

When A Girl Marries

By ANN LESLIE

The message from Uncle Ned didn't come until I had finished my solitary meal, and then it was not directly from him, but a second-hand affair from someone who reported over the wire.

Who Says The Camera Never Lies?

Despite the fact that they were all suffering from an acute case of chronic color-blindness, motion picture cameras not only were recruited to the A. E. F., but acquitted themselves honorably on every front in the world war.

Perhaps few movie "fans" have noticed that almost all telegrams received in Hollywood are sent by Western Union.
