

FORDHAM AND VILLANOVA.

Old Rivals to Meet Thanksgiving Day in New York.

The Fordham squad was put through a vigorous two hours practice yesterday. Coach Gargan had as assistants Fred Smith, the old Princeton back and for many years head coach at Fordham; Maurice McCarthy, a Fordham coach in earlier days, and Bull McCarthy, formerly of Columbia. A number of intricate plays were tried for the Villanova game at American League park on Thanksgiving day.

Francis McCaffrey, the clever end, was out in football togs yesterday for the first time in nearly four weeks. His broken collarbone has mended and he will go in against Villanova. McCaffrey was in the line-up for a time yesterday, alternating with Siskind at right end. His arm is still far from strong, but he hopes to be fit by Thursday.

Captain Leo Fitzpatrick was on the side lines, having been in the infirmary on account of a kick in the head he received in the Rensselaer game. Collard took his place at left tackle. Coach Gargan shifted Jack Fitzpatrick and Kelleher, sending the former in at right guard and Kelleher at right tackle. They will play in these positions in Thursday's game. The men will have their last scrimmage to-day, and Coach Gargan intends to make it an unusually long one.

HUNTING IN ALASKA.

Signal Corps Officer Ignored Advice and Was Found Dead.

Washington, Nov. 24.—A thrilling story of reckless adventure on the part of one of the signal corps operators in Alaska has been received by General Allen, chief of the United States signal corps. Private William A. Bonney, who last June went to the lonely post of Minton in central Alaska, recently planned to take a hunting trip and was given permission to go provided he was attended by an experienced hunter. Apparently this admonition was disregarded as on the 18th he left for a five days' trip, his frozen body being found the next day eight miles from Minto. Bonney had been in the service less than a year. He was the son of William Bonney of New Bedford, Mass.

IRISH BILL IN COMMONS.

Secretary Birrell Says It Calls For $900,000,000 Expenditure.

London, Nov. 24.—Another Irish land bill to facilitate the carrying out of the previous land purchase act was introduced in the house of commons by Chief Secretary For Ireland Birrell.

The chief secretary dealt in huge figures. He said he found that the estimate of $500,000,000 made by one of his predecessors, George Wyndham, as the amount necessary to satisfy the land hunger of the tenants was totally inadequate, $800,000,000 would be required for this end.

NEW WEATHER INDICATOR.

Government Experiments With Meteorological Kiosks in Cities.

Washington, Nov. 24.—A "meteorological kiosk" or automatic weather station, has been erected in this city, one of twenty ordered by the weather bureau for the principal cities.

It shows on its four sides a barometer, a standard thermometer, a hydrometer to indicate humidity and a precipitation gauge to show the amount of rainfall.

Tinplate Mills Open Up. Sharon, Pa., Nov. 24.—The American Sheet and Tinplate company will put twenty hot mills in operation on Nov. 30, giving employment to 1,200 workmen.

WED IN RAILWAY STATION.

Hasty Marriage in Waiting Room of Lackawanna Road in Hoboken.

New York, Nov. 24.—Justice of the Peace Samuel Engler of Hoboken entered the big waiting room of the Lackawanna railroad in Hoboken at 5:01 o'clock Sunday afternoon, swinging a white handkerchief in his left hand. He had not more than half crossed the room when he was accosted by a young man, and five minutes later the justice was marrying the man to a young woman with the aid and presence of a man and wife they enlisted in the station. Of the hundred or more in the waiting room at the time no one seemed to take any interest in the little group of five.

During the afternoon Justice Engler received this telegram: Hackensack, N. J., Nov. 22. Samuel Engler, Justice of the Peace, Hoboken, N. J.:

Can you marry us at Lackawanna depot? If so, meet us at 5 o'clock. Carry handkerchief in left hand. A. H. B.

Arthur Harry Bennett, civil engineer, of 1941 Massachusetts avenue, Boston, was the way the man who answered the handkerchief signal described himself. He introduced his companion as Miss Irene Messmer of Maywood, N. J. The justice invited them to his office, two blocks away, but they declined, saying they had to catch a train for Boston and did not want to lose time.

When the justice raised the question of witnesses, Mr Bennett solved it by addressing a couple who proved to be Mr and Mrs Robert H. Porter of Buffalo. They were waiting in the station for a train. Mr and Mrs Porter had the situation explained briefly, and consented to witness the ceremony.

THE SLOCUM MEMORIAL.

Correspondent Who Wants One Erected in Stanley Park.

Editor Evening Democrat.

Please would you allow me space for a few lines in your paper to state the feeling of hundreds of people in Waterbury that the only proper place to erect a monument to the memory of the very Rev Father Slocum would be in Stanley park, a little below the fountain. In such a place it can be seen from North and South Elm streets, Cole street, East Main and the center. It would be in the center of the people he loved so well, and it would be close to the schools, hospital and church he labored so hard for and many a person will pass and say God rest his soul that never would think of him if the monument were in the cemetery. He was a man that was respected by all the people, so erect a monument to his memory in such a place as to be seen by all classes of people. Hoping that the people who have the good work in their hands will consider the public in this matter, I am, dear sir, yours, THOMAS FLANAGAN.

CUMMINS ELECTED TODAY.

Succeeds William E. Allison as United States Senator From Iowa.

Des Moines, Ia., Nov. 24.—Just fifteen years since his candidacy for the United States senate was first announced, Governor Albert B. Cummins was elected today to that position to succeed the late William E. Allison.

Cummins won in the Republican primary on Nov. 3 by 42,647 votes over Major Lacey, his opponent.

The Democrats put in nomination Claude E. Porter, who received the Democratic minority vote.

Governor Cummins will resign the governorship immediately, and Lieutenant Governor Garst will serve until State Auditor Carroll takes office as governor in January.

Uphon, Singleton & Co's have some nice clothing for man and boy. Get a new suit for Thanksgiving.
