A POINTER FOR TRAVELERS.

While T. J. Richey of Atlanta, Mo., was traveling in Kansas he was taken violently ill with cholera morbus. He called at a drug store to get some medicine and the druggist recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy so highly he concluded to try it. The result was immediate relief, and a few doses cured him completely. It is made for bowel complaint and nothing else. It never fails. For sale by E. F. Hawley, Newtown, and S. C. Bull, Sandy Hook.

TWO LIVES SAVED.

Mrs. Phoebe Thomas of Junction City, Ill., was told by her doctors she had consumption and that there was no hope for her, but two bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery completely cured her and she says it saved her life. Mr. Thomas Eggers, 139 Florida St., San Francisco, suffered from a dreadful cold, approaching consumption and without result everything else. Then he bought one bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery and in two weeks was cured. He is naturally thankful. It is such a relief, and it is such a relief to have such a wonderful efficacy of this medicine in coughs and colds. Free trial bottles at E. F. Hawley's, Newtown, and S. C. Bull, Sandy Hook.

Victims of morphine, liquor, tobacco or other offensive habits, who desire to rid themselves of the appetite will read with interest the announcement of the German Remedy Company, found in another column.

MRS. ELIZABETH PATCH.

Mrs. Elizabeth, wife of Anthony Patch of Sandy Hook, departed this life at the home of her daughter, Mrs. E. Wilcox, Danbury, on May 7, 1894, aged 65 years. She has been gradually failing during the spring months, and has been out of health for a long time. Occasional by a stroke of paralysis which left her a sufferer some eight or ten years ago. Notwithstanding her feebleness, she was found in the house of God when circumstances permitted and latterly she persevered in going when every step was attended with the greatest effort. The funeral was attended from the Methodist church at Sandy Hook, on Wednesday afternoon, May 9, at 1.30. Rev. W. T. Gilbert officiating. The choir sang, "Just as I am," and "Nearer my God to be." A large circle of friends followed the remains to the village cemetery. The funeral was held at the residence of Mrs. E. Wilcox. The pall bearers were Smith P. Glover, William Ackley, Free Harper and Dr. Bettis.

MEMORIAL DAY.

Wednesday, May 30, being Memorial Day. Custer Post, G. A. R., will visit the cemeteries of the town in the same order as in former years. Exercises will be held at Sandy Hook and march at 1 p. m. All soldiers and sailors of the late war are earnestly requested to accompany the members of the G. A. R., and all citizens who believe in maintaining the sacredness of the day and think it teaches lessons of patriotism and prepares the young for the high and responsible duties of American citizens, are cordially invited to come or to assist in any way they choose. Post commanders are by the department commander requested to invite the clergy to deliver appropriate addresses on the Sunday preceding Memorial day. It is suggested that those who desire to decorate the graves of their own dead, do so at the time the G. A. R. are in the cemetery. Flowers may be left at the usual places or with any member of the G. A. R. Schools and children are especially invited to assist.—[C. E. Hawley, commander.]

SHELTON.

ABOUT THE LIVELY BOROUGH.
The ladies of the Baptist church have started a Junior Christian endeavor society. E. R. Doyle, bank commissioner, called on the Shelton savings bank last Friday, and made an examination of its assets.
The services at the churches were well attended, last Sunday. In the evening Rev. Mr. Bidwell of the African M. E. church preached at the Methodist church, to a large congregation.

J. W. Stanish, who has resided here for some time past, removed to Bridgeport, last week.
J. M. Whitlock, who went to Florida for his health, last fall, died there a few days since and his body was brought on and buried in the Ansonia cemetery. He was a member of the Union Veterans' Union and several of them went up to Ansonia on Friday last and attended the funeral.

The debating club, or House of Representatives, held a meeting, last Saturday evening, and had a debate on the question, "Ought our present mode of taxation be abolished from our public schools." Quite an interesting discussion was carried on by the members and then the club adjourned to November next.

R. H. Hubbell is building an addition on to his place on Coram avenue and will greatly beautify it.
The Y. P. S. C. E. held their second social, Wednesday evening, with good success.

Jesse Moore, a veteran of the late war, died on Wednesday from cancer of the stomach and the funeral was held on Saturday afternoon. The interment was in Riverside cemetery and Kellogg post-conducted the exercises there. The lot selected for his last resting place is near the location selected for the soldiers' monument and several of the veterans will select lots near that place.

The annual meeting of the Shelton Loan and Savings Institution was held, Wednesday evening, and the directors of the past year were re-elected. At a subsequent meeting of the directors, W. J. Miller was appointed president, George W. Beardsley vice president, J. Tomlinson secretary and T. H. Newcomb treasurer.

A meeting of the Republican club was held, last Wednesday evening, a committee was appointed to arrange for attending the coming celebration in New Haven. They were Williams Holmes, J. Tomlinson and H. T. Williams.

A. Hubbard attended the meeting of the district stewards of the Methodist church, in New Haven, last Wednesday.

On Tuesday evening, the warden and burgesses met, and the portion of Prospect street between Main and the graded and worked. Curbs, gutters and sidewalks were ordered on several streets, the most important being on both sides of Malby street, between Coram and Prospect avenues.

On Monday evening, the committee from the Sunday schools on a union picnic held a meeting in the town clerk's office. J. Tomlinson was appointed chairman, John A. Coe, Jr., secretary, E. N. Barrett treasurer. A special committee was appointed to ascertain about a place to go to and report at a meeting to be held in one week.

STEPNEY.

Mrs. H. W. Wright and baby moved to Shelton, last week, to join her husband, who is running a meat market there.

BROOKFIELD.

The entertainment given by the young ladies' reading club was a success in every respect. The characters were well taken, each entered in a spirit and with an understanding of their respective parts. The music consisted of the songs, which were very well rendered by a very capable and well trained choir. This closed the sessions of the club for the season. Much credit is due to Misses Abbott and Brown, who were in charge of the drilling. Mrs. Curtis, the president, has had the general oversight, assisted by the secretary, Miss Winnie Skinner.

Howland attended the potato growers in town, using a machine for ploughing, which was very successful. In a day and a half, last week, he planted four and one-half acres, using 2 1/2 bushels of seed and 300 pounds of phosphate on the plants all of his corn with the same machine.

BRIDGEPORT.

If you have time to come to Bridgeport and are in want of anything in the rubber line, W. R. Lacey, and your wants will be the best of attention. Mr. Lacey's stock comprises rubber of every description, and at reasonable prices, rubber clothing and tools, garden hose and tennis shoes and many other useful articles too numerous to mention. Remember, anything in rubber at this store, but it costs $2.

Tip, the elephant condemned to death by the New York park commissioners, had killed seven men and severely injured many others. Adam Forepaugh gave him as a New-Year's gift to New York city in 1889, after the brute had become too unruly for his show, but without telling the park commissioners anything about his disposition. Since his confinement in New York he had nearly killed four men and once he nearly escaped into the public streets. A. A. Bailey of the Barnum show wrote that if the elephant belonged to him, he would kill him before night. Various night tamers agreed with him, and so Tip will be put up by the medical students, have his hide stuffed and his skeleton set up in a museum of natural history.

The Hennessy murder trial was finished at Litchfield, last week Thursday afternoon, with a verdict of manslaughter, and the defendant was sentenced to 10 years in state prison. He can hardly live out his sentence, as he is over 70 years.

The defense was that he was drunk at the time of the assault, and did not know what he was about; also did not know that his wife fell in the fire. Hennessy made a sorry picture on the stand, and said all the evidence given by him to the coroner was faulty, and could not remember any of his testimony before the trial. Very little interest was taken in the trial.
