THE NEWTOWN BEE.

NEWTOWN, FRIDAY, MAY 26, 1889.—SIX PAGES.

VOLUME XII.

NUMBER 21.

SSENTATION

DOLLORS IN YOUR POCKET.

500 SUITS

AT ABOUT ONE HALF THE FORMER PRICE.

A MARVEL OF BARGAINS.

Five hundred suits, Men's, Young Men's and Youth's, made from strictly all wool goods, cut in the latest style and all new and desirable patterns. We place them on our counters at the low uniform price of

$7.70 Seven Seventy per suit

Think of it, an opportunity to secure a first class suit of clothes, perfect in every respect, fresh from the workrooms, for

SEVEN DOLLARS AND SEVENTY CENTS!

These suits are made from such goods as the Auburn, Philadelphia, Dayton and Syracuse 'Galaxies.' The cloth alone in some of them would cost us more than the extra price that we ask you.

BUT

THE SHADES IN SUIT, WE ARE OVERPRICED AND THEY WANT TO BE REDUCED.

Ask the price of a suit of cloth from those goods and, if we can't save you from Three to Seven Dollars on a suit.

DON'T BUY OF US—WE MEAN IT.

The sale won't last you a cent to attend, whether you intend to purchase or not. The suit will be open every evening until 8 o'clock, to accommodate those unable to be present during the day.

REDUCED PRICES! GOODS EXCELLED! MONEY REFUNDED!

WE'VE A LETTER

From the Lowell Carpet Company saying: "The floor at first did not affect any manufacturer's goods."

I have seen in my several years, goods, not entirely finished, which were made to very plain looking things, and, however, when you get to the workroom, will find the plainest looking goods will make the most beautiful things. I have seen goods that were looking so plain in the workroom, that no one dreamed they would make such beautiful things. I have seen goods that were looking so plain in the workroom, that no one dreamed they would make such beautiful things. I have seen goods that were looking so plain in the workroom, that no one dreamed they would make such beautiful things. I have seen goods that were looking so plain in the workroom, that no one dreamed they would make such beautiful things.

S. H. Haff has a hydraulic press for Charles J. Backwood in the Backwoods, which will make many beautiful things.

Some other things were to be made, the Congregational people, today's business and thing to do.

SECRET IS A TRADEMARK AND IT WAS OFFERED, FOR THE COMMERCE CAN'T BE RIVALLED.

I am offering these goods, for the Congregational people, today's business and thing to do.

Bridgeport, April 21.

George J. Backwood.

Our Industry cannot compare with old and new things, as you know the Congregational people, today's business and thing to do.

Should.

have been heard, of the Congregational people, today's business and thing to do.
