In race for governor.

Cleveland, May 27.—Mr. James R. Garfield, the Republican candidate, returned from his tour of the state on Thursday night, and declared that he would not accept the nomination for the governorship until the Republican platform had been adopted.

The convention was held in the armory, where a large number of delegates were present. The meeting was opened by the reading of the platform adopted at the previous session.

The candidates for governor were Mr. James R. Garfield and Mr. John A. Logan.

The convention adjourned.
