POLI'S

FRANK DANIELS.

Charles Frohman's big musical play, "Hook of Holland," introducing Frank Daniels, the funniest and most widely known of the American laugh provokers, will be seen at Poli's this evening. The title of the play has been changed by dropping the "Miss" and it is now called "Hook of Holland." Miss Christie Macdonald, who made such a charming Solle Hook last season, remains in that role and the large company contains besides Adele Rowland, Leslie Stiles, Glen White, Arthur Harrold, Will Danforth, William Kent, Tom Collins, Edward Burch, Edith Burch, Pleuretta de Mar, Flossie Hope and Emily Lee. Prices 25c to $1.50. Seats now on sale. Tel 1084.

ALL STAR YIDDISH COMPANY.

A permanent season of Yiddish plays will be introduced in this city, in the way of giving about one Yiddish performance every month. The opening performance will take place at Poli's to-morrow evening when the Edwin A. Ralkin's All-Star Yiddish company, direct from New York city, and headed by four of the most eminent Yiddish players, Jacob Silbert, Mme Anna Simon, Noah J. Simon and Mme Liza Silbert and an all-star cast. They will present for the first time in this city the most successful Yiddish operetta "Shulamith." Prices 25c to 75c.

"THE DEVIL"

For some time Waterbury theater goers have been willing to go to the devil—theatrically speaking—and now we are to have the opportunity, for his satanic majesty, in all his power and glory, will appear at Poli's on Thursday evening. The modern devil expresses himself and explains his origin in this manner: "I am he who always comes at the proper moment. I come from nowhere—I go nowhere—I am here." Henry W. Savage, who controls the sole rights to this piece in this country, will send here a notable company. Mr Savage, a distinguished actor, trained in the school of artistic accomplishments, will be supported by Paul McAllister, Frances Nordstrom, Louis Rutter, W. Chrystie Miller, O. J. Vanasse, Esther Truax and others. Prices 25c to $1.50. Seat sale to-morrow. No free list.

LILLIAN RUSSELL.

Lillian Russell will be seen at Poli's on Friday evening in the racing comedy, "Wildfire." It is beautifully staged in three acts, the second of which shows the interior of a racing stable at one of the big tracks. Prices 25c to $1.50.

JACQUES

VAUDEVILLE.

Good things keep coming at the Jacques. This week another excellent bill is holding down the boards at the little theater on Abbott avenue and there is every reason to believe the attendance will equal if not exceed the receipts of last week. Vaudeville in the true sense of the word is there, the programme being varied and well balanced. All the acts except one are practically new to this town. Redpath's Napanes have a skit called "Fun in a School Room." Although it is much the same as many of the numerous school room numbers, it is by far the most enjoyable of any seen here in many months. There are four laddies and four lassies with the school teacher and they made lots of fun.

EMPIRE THEATER.

The make-up of the new David M. Hartford Stock company, which is to open the Empire theater one week from to-day with the production of "Old Heidelberg," that famous musical comedy drama so successfully presented by the Schuberts and the late Richard Mansfield, is given out today by Manager Hartford, who has been in New York for several days. While Miss Frances Nordstrom will not play here, owing to her receiving a flattering offer to go with Henry W. Savage's production of "The Devil," the management of the new theater feels that it has in Miss Lillian Seymour of New York an artist who is far above the former local star as regards ability and experience. Miss Seymour is a talented young woman of much grace and personality, with fine conception, clear enunciation and years of stage experience to back up her work. Miss Clara Weldon of New York city will be the new "heavy" woman. Miss Weiden has had years of excellent training. Miss Dottie Davis will be the ingenue. She played for several years in Chicago and Kansas City in large stock productions. Miss Clara Reynolds Smith, who is regarded by Manager Hartford as the handsomest character woman in American stock company productions, has been engaged for the character work. She has a wardrobe second to none ever brought to this city for stock productions and is quite likely to prove of interest to the fair sex. Tom Boone, who played for four years with Mr Hartford, the new "heavy" man, is regarded as exceptionally clever. Dwight Allen has created over twenty parts on Broadway in the past few years and will be the character man. John Woodson, who was stage director for Sturtevant Robson Crane for fifteen years, will take the "old man" parts. Charles D. Pitt who comes from a famous family of actors, will handle the juvenile roles and is a desirable acquisition to the new stock company. Arthur Ritchie, who has been at the Park theater in Brooklyn will be stage manager and general business manager. The same old Tom Shearer of the Poli stock company, which played here all summer, will be the comedian. Charles L. Cadwalter, a noted scenic artist, with Vantage Glaser at Cleveland, Detroit, Columbus and Rochester, has been engaged to paint special scenery for every production.

ORATORIO CONCERT.

Several important changes and additions have been made in the programme for the afternoon Symphony concert which will be given by Victor Herbert and his Symphony orchestra as the opening feature of the fall music festival at the Buckingham next Tuesday, November 24. This concert will be followed by the evening production of "Faust" with chorus, orchestra and well known soloists. Madame Marie Stoddard, who is to sing the role of Marguerite in "Faust" will be the soloist of the orchestral concert and will be heard in the "Chere Nuit" aria by Bachellet. As an encore Madame Stoddard will sing the famous Bach-Gounod "Ave Maria," harp, organ and violin accompanying. This number should be one of the most successful numbers of the festival, being especially appropriate since Gounod's great opera will follow in the evening. Mr Herbert will include a number of his own compositions in the programme, including selections from "Algeria" and a new number, "The Fairies' Revel" from "Victoria" in which Maude Fulton and William Rock are soon to star. Drorak's "Slavic Dance," "The Dance of the Hours" from "La Gioconda," the Lstz "Liebestraume," orchestrated by Mr Herbert and the Herbert "American Fantasy" will be the chief numbers of this excellent programme. Mr Herbert last evening closed a most successful season of Sunday concerts in New York city. He has expressed a warm desire to visit Waterbury again and assist in the fall festival.

The Mosaic Puzzle Craze.

The toy shops and department stores of New York are put to their last straits to supply the demand for the mosaic puzzle or "cut up" picture puzzles that everybody is now after. The craze is equal to ping pong, which swept the country a few years ago. The New York Sunday World has arranged a unique mosaic or "cut up" picture puzzle for its readers. Issue of Sunday, November 22. See if you can do it. Simple but interesting. No prizes offered. Just for fun. Also a new and popular song, as usual.
