Five Strong Reasons for Fall PAINTING.

1. In the fall, the surface is thoroughly dry. During the spring a surface which needs repainting is sure to contain moisture and dampness or frost, and it cannot be successfully painted until it has thoroughly dried out.
2. When the wood is dry, it absorbs more of the paint. The paint penetrates deeper into the wood, therefore gets a firmer hold on it, giving the paint coating greater tenacity or holding qualities.
3. Paint cannot be applied as successfully in damp, cloudy or unsettled weather as in warm, sunny weather. In the fall the weather is more settled and uniform and is warmer, therefore it is an excellent time for painting.
4. A house needs its protecting coat of paint more in the winter months than at any other time. A house, in need of repainting should never be allowed to go over the winter without this protection.
5. It is easier to keep moisture and dampness out by applying a coat of paint when the surface is dry, than it is to get moisture or dampness out of the wood when you want to apply paint.

The hearing before State Railroad Commissioners Gates, Fyler and Seymour on the application of the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad company for permission to lay a side track on South Main street just south of Maple street came to a sudden and unexpected close yesterday afternoon in the borough court room, when Attorney Spock, who appeared for the railroad company announced that in view of the fact that the width of the street between the curb and the track was less than the eight feet required by law he would withdraw the petition. He gave notice, however, that the company must have a turnout and that it would keep at it, notwithstanding the objection on the part of the public to the turnout in the proposed location.

TAFT BACK TO HOT SPRINGS.

President Elect Says He Will Leave Cincinnati Tonight.

Cincinnati, Nov. 17.—My visit to Cincinnati is a matter of personal and family business. It has no relation to politics in any manner, but is of such a nature that no public interest attaches which makes it inexpedient for me to discuss it in detail.

"I shall return to Hot Springs on the train, which leaves this city at 9:10 o'clock tonight."

This positive information from Mr. Taft reduces in value the political speculation on the effect of his sudden visit to this city. It had been conjectured that he had come to induce his brother Charles to withdraw from the senatorial race by offering him a diplomatic position.

Mr. Taft suddenly changed his plans at the White House and came to Cincinnati instead of going to Hot Springs, where he had intended to go.

Miss Shonts was married to the duke Feb. 25 last at the home of her father in this city. The duke died in April in Paris.
