme court, William Evans Hughes, has purchased this house at 2223 R St., Washington, and will move into it in May.

TO COMMAND WHITE HOUSE POLICE, BELIEF—Richard Jervis, of the White House secret service, will be made commanding officer of the executive mansion's police, when bill authorizing new force is passed.

POWER HEARING—Secretary of the Interior Ray Lyman Wilbur, snapped as he took the stand at the hearings on the power lobby conducted by the senate committee on interstate commerce at Washington.

REMINISCENT OF COBB—Even the great Tyrus Raymond Cobb, ace of sliders, would have to admire the way Allen Cooke, promising newcomer to the Yankee ranks, slides into the practice pit at the training camp at St. Petersburg. Cooke is regarded as one of the most promising of the rookies.

TESTIFY FOR PROHIBITION—Those who favor prohibition now present their side before the house judiciary committee, which is hearing pros and cons in Washington. Among those testifying for prohibition are, left to right: Dr. Daniel A. Poling, Mrs. Lenna Yost, of Huntington, W. Va., and Samuel Crowther, economic writer, of Bayside, L. I.

NAVAL DELEGATES IN WAX—Modeling the principal delegates to the London naval reduction conference in wax is the task of John Tussaud, left, great-grandson of the original Mme. Tussaud, at London. The models are to be grouped around a table in characteristic attitudes and placed in England's greatest wax works.

OFF FOR TESTS—The U. S. S. Pensacola, newest 10,000-ton cruiser, passes under Brooklyn bridge, New York, en route to sea for tests.

PRINCE IS THEIR GUEST—Lieutenant Colonel Sir Edward Grigg, governor of Kenya Colony, East Africa, and Lady Kathleen Grigg, are host and hostess to the Prince of Wales.
