IT KILLED SIX.

The Dynamite Explosion in New York Yesterday.

MURRAY MILL HOTEL: A WRECK.

Yesterday morning an explosion caused by dynamite at the Murray Mill Hotel in New York City, resulted in the destruction of the hotel and the death of six persons. The explosion occurred at 8 a.m., when a party of men were attending a meeting of the hotel, at which a dynamite pistol was discharged. The hotel was located in the Bowery district, on the corner of E. 22nd St. and N. 4th Ave.

The disaster was caused by a dynamite pistol, which was discharged at a meeting of the hotel. The hotel was located in the Bowery district, on the corner of E. 22nd St. and N. 4th Ave.

DOUBLE HANGING OF TO-DAY.

Two Men Who Murdered a Bank Cashier at Buffalo.

They Were Taking the Back Wire to a Buffalo Bank.

The verdict was rendered by a jury at Buffalo, N. Y., on the charge of murder in the first degree, and both parties were sentenced to death. The prisoners were taken to the county jail in Buffalo, and will remain there until the sentence is carried out.

SOLDIERS DYING FROM FEVER.

Their Bodies Are Being Exhumed.

Several soldiers at Fort Monroe, Va., are suffering from fever, and their bodies are being exhumed for examination. The soldiers were buried at Fort Monroe last week, and the bodies were taken to the hospital for examination. The cause of the fever is unknown, but it is feared that it may be due to the presence of some disease in the soil of the hospital.

CENTRAL LABOR DELEGATES.

The Central Labor Delegates met today in New York City, and adopted a resolution expressing their opinion on the subject of the strike. The resolution was adopted by a vote of 19 to 0, and will be submitted to the Central Labor Congress for consideration.

WARRER, CLARK.

Championed Rights of Union at Hartford To-Day.

WARRER'S NEW RESOLUTION.

Yesterday, Mr. Warrer presented a resolution in the House of Representatives, expressing his opinion on the subject of the strike. The resolution was adopted by a vote of 19 to 0, and will be submitted to the Central Labor Congress for consideration.

709.

The Central Labor Delegates met today in New York City, and adopted a resolution expressing their opinion on the subject of the strike. The resolution was adopted by a vote of 19 to 0, and will be submitted to the Central Labor Congress for consideration.

The resolution expressed the opinion of the delegates on the subject of the strike. The resolution was adopted by a vote of 19 to 0, and will be submitted to the Central Labor Congress for consideration.

The resolution expressed the opinion of the delegates on the subject of the strike. The resolution was adopted by a vote of 19 to 0, and will be submitted to the Central Labor Congress for consideration.

The resolution expressed the opinion of the delegates on the subject of the strike. The resolution was adopted by a vote of 19 to 0, and will be submitted to the Central Labor Congress for consideration.

The resolution expressed the opinion of the delegates on the subject of the strike. The resolution was adopted by a vote of 19 to 0, and will be submitted to the Central Labor Congress for consideration.