EXCUSE FOR BAD SHOOTING.

The Carnahan Affair Explained. Newspapers and Their Lying About Circulation—Chicago Editor Called to Account.

[Copyright, 1908, by T. C. McClure.] Mr. Jim Hansen, alleged holy terror, who objected to being lynched in this town two months ago, went off to Montana to have the same thing happen to him among utter strangers.

"Does that brazen faced jackass of a Jim Hellso of the Arizona Kicker own the territory of Arizona, body, boots and soul?" plaintively asks the Blue Hill Gazette.

We feel that an explanation is due our readers for our supposed bad marksmanship last Sunday in shooting

WE FIRED AT ONE OF HIS TWINKLING BEELS.

Mr. James Carnahan in the left heel. Mr. Carnahan had sent word to us that he intended to shoot us on sight. We sauntered into his vision on Cochise place, but his courage oozed out at his fingers' ends, and he turned and fled.

During the month of October fourteen thin skinned subscribers of the Kicker, all living within a radius of fifty miles of this town, refused their copies of the paper at the postoffice for one reason or another.

As to Circulation Lies. There should be a state law in every state in this Union to punish newspapers for lying about their circulation.

Mr. Scott Johnson, the hardware man, went over to Lone Jack the other day to collect a debt long owing to him.

We learn that the Hon. Thomas Curtis denounces ex-Judge Mason as a liar and a swindler, and friends of both predict an awful tragedy the first time they meet.

The Colonel a Poor Shot. It never occurred to us that old Colonel Slayback had any shoot in him.

On thirty-two evenings during last summer there were from 340 to 550 of our townsmen gathered in our private editorial graveyard to take the air.

Some Satisfaction in That. Mrs. Hewligus—You say that if a burglar wants to get into the house he'll get in in spite of everything you can do to keep him out.

CURIOSITIES OF DIET.

How Nature Adapts Food to Man and Man to Food.

GREAT VALUE OF CEREALS.

Why People Can Eat Bread at Every Meal Without Getting Tired of It. The Fruits of the Burning Tropics and the Fats of the Frozen Arctic.

Modern science has shown that nature provides food for mankind with marvelous care and foresight. The human system requires a certain amount of protein daily to replace worn-out muscle and tissue.

The Red Valley Argus pokes fun at us for not getting a nomination for the presidency after all the bragging we have done for the past year.

The Chicago editor who announces that while we were in Salt Lake City recently we went to bed in a hotel and blew the gas out on ourself and were found almost dead in the morning is a coyote and a liar.

Reassuring. Mr. Timmid—Have you noticed, Miss Mand, that the chandelier seems to be shaking?

Problems. "You wouldn't call any of Shakespeare's dramas problem plays."

Multitude of Drumsticks. The Colonel—Rastus, you seem fond of the leg of a fowl.

Seeing the Points. "I see that young lawyer who comes to see Elsie knows his business."

Right He Was. "Why, uncle, I thought the doctor ordered you not to go out of the door this weather?"

Designs on Him. Gunner—Bikins says his girl thinks he is pure gold.

At the Musicals. Church—Who is the gentleman leaning on the piano?

Considerate. Mrs. Mimms—Mary, it was 1 o'clock this morning when you got in.

An Everyday Suit. "That Gus is certainly a nifty dresser. He has a suit of clothes for every day in the week."

The sweetest of all sounds is praise.—Zenophon.

Marvin Morton, with some little experience at snaphotting as an incentive, decided to go in for amateur photography on a more extensive scale.

"I'll call by for it tomorrow morning," he told the clerk. "Please be sure to have a couple of plates in the holder, for I want to take some pictures if the weather is fine."

Then Marvin began to think of what he should most like to snap with his new camera. There were the new library, the new custom house, the new art gallery.

"Hello, Aileen! I've just bought a new camera," he announced. "Indeed, Marvin, that's interesting," came back over the wire.

"Yes," he replied. "It is supposed to do extra fine work. You see, I am somewhat of a novice, and the camera has to be a good one for me."

"Well, how's this, Sir Photographer?" she queried, putting her closed parasol back over her shoulder.

"You're losing money every day that your tenement is vacant. Say the Democrat find a tenant. 3 days for me."
