DEATH OF MRS ELLEN CRAFT.

The funeral services were held at the home of her granddaughter, Mrs Clarence Gilbert of Danbury, and the burial was in Ridgebury cemetery. The bearers were Sherwood Adams, Philo Lyon, Wakeman Bradley and Frank Perry.

BAPTIST CHURCH NOTES.

Rev W. M. Weeks gave his people an excellent discourse, Sunday, April 5, appropriate to the day, taking for his text, "If a man die, shall he live again?" All the days of my appointed time will I wait till my change come," Job 14: 14.

HUNTINGTON.

WHITE HILL.

The final meeting of the "Reading club" held at the home of Miss Susie Beardsley, Tuesday evening, was very largely attended. The program carried out as to variety and skill in production was most excellent. An opening the quartet, "Sweet and low," was unduly rendered. Then followed a scholarly essay on Emerson by the president, Miss Ambler. The club felt to rejoice, that Miss Ellen Tomlinson was present, and read her synopsis of "Ivanhoe," which was masterly in every detail. The rendition of "Thanatopsis" by Miss Abbie Shelton, and "The Waterfall" by Miss Sadie Shelton, struck a responsive chord in the listeners as melodious strains ever do emanating from fine strung instruments. The musical selections by the Misses Willoughby, Hubbell and Wixom, also Miss Walters, as well as the instrumental selection by Miss Jennings, were meritorious in the extreme. Particular praise should be accorded to the youngest member in our flock, Miss Leila Surridge, who has ever been willing to aid us with her sweet notes. The fullest praise and appreciation has been given most justly to our worthy secretary, for his untiring zeal and efforts in behalf of the club. He could not have been substituted by another. The able papers prepared, the execution of official duties in all points of technique have rendered him most valuable. Mr Sauer, the chief instigator of our society, was toast-master. The toast to the men responded to by Mr Shelton, and that to the ladies by the secretary, were bright and witty to the extreme. To close the evening, a generous collation was served, furnished by the club.

George J. Banks of Easton tuned and regulated the melodeon of David S. Clark, last week.

BEAUTIFY YOUR HOMES.

Bare walls in these days of plenty are not a necessity, and should not be tolerated by even the poorest housekeeper. Pictures educate as well as adorn, and when they can be bought for the present low prices, parents should not allow their children to grow up without their enlightening influence. If you cannot afford the best, buy reproductions, which cost no more than a good cigar and are not so apt to go to ashes. A very large assortment of unframed pictures of all kinds, from the cheapest to the best, can be seen at Northrop's Art and Music store, 63 Fairfield avenue, (opposite Read's,) Bridgeport. You can buy them for five cents to $20, and get them for one half their actual cost. If you have any pictures that need frames take them along when you visit Bridgeport and Mr Northrop will frame them in any style desired at popular prices. For the boys you will find a full line of basemen and outfielders' mitts, masks, etc.

MATTERS OF BUSINESS.

We know of but one community in the world where dyspepsia is practically unknown, and that is the Shakers of Mount Lebanon, N. Y. These good people have been studying the subject of digestion for more than a hundred years, and that they understand it pretty thoroughly, is evidenced in the foregoing fact. Their Digestive Cordial is the safest and best remedy in cases of indigestion that we know of. A trial bottle can be had through your druggist for the trifling sum of 10 cents. The Shaker Digestive Cordial supplies the system with food already digested, and at the same time aids the digestion of other food. It will almost instantly relieve the ordinary symptoms of indigestion, and no sufferer need to be told what these are.—Laxol is the best medicine for children. Doctors recommend it in place of Castor Oil.

Dana's sarsaparilla is not only the best of all remedies for the nerves, liver, kidneys, stomach and blood; but if no benefit, you can get your money back. The same guarantee applies to Dana's pills, cough syrup and plasters. For sale by Edgar F. Hawley, Newtown, and George W. Hurlburt, Roxbury. *

PLANET, JR. FARM AND GARDEN TOOLS!

Space will not permit illustrating and describing all of the Planet Jr. tools, but we will gladly send a fully illustrated catalogue to any who desire it; and we can supply promptly anything ordered. Planet Jr. goods are standard machines—the best.

The New Planet Jr. No. 3 Hill Dropping Seed Drill.

This Drill will sow in a continuous row, in the ordinary way, with unequalled regularity but its distinctive feature is that it will drop seeds in hills, either four, six, eight, twelve or 24 inches apart. It opens the furrow, drops in hills or drills, covers, rolls down and marks for next row, all at one operation. The hopper is high. Pieces of grit a moment from hill dropping to drill work. It sows a rubber force feed, sows equally well in either hopper is full or contains only a pound of seed, and will not injure delicate seed, such as radish, cabbage, etc., which are often injured or crushed by Drills having grooved or metal wheels. The plow is adjustable and opens a very narrow furrow, which is a great advantage for after cultivation.

The machine was tested thoroughly by careful gardeners and nurserymen during the season of 1895, and the manufacturers guarantee it to give entire satisfaction.

The Planet Jr. No. 2 Seed Drill.

This tool is used the world over, and with the exception of our Hill Dropping Drill, is the most perfect drill known. It holds two and one half quarts and sows in an even regular stream, whether there is much or little in the hopper. The opening plow, being directly between the wheels, follows all irregularities of the ground, is adjustable, and, once set, opens the furrow at a uniform depth, and the seeds are deposited in a very narrow line. The machine is extremely simple, having no agitators, belts or gearing, the seed cannot be injured, even if sprouted.

The Planet Jr. Combined Drill and Wheel Hoe.

This is the most popular combined tool known, and its friends have been gained by substantial merit. As a seed sower it is identical with the No. 2 Planet Jr. Drill, except in size. A steel runner holds one quart. From a drill it is changed to its other uses by unscrewing but two bolts. Every purchaser of this machine will find it an excellent seed sower; a splendid single wheel hoe; an excellent horse hoe; an admirable wheel cultivator; a rapid and easy-running harrow, a rapid and efficient wheel carrier plow; and that it is without an equal for safety of tools, easy adjustment, lightness of draught and beauty.

The Planet Jr. Fertilizer Drill

This is one of the very latest and best additions to the Planet Jr. family. The sowing of fertilizers has always been troublesome, but this new device does it in the most perfect manner. It is extremely simple in construction, holds eight quarts, and is light, strong and easy running, being free from all complication of seed sowing and cultivating devices we guarantee it to give entire satisfaction. It also sows Peas perfectly.

The Planet Jr. Double Wheel Hoe.

Thousands of farmers and gardeners who own this tool save its cost one or more times every year; in an onion field, and in many other crops, one can do more and better work with it than six men with ordinary hoe. It is invaluable for all market garden crops.

The Planet Jr. Double Wheel Hoe will straddle the plants 8 inches high, and finish rows from 6 to 18 inches apart at one passage. The new frame permits the changing of attachments without removing nuts. All the plates are steel hardened in oil and polished. The wheels are adjustable to make the work shallow or deep, as required, and to adapt the machine to tall with rows.

To accommodate those who have little work but hoeing, we offer the above machine with hoes only, under the name of Planet Jr. Plain Double Wheel Hoe.

The Planet Jr. Single Wheel Hoe.

This Wheel Hoe is considerably lighter than the Double, but does almost the same variety of work, being used mostly between the rows yet it can be used to hoe both sides at once, while plants are small, by placing the wheel at one side of the frame. All rows from six to eighteen inches apart can be hoed at one passage. It is pronounced by practical men to be without an equal in design and finish, ease of operation, variety of adjustment and perfection of work, and we feel confident that every one who tries this tool will be glad he did so. We also offer the above machine with hoes only.

The Fire-Fly Single Wheel Hoe, Cultivator and Plow.

The popular tool is exactly the same as the Planet Jr. Single Wheel Hoe, excepting that it does not have the rakes or leaf lifter.

The Fire Fly Wheel Garden Plow.

This tool is invaluable for those who have small gardens. The mold-board is tempered and polished steel.

The Planet Jr. Grass Edger.

The Planet Jr. Grass Edger will do either straight or curved work at speed of a mile an hour. It should be the constant companion of the lawn mower.

Strawberry growers will find the Grass Edger, with the hoe removed, a rapid and perfect tool for cutting off surplus runners.

The Planet Jr. No. 8 Horse Hoe.

Probably no other cultivating machine is so widely known the Planet Jr., for it is in use throughout the civilized world. It is so strongly built as to withstand incredible strain, yet it is light and easy to handle.

For 1896 we offer important improvements in our No. 8 Planet Jr. Horse Hoe and Cultivator, as described below.

The Frame is longer than usual, and about one a half inches higher, and will not clog easily. Has steel draft hook.

The Standards are framed up hollow with round throats of stiff steel; they polish quickly and free themselves readily from obstructions, and they clasp the frame and strengthen it.

The depth is under perfect control by means of a new lever wheel, and the new patented depth regulator, which are moved instantly in unison, by a single lever, making exact work, steadying the machine and relieving the operator.

The Expander. This is an entirely new pattern, superior to all other forms; exceedingly strong, simple, accurate and positive in all positions.

Handle and braces. These are also absolutely new and the most effective and stiffest combination known, at once making the tool rigid and yet allowing every adjustment of handles, in height and sidewise.

Every part is perfected to make the tool acceptable to the intelligent farmer; he knows the best is always the cheapest.

The Planet Jr. No. 5 Horse Hoe

Is made like the popular 1895 pattern. It does not have the improved depth regulator and the expander and braces of the No. 8, yet it is strong and serviceable and will give full satisfaction. Has an excellent expander and handles adjustable, both perpendicularly and sidewise.

Planet Jr. 12-Tooth Harrow.

This comparatively new tool is carefully made and finished, has a high frame and wheels super teeth an inch wide. It may be set with both trailing, by simply changing one bolt in each tooth. Greatly improved for 1896.

The foot lever pulverizer is a capital addition. Hand levers regulate both width and depth while in motion.

We will be very glad to send anyone a catalogue of the Planet Jr. goods on receipt of a postal card with name and address on it. Full line of goods in stock. Can make prompt shipments.
