EX-JUROR BROWN VISITS PASTOR GIBSON.

He Fades Gently Away in the Fog and the Twilight.

NEVER MET BEFORE.

Young Mr. Lynch and His Preceptor Back Again from Chico.

FACE TO FACE WITH RUMOR.

Positive Denial of Stories of Bunkeral Against Ex-Pastor’s Pastor.

THE DECEASED GAVE A WITTTEE-ED BURIAL.

Some new claims are being made that the body of the late Rev. Noah Brown, the former pastor of the Baptist church of Chico, was not embalmed but was placed in a plain coffin and interred in the old Christian cemetery south of the city.

This is not in accordance with what was said at the funeral service.

The body, it is said, was embalmed and heretofore, was not accessible to the public.

Mr. Lynch, who is the only relative of the deceased, is an old friend of the family and was in Chico when the body was taken to the funeral parlor.

The funeral, at which Mr. Lynch was present, was attended by a large number of residents of Chico.

The funeral service was held at the Baptist church, and was conducted by the Rev. Mr. Coyle, pastor of the church.

Several of the prominent citizens of Chico were present at the service, and the church was packed.

Rev. J. Coyle, who was present, was accustomed to the service, and the church was packed.

Several of the prominent citizens of Chico were present at the service, and the church was packed.

The service was conducted by the Rev. Mr. Coyle, pastor of the church.

The services were held at the Baptist church, and were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Coyle, pastor of the church.

Several of the prominent citizens of Chico were present at the service, and the church was packed.

THE DECEASED GAVE A WITTTEE-ED BURIAL.

Some new claims are being made that the body of the late Rev. Noah Brown, the former pastor of the Baptist church of Chico, was not embalmed but was placed in a plain coffin and interred in the old Christian cemetery south of the city.

This is not in accordance with what was said at the funeral service.

The body, it is said, was embalmed and heretofore, was not accessible to the public.

Mr. Lynch, who is the only relative of the deceased, is an old friend of the family and was in Chico when the body was taken to the funeral parlor.

The funeral, at which Mr. Lynch was present, was attended by a large number of residents of Chico.

The funeral service was held at the Baptist church, and was conducted by the Rev. Mr. Coyle, pastor of the church.

Several of the prominent citizens of Chico were present at the service, and the church was packed.

Rev. J. Coyle, who was present, was accustomed to the service, and the church was packed.

Several of the prominent citizens of Chico were present at the service, and the church was packed.

THE DECEASED GAVE A WITTTEE-ED BURIAL.

Some new claims are being made that the body of the late Rev. Noah Brown, the former pastor of the Baptist church of Chico, was not embalmed but was placed in a plain coffin and interred in the old Christian cemetery south of the city.

This is not in accordance with what was said at the funeral service.

The body, it is said, was embalmed and heretofore, was not accessible to the public.

Mr. Lynch, who is the only relative of the deceased, is an old friend of the family and was in Chico when the body was taken to the funeral parlor.

The funeral, at which Mr. Lynch was present, was attended by a large number of residents of Chico.

The funeral service was held at the Baptist church, and was conducted by the Rev. Mr. Coyle, pastor of the church.

Several of the prominent citizens of Chico were present at the service, and the church was packed.

Rev. J. Coyle, who was present, was accustomed to the service, and the church was packed.

Several of the prominent citizens of Chico were present at the service, and the church was packed.

THE DECEASED GAVE A WITTTEE-ED BURIAL.

Some new claims are being made that the body of the late Rev. Noah Brown, the former pastor of the Baptist church of Chico, was not embalmed but was placed in a plain coffin and interred in the old Christian cemetery south of the city.

This is not in accordance with what was said at the funeral service.

The body, it is said, was embalmed and heretofore, was not accessible to the public.

Mr. Lynch, who is the only relative of the deceased, is an old friend of the family and was in Chico when the body was taken to the funeral parlor.

The funeral, at which Mr. Lynch was present, was attended by a large number of residents of Chico.

The funeral service was held at the Baptist church, and was conducted by the Rev. Mr. Coyle, pastor of the church.

Several of the prominent citizens of Chico were present at the service, and the church was packed.

Rev. J. Coyle, who was present, was accustomed to the service, and the church was packed.

Several of the prominent citizens of Chico were present at the service, and the church was packed.

THE DECEASED GAVE A WITTTEE-ED BURIAL.

Some new claims are being made that the body of the late Rev. Noah Brown, the former pastor of the Baptist church of Chico, was not embalmed but was placed in a plain coffin and interred in the old Christian cemetery south of the city.

This is not in accordance with what was said at the funeral service.

The body, it is said, was embalmed and heretofore, was not accessible to the public.

Mr. Lynch, who is the only relative of the deceased, is an old friend of the family and was in Chico when the body was taken to the funeral parlor.

The funeral, at which Mr. Lynch was present, was attended by a large number of residents of Chico.

The funeral service was held at the Baptist church, and was conducted by the Rev. Mr. Coyle, pastor of the church.

Several of the prominent citizens of Chico were present at the service, and the church was packed.

Rev. J. Coyle, who was present, was accustomed to the service, and the church was packed.

Several of the prominent citizens of Chico were present at the service, and the church was packed.

THE DECEASED GAVE A WITTTEE-ED BURIAL.

Some new claims are being made that the body of the late Rev. Noah Brown, the former pastor of the Baptist church of Chico, was not embalmed but was placed in a plain coffin and interred in the old Christian cemetery south of the city.

This is not in accordance with what was said at the funeral service.

The body, it is said, was embalmed and heretofore, was not accessible to the public.

Mr. Lynch, who is the only relative of the deceased, is an old friend of the family and was in Chico when the body was taken to the funeral parlor.

The funeral, at which Mr. Lynch was present, was attended by a large number of residents of Chico.

The funeral service was held at the Baptist church, and was conducted by the Rev. Mr. Coyle, pastor of the church.

Several of the prominent citizens of Chico were present at the service, and the church was packed.

Rev. J. Coyle, who was present, was accustomed to the service, and the church was packed.

Several of the prominent citizens of Chico were present at the service, and the church was packed.

THE DECEASED GAVE A WITTTEE-ED BURIAL.

Some new claims are being made that the body of the late Rev. Noah Brown, the former pastor of the Baptist church of Chico, was not embalmed but was placed in a plain coffin and interred in the old Christian cemetery south of the city.

This is not in accordance with what was said at the funeral service.

The body, it is said, was embalmed and heretofore, was not accessible to the public.

Mr. Lynch, who is the only relative of the deceased, is an old friend of the family and was in Chico when the body was taken to the funeral parlor.

The funeral, at which Mr. Lynch was present, was attended by a large number of residents of Chico.

The funeral service was held at the Baptist church, and was conducted by the Rev. Mr. Coyle, pastor of the church.

Several of the prominent citizens of Chico were present at the service, and the church was packed.

Rev. J. Coyle, who was present, was accustomed to the service, and the church was packed.

Several of the prominent citizens of Chico were present at the service, and the church was packed.

THE DECEASED GAVE A WITTTEE-ED BURIAL.

Some new claims are being made that the body of the late Rev. Noah Brown, the former pastor of the Baptist church of Chico, was not embalmed but was placed in a plain coffin and interred in the old Christian cemetery south of the city.

This is not in accordance with what was said at the funeral service.

The body, it is said, was embalmed and heretofore, was not accessible to the public.

Mr. Lynch, who is the only relative of the deceased, is an old friend of the family and was in Chico when the body was taken to the funeral parlor.

The funeral, at which Mr. Lynch was present, was attended by a large number of residents of Chico.

The funeral service was held at the Baptist church, and was conducted by the Rev. Mr. Coyle, pastor of the church.

Several of the prominent citizens of Chico were present at the service, and the church was packed.

Rev. J. Coyle, who was present, was accustomed to the service, and the church was packed.

Several of the prominent citizens of Chico were present at the service, and the church was packed.

THE DECEASED GAVE A WITTTEE-ED BURIAL.

Some new claims are being made that the body of the late Rev. Noah Brown, the former pastor of the Baptist church of Chico, was not embalmed but was placed in a plain coffin and interred in the old Christian cemetery south of the city.

This is not in accordance with what was said at the funeral service.

The body, it is said, was embalmed and heretofore, was not accessible to the public.

Mr. Lynch, who is the only relative of the deceased, is an old friend of the family and was in Chico when the body was taken to the funeral parlor.

The funeral, at which Mr. Lynch was present, was attended by a large number of residents of Chico.

The funeral service was held at the Baptist church, and was conducted by the Rev. Mr. Coyle, pastor of the church.

Several of the prominent citizens of Chico were present at the service, and the church was packed.

Rev. J. Coyle, who was present, was accustomed to the service, and the church was packed.

Several of the prominent citizens of Chico were present at the service, and the church was packed.