POLI'S

ALL-STAR YIDDISH COMPANY. To-night "Shulamith," a new Yiddish operetta, will be the scene of much interest for our best theatergoers at Poli's.

"THE DEVIL." Franz Molnar's famous comedy, "The Devil," which was the reigning sensation of the New York theatrical season, the sole version of which is held by Henry W. Savage, will be presented in this city at Poli's with Edwin Stevens and the original Garden theater, New York city cast, to-morrow evening.

LILLIAN RUSSELL. Some idea of the meetings of Lillian Russell, now meeting with great success in the racing comedy, "Wildfire," can be gathered by an experience she had in New York during her wonderful run there.

"THE CHOIR-SINGER." "A play to suit all tastes." This is what is confidently claimed for "The Choir Singer," a refined comedy drama by Carroll Fleming, which will be presented at Poli's Saturday.

JACQUES

VAUDEVILLE. Almost an entire carload of special scenic effects is used in the production of "Mr. Busbybody," the brilliant musical comedy feature to be seen at the Jacques next week.

EMPIRE THEATER.

Extensive alterations and improvements are being made inside the Auditorium on South Main street in preparation for the opening of the new Empire theater next Monday evening, when the David M. Hartford Stock company will present "Old Heidelberg," an elaborate scale.

ORATORIO CONCERT.

Victor Herbert, the foremost composer of American light opera, who will direct his orchestra at the opening concert of the fall music festival at the Buckingham next Tuesday by the Waterbury Oratorio society, accepted the engagement to come to this city only because of the great interest he has felt in Waterbury since he opened the Buckingham in the fall of 1905.

present at the rehearsals of the festival and at the popular orchestral concert will direct his men in a number of his own compositions. In spite of the vast growth of comic opera and its popularity in the United States for almost a decade Victor Herbert has stood at the front rank of the composers of this popular amusement.

THE MERRY WIDOW.

This lively and fascinating Person to Be in Waterbury Three Days. Manager Harry Parsons of Poli's theater announces to-day the opening of the mail order sale for the engagement of "The Merry Widow" at that playhouse during the three days beginning Monday, November 30.
