Special Thanksgiving Offerings From the 14th Anniversary Sale.

Right in the nick of time it comes—with its bountiful assemblage of Linens, China, Glassware and Cooking utensils, with its economies of pleasing proportions and with its all round importance to good, thrifty housewives.

It's a function all should attend. It's a supplying time for future as well as for present needs. It's opportunity to obtain the reliable, the dependable and the good at the prices of the other kinds. Snowy New Linens, Shiny New Cooking Utensils, keen edged Cutlery, bright New China and Sparkling New Glassware—all will give added enjoyment to the THANKSGIVING DINNER. No store handles these things more intelligently than we do. We sell the best without charging the most. And because you want the best without paying the most. We respectfully suggest that you will find many interesting items below.

TEACHER STRICKEN

Miss Emmons of Waterville Has an Attack of Diphtheria.

Miss F. O. Emmons of Waterville, a teacher in the fourth and fifth grades in the Chapel street school, Simonsville, was at her post yesterday apparently in the enjoyment of good health, but to-day the school is closed to be fumigated and Miss Emmons is suffering from an attack of diphtheria, a malady which appears to have made its appearance in many towns all over the state the past couple of months. At present there are fourteen or fifteen houses placarded in Waterbury and the health authorities are doing all in their power to confine the disease to the persons afflicted with it. But it is very difficult to do this, for children not knowing the danger will visit each other unless some plan is devised to render such a thing almost impossible. Already a few deaths have occurred from the disease, but the most of the cases now being looked after are light and there is no reason why all the patients should not recover. People should be on the lookout for symptoms of the sickness and call in the family physician the moment they suspect anything wrong. Look into the children's throats and see if you can notice any white specks there, and if so call the doctor at once. To be effective medical treatment should be applied before the disease has made much headway. A sore throat and a headache should be sufficient to warrant taking all necessary precautions, even though no white specks can be seen on the lining of the throat.

BROOKLYN BRIEFS.
Upson, Singleton & Co's cash store prices are money savers—boys suits $1.97 up.
—Edward Loughman, the Brooklyn fireman who was thrown from a horse and injured last week is getting along well and will be himself again within a short time.
—The drug stores in Brooklyn will observe holiday hours on Thanksgiving day. They will close from 1 to 5 in the afternoon and at 7 o'clock in the evening.
—"Joe" the barber, who worked in Rocco Di-Orio's shop on Bank street until he left for Italy more than a year ago, is back at his old position. He returned to this country a few months ago and since that time has been working in New Haven.
—A well known Bank street business man has put out $100 to bet at even money on Brooklyn in the game with the All-Waterbury on Thursday. As yet it has not been taken. It is said that he has more to wager the same way if the money is covered.
—No one who looks at the Naugatuck river in its present condition could hardly believe, if they had not seen it, that the same stream was almost up to the Bank street bridge last February. But such was the case after one of the winter freshets. Down near the sewage plant the water rose to the level of the slope pavement a height of about fourteen feet while at present there is scarcely enough water to carry a small piece of wood down the stream.
—Miss Gussie Dankevics, who was injured in a trolley collision on Bank street near the old station about a year ago, has fully recovered from the accident and has reached a settlement with the trolley company. The young lady was in a New York hospital for some time and later brought suit for several thousand dollars against the trolley company. It is understood the case was settled for about one-fifth of the amount for which the suit was brought.

CITY NEWS.
Cash buys more than credit. Upson, Singleton & Co's (Waterbury) $15 overcoats prove it.
James A. Hyslop formerly a cornetist of the Military and American bands of this city, but now of Danbury was visiting in town to-day.
The hearing of the case of Walter S. Atwood against the Connecticut Co for damages of $2,000, was resumed in the superior court to-day before Judge Bennett and a jury. The arguments began at 10 o'clock. Mr. Atwood while driving home in a hack one evening a year ago last July was run into by a trolley car and laid up for some time. The defense was negligence on the part of the hack driver, who, by the way, was thrown off his seat to the ground and hurt.
In the probate court to-day there was a hearing on the account of Mrs Susan Smith of Oakville, conservator over Mrs Sybil H. Hitchcock. Mrs Smith's account showed that considerable part of the estate has gone in litigation, about $3,000 being already spent. She resigned and Attorney James M. Lynch was appointed in her place. Mr. Lynch was also appointed administrator on the estate of William Hitchcock, who was the husband of Mrs Sybil Hitchcock, and it is this estate that was in danger of being squandered.
Jacob Metersky, wanted in this city for passing a $100 confederate bill, was arrested in New Haven this morning by Detective Thomas Coleasanto. Coleasanto had a suspicion that he might run across the man wanted if he visited the Elm city to-day and his supposition proved correct. Jacob passed the bill to a man named Sulezman, who in turn palmed it off on Harry Johnson, a Grand street business man. When Johnson discovered the character of the bill he had Sulezman arrested. Sulezman was released under bonds of $200 and when his case came to trial he was not present so his bond was called. But it was later learned that Sulezman's absence was excusable, so a new bond was ordered. Meanwhile the case was continued to give the detectives a chance to capture Metersky, who, according to Sulezman, is the original passer of the bill in this city.
