PLAYS AND PLAYERS.

Viola Allen is to produce this season "Her Greater Love."
Augustus Thomas is writing a play in which John Mason is to star.
Tyrone Power is to play the principal role with Henrietta Crossman in "The Christian Pilgrim."

MODES OF THE MOMENT.

Applique lace waists are often given high stocks of chiffon laid in loose folds. These shape to the neck and are very smart.
Waists of chiffon, lace and net are not strictly novel, but dyed to match the skirt of cloth or velvet they are strong features of this season's styles.
The newest ties are the knitted ones. They are four inches wide and of the proper length for a conventional four-in-hand. Naturally they are to be worn strictly with tailored shirt waists.

Getting What's Coming to Him.

Inkeeper—That chronic kicker Bizer is sitting over there.
Waiter—Yes, sir.
Inkeeper—See that he gets a bad dinner. He shan't always grumble for nothing.—Megendorfer Blatter.

Unkind.
"We thought we had a pretty good joke on one of our leading Louisville physicians not long ago," a representative from the blue grass country recently remarked in Washington. "There was a little celebration on hand, and a number of banners had been hung in the streets, most of them bearing the motto on which, you know, is 'United We Stand, Divided We Fall.'"

Named For Her.
"Who does Libby call her new baby, Mandy?" a southern woman asked one of her old servants who had recently become a grandmother.

At the Top of the Ladder.
A man who from pinching poverty had grown to aspiring affluence had a wife with social ambition. She had arranged to give a dinner party on one occasion, and when her husband came downstairs in his evening clothes she observed his attire with critical eye.

Disappointment.
Amateur Sportsman (after shooting best friend)—Too bad, too bad, but I thought you were a deer. The Victim—Don't fret. Amateur Sportsman—Don't fret! Why, man, I promised my wife a pair of horns.—Illustrated Bits.

The Main Trouble.
Wise—Oh, give us a rest for awhile, won't you? Doubtless—Well, every fellow has a right to his opinion and—Wise—Yes, but the trouble is that he can't be made to realize that there may be a wrong to it.—Indianapolis News.

POLI'S

"A GOOD FELLOW."
At a recent performance of "A Good Fellow," which will be at Poli's this afternoon and evening, a record was kept of the times the audience indulged in hearty, resounding laughter, and when the total was made up 114 explosions of merriment were recorded. It is one of the merriest, maddest comedies ever written. It is a panorama of laughable scenes and incidents from the rise till the fall of the curtain.

COMING EVENTS.

January 16—Leavenworth hall, reception of senior and junior classes Crosby high school.
Jan 16—Rick's dancing academy, East Main street. First annual dance given by the Dover club.
Jan 17—Washington Hill A. C. room. Reception and dance given by the club.
Jan 17—Leavenworth hall. Second annual social and dance given by the Berma Deltas.

JACQUES

VAUDEVILLE.
The bill at the Jacques is fairly good this week and has a little of everything that goes to make up vaudeville. Although the Zaxell and Vernon company in their pantomimic act is featured as the big noise of the bill, last evening Banks and Newton, comedians and eccentric dancers, easily won the premier honors in the applause line. The pantomimic offering is called "The Elopement," showing all kinds of ludicrous situations that arise while a man is endeavoring to get his bride-to-be from her home for the purpose of eloping.

is certainly good. One of their wise remarks is, "No matter how hungry a horse is he can't eat a bit." They are willing workers and deserved all the plaudits they went their way. Still the smaller member of the team could get along almost as well without his partner. The Marco Twins, another tall and short pair, have the ability to produce a side splitting number, but lose many good opportunities. The taller member of the team twists himself into some laughable shapes and handles himself in such a manner that he is sure to get an audience laughing, but much of his act borders closely on vulgarity. The pygmy in act gets more abuse than the little fellow with "Jack the Giant Killer." Knight brothers and Sawtelle start off well in a singing and dancing number. They would be more successful if they confined their efforts to offerings similar to their first rendition. Miss Sawtelle as a monologue artist is not a howling success. Their wind-up is not nearly as good as their beginning. The Searl and Allen company have a very poor skit, entitled "The Traveling Man." The scene is on a car going from New York to Chicago. It had ought to get stranded somewhere. Anna Hamilton and company present a sketch of Mexican life called "The Beggars." The skit is too long drawn out, is poorly put together and is not enacted any too well. The make-ups and dialect of the male members are away off. Miss Hamilton tried hard. The opening number is presented by the Devote trio, who do some remarkable feats on the rings. Their act is far and ahead of similar numbers of this kind and is given in such a clean cut manner that it is to be appreciated.

SPENT LAST EIGHT YEARS IN MISERY

Boston Banker Says His Life Has Been Hopeless for that Length of Time.

Carlton H. Hutchinson, a leading banker and broker of Boston, with offices at 8 Congress Street, in that city, has recently come out with a very strong statement.
In the widespread discussion over Cooper's new theory and medicines which has spread over the country so rapidly, Mr. Hutchinson has taken the side of those who say that Cooper's theory is correct and his medicine all that he claims.
Mr. Hutchinson's emphatic statement is as follows: "Anyone afflicted with chronic ill health and a general run-down condition caused by stomach trouble, who does not try this man Cooper's medicine, is very foolish. I say this after a most remarkable experience with the medicine.
"I heard of Cooper's success first when he was in Chicago, as I have a private wire to that city in connection with my business. Later, when he came East, I learned more of him and his theory that stomach trouble causes most ill health. I have had no faith in anything not prescribed by a physician for each particular case after careful diagnosis, but after eight years of constant suffering, during which I temporarily spent over $1,500 with absolutely no relief, I felt that it would at least do no harm to try the medicine which I was hearing so much about.

"During these eight years I have been forced to go without solid food for five and six weeks at a time. I always had a sour stomach, was troubled with formation of gas, and led the usual miserable life of the dyspeptic. I was dull, tired, nervous and gloomy all the time, and was always constipated.
"I have taken Cooper's medicine a comparatively short time. For the past month I have not had the slightest sign of stomach trouble. I can eat anything with no bad effect whatsoever. I have a fine appetite, am gaining flesh very rapidly, am cheerful, full of energy, and my nervousness has disappeared. My bowels are in perfect condition for the first time in eight years.
"I don't hesitate to say that I would not take $50,000 and be back where I was. My relief and thankfulness is beyond description.
We sell Cooper's famous preparation described in the above statement. —G. L. Dexter & Co.
