Social Jottings

The Fairfield County Bee-keepers' association will hold a meeting on Saturday, May 24, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, in the Common Council room, City Hall, Stamford. The meeting will be addressed by Lloyd R. Watson, head of the bee-keeping department at the State Agricultural College, at Storrs, Conn. His topic will be "Control of Swarming in Connection with the Production of Comb Honey." Mr. Watson will give a demonstration in handling bees in connection with the lectures. All interested are urged to be present. Ladies are especially invited.

Members of the Bridgeport Malleable Iron Co. Athletic association held their first annual dance at the Colonial ball room last night with a large attendance. Music for the dancing was furnished by Murray's orchestra. The committee in charge of the affair included A. M. Skinner, A. F. Smith and F. J. Bitterman.

Members of the Comfort Club will hold a very interesting meeting on Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the First Presbyterian church, when Captain Charles H. Sprague will make an address. The letters that Dick Barlow, one of the popular members of the 102nd Ambulance Corps, sent to the Comfort club during the war, have been published into a little book and will be presented at the meeting on Friday. Plans for the future will also be discussed and it is expected that the organization will continue until all of the boys of the 102nd come home. It is hoped that every member will attend this meeting.

GREATEST AFFAIR OF CLUB TONIGHT

The most elaborate affair yet attempted by the Black Rock Country club will take place at the club house this evening. It is the club's annual masquerade ball. Ban-Joe Wallace and his society orchestra will furnish the music. The entertainers will come direct from New York successes and will consist of some of the best singers and dancers obtainable.

While the committee has ordered that only those who are masked may dance, it has decreed also that the unmasking shall take place at 10:30 and that after that time dancing may be indulged in by all, whether masked or in costume, or in citizen's dress.

The supper will be served at 11 o'clock and the entertainers will present the latest New York novelties during the supper. Owing to the stress of the times and the worrying whether prohibition will take effect July 1; whether Germany will sign the peace terms or not, will reach her destination, etc., Manager Millard announces that there will be reserved a few places at the supper for the late comers, if they will let him know before the sun sets or at the time that it is supposed to set.

While this is strictly a club affair, the committee announces that each member may bring a guest. Many of the members of the club will come to see the fun as the committee has offered prizes for the best lady's and gentlemen's costume.

WOMEN ARE CARELESS

This has been proved over and over again during the war. They overestimate their physical strength and overtax it. Their ambition is commendable, but does not compensate for the hours and days of misery which they suffer from symptoms caused by female ill brought on by overwork. Women who are weak, nervous, despondent, with headaches, backache and dragging-down pains should remember there is one tried and true remedy, that is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, now recognized everywhere as the standard remedy for such ailments.—Adv.

THE HONOR OF HIS FAMILY.

The prisoner arrested for being drunk had given his name as Thomas Edison. "Is that your real name?" asked the judge next morning in court. "Well, your honor replied the man. 'I admit that I only gave it as a cover. You see I hated to bring dishonor and disgrace upon a respectable name.'"
