

Lou Bogash Wins Verdict Handily Over Johnny Tillman

Boehling Against Hartfords Today

By GEORGE E. FIRSTBROOK
Derbies still on top, but they need a little dustin' off.

Sapped twice at Hartford yesterday it had enough, but the situation could be "still worsen." Worcester was handed a trimming by the tailed Albany team, but the Pittsfield Hillies downed Waterbury twice, tying Worcester for second place.

Phew! Should be a warm session tomorrow at Newfield Park with the revived Hillies here for two games.

Arguments and alibis cease right here. The Derbies got only nine safe cracks in the two games to Hartford's 49.

Up To Joe Boehling Today

But "Dixie55 Joe Boehling may dazzle the Senators today. He will oppose Miles Thomas of "no-hit-no-run" fame, according to the Hartford dopsters.

Gene Martin carried the keenest batting optics yesterday. One-third of the hits registered by the Derbies helped along his batting average.

Johnny Thole is continuing at a steady clip—batting .077, drawing pay checks without a miss and warming up the pitchers. Never mind, Johnny, the water is still flowing under the big bridge that spans the Mississippi in St. Louis.

Derbies Not Cast Down.
Hartford, Aug. 20.—Eugene McCann and his leading Brown Derbies were nonplussed by their double defeat at the hands of the Senators yesterday. Failure to hit Pennington and Head lost the games for the "Bridgeport pennant" chasers, who lost in two consecutive games, which the Derbies were quite docile in front of Ralph Head's pitching.

Omit Flowers

Bridgeport was the first to score in the second game. The incident occurred in the second inning with two down. Kingston beat out a bunt to Santoro. The bunt was a slow roller to Neher. The double steal was pulled and Kingston was safe when Damm muffed Scher's return peg.

Bridgeport was peaceful through out before Pennington. In the eighth with none down, McLaughlin doubled, but he stayed at second, while the next three men were easily retired. In the ninth, "Kewpie" temporarily lost control and walked the first two men. The third man, who has batted up many a ball game for Bridgeport, was inserted into the batting order in Thole's place, but he out, gradually to Neher. The pitcher was out, gradually to Neher, on a pretry play and the game ended when Lal floid to Halnes.

In the ninth inning of game No. 1, Kane doubled every one when instead of smashing one, he dumped the pill into the infield. The pitcher was out, gradually to Neher, on a pretry play and the game ended when Lal floid to Halnes.

Hillies Coming Tomorrow For Pair of Games

With Pittsfield here for a pair of games tomorrow another canner throng is expected at Newfield Park. The Hillies, after a little slump have taken a brace and are tied with Worcester for second place in the league race. The first game will start at 2 o'clock. In an effort to prevent congestion at the ball park entrance, Secretary Jimmy Kelly will have the gates swung open at 1 o'clock for the accommodation of early comers.

DELANEY SET FOR RIVERS GO

Jack Delaney will complete his training today in the Columbia A. C. gym for his bout with Joe Rivers in the big arena at New Haven on Monday night. Delaney, who has been swapping punches with Bud Palmer and other local ring celebrities, yesterday afternoon, said he is feeling fine and is confident of winning. Delaney and his manager, Al Jennings, will leave for New Haven tomorrow.

AQUATIC MEET PLANS READY

Big interest is being manifested on the aquatic carnival to be staged at Lordship Beach tomorrow afternoon. The program will feature a number of local fairs which will be entered. The program will start at 1:30.

Eastern League Fan Chatter

Pittsfield's superior hitting brought a double win to the Hillies over Waterbury. The Berkshire fence-breakers clouted the ball for 21 hits to 12 by the Brasscos. There were five errors in the game, with the home team getting a pair, Long a pair and McBride one.

HITTING THE SPORT TRAIL

With Geo. E. Firstbrook

The following sport punch from the Newark Star-Eagle in behalf of Mickey Walker is also aimed at Louis Bogash. Read it: Of the princely princely of a match on the same card on which Wilson and Downey settle their middleweight struggle Labor Day, Jack Bulger has secured an agreement with Leo P. Flynn whereby Walker will meet some good man Labor Day, in a match which will serve as an introductory affair to the New York debut of Walker.

Reverend Eddie Zimmerman, switched from Waterbury to Springfield, is getting a big hand from fans in the latter city on his brilliant playing at third base. Eddie, although a veteran, is still a great player and should be a valuable asset to any club.

Tris Speaker, pilot of the Indians, is being hailed as the "original emergency manager." He is always there in a pinch. He is a manager who gets 100 per cent. out of every player on his team. He knows how to handle men.

Perhaps the Indians may be beaten to the wire by the Yankees. They may lose out to a club that abounds with power. But they surely will go down fighting like heroes and the team that finished ahead of them will know it has been in a pennant race.

Joseph Smith, manager of Louis Bogash, although in Boston is still loyal to Bridgeport. In postal greetings to Tad Jordan, Smith punched out the following: "I have heard a lot of boasts for Boston beans and brown bread, but the old spaghetti and rye for me."

Three Baseball Tilts And Athletics For P. O. Games

Pleasure Beach will be the mecca for employes of Connecticut post-offices tomorrow afternoon when the annual field day sports are being organized. The program will feature a number of athletic games which will be staged. More than 5,000 are expected to be in attendance and the sport program will get away with a bang.

Old Jim Mutrie Is Heard From

New York, Aug. 20.—Old Jim Mutrie, who managed the Mettes, who was a visitor in the press box at the Polo Grounds yesterday afternoon, is being compared to the players of today and those of the era when Jim was in his heyday. "We had some great players in our day, but there seems to be some great ones now too," declared Mutrie, who is 71 years old and still very much interested in the major league races.

Connie Lewis Will Spring Banana Ball

Connie Lewis has a new curve —has the spittball on the frazzle, he says. It's the banana skin shoe. As Connie was explaining the new invention, he declared there are no rules against pitchers moistening the ball with banana skins, and all that is necessary for pitchers to do is to carry a couple of empty bananas in their hip pockets during a game.
