Sunday Services In The Churches

CATHOLIC

St. Augustine's church, corner of Washington avenue and Foxcroft street, Rev. James B. Nihil, P.R., pastor. Masses: Sunday, 7, 8, 9, 10 and 11:15 (high mass). Sunday school, high school, 9 o'clock mass. Vespers and benediction at 4 o'clock.

Newfield Methodists Are To Hear Poems

Those who heard the Rev. Hugh Shields of Ridgefield, Conn., who was so well received last winter at the First Methodist church, will be given an opportunity to hear him again when he will give his reading of James Whitcomb Riley's poems at the Newfield M. E. church.

AT THE UNITED CHURCH

"Man's Quest" will be the subject of Dr. William Horace Day's sermon at the United church tomorrow morning. Never was there a more remarkable utterance than the words in the sermon on the Mount (Matthew 7:7-8) where Jesus directs man's quest, saying, "Ask, seek, knock"; with this promise, that everyone who makes this three-fold quest for life will succeed.

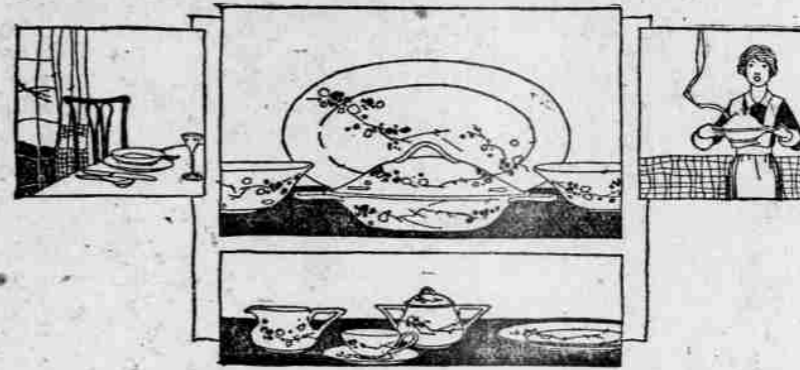

AT PARK STREET CHURCH

Sunday morning at the Park Street Congregational church, Dr. Gerald H. Beard will preach on "Experiencing Religion." The sermon will present the indispensable reality beneath all crude emotionalism of a personal experience, if religion is to be the supreme value and is to have power to commend itself to others.

For that little household burn

There is nothing better than Resinol to relieve the smart and sting of a burn. Apply freely but gently to the affected surface, so as not to disturb the injured skin. Then place a light bandage over the burn to keep out the air. Resinol Ointment hastens the healing—an important point—as broken skin means an opportunity for germs to enter, and if they do they often cause painful and dangerous inflammation.

Your druggist sells Resinol in two sizes.
