BY OLIVER WENDELL HOLMES.

We count the broken lyres that rest Where the sweet wailing singers slumber, But o'er their silent sister's breast The wild flowers who will stop to number?

A few can touch the magic string,
And noisy Fame is proud to win them;

Alas! for those that never sing,

But die with all their music in them!

Nay, grieve not for the dead alone.
Whose song has told their heart's sad storyWeep for the voiceless, who have known
The cross without the crown of glory! Not where Leucadian breezes sweep O'er Sappho's memory-haunted billow, But where the glistening night-dews weep O'er nameless sorrow's church-yard pillow.

O, hearts that break and give no sigm
Save whitening lip and fading treases,
Till Death pours out his cordial wine,
Slow-dropped from Misery's crushing presses—
If singing breath or echoing chord
To every hidden pang were given,
What endless melodies were poured,
As sad as earth, as sweet as heaven!

A ROYAL "SPANKING." - A gentleman of Rochester professes to have been an eye witness to the following scene: Some 13 or 14 years ago, her Majesty, accompanied by the Prince consort, and the royal children, visited Scotland in the roy al yacht, and called at Aberdeen, and of course the loyal inhabitants of that city turned out in large numbers. A guard of honor formed, and in all the glory of black broadcloth and white kids, paraded on the edge of the dock, while thousands were as-sembled a little further back, to gaze on the spectacle of an annointed queen. Her Majesty good naturedly remained on deck to gratify the curiosity of the bonny Scots, accompanied by the Prince of Wales, then a child of five or six years old. The Prince like other boys of his age, being of a destructive turn, began to pull at the tassel of a splendid sofa on the deck, in a manner that threatened to detach it. His mother observed the act, and ordered the boy to desist. He did so, but as soon as her back was turned, seized the tassel again and gave it another jerk. In an instant the queen turned, and seizing the luckless heir-apparent of England by the "scruff of the neck," elevated one of her feet upon the sofa, hoisted the youngster over her knee, adjusted him in the position-mutually famil-iar to parents and children generally, when such ceremonies are performed, and gave him a sound spanking. It is an interesting fact that the illustrious sufferer kicked and bellowed under the afflictive dispensation, quite as lustily as children of lowlier birth. The amazed silence with which the spectators witnessed the example of royal discipline, was suddenly broken by a tremendous roar of laughter, which could not be suppressed by any thought of decorum, respect for the queen or sympathy for the vic-tim of her displeasure. The explasion re-called the royal mother to a sense of her position, and having turned toward the crowd for a moment, her face suffused with crimson, she hastily descended into the cabin, and was seen no more by the expectant population.

ANOTHER FRENCH IDEA .- The Roman correspondent of the World says that an idea has been thrown out at Paris that the sem itself. Palestine having been previously wrested from Turkish dominion by the victorious Gallic legions. This plan would leave the Italian peninsula to unity and freedom, and place the holy sepulchre, under the immediate custody of the Supreme Pontiff; but those who approve of this solution must reflect in the first place that Pio Nino would hardly accept the sovereignty, even temporal as well as spiritual, of Palestine, as an equivalent for his fair slice of Italy, and that in the second place the jealousy of the Greek and I and the second place the jealousy of the Greek and I and the second place the jealousy of the Greek and I and the second place the jealousy of the Greek and I and the jealousy of the French intervention in Syria will give an opportunity for the Pope's leaving Italy ales is so great that although Napoleon, as successor of Charlemagne, and therefore protector ex officio of the Latin church. may wish to see Jerusalem restored to Christianity under the sovereign rule of the tiara, the Emperor of Russia as head of the Greek church, so powerful in the East, would never consent to place the holy sepulchre under the supreme protection of the rival sect. .

WALKING ON THE WATER.-Lewis C. Welsh, a lecturer on Spiritualism, announced that the spirits had informed him that he should walk on the water at Fall River the other Sunday. Accordingly, in the presence of a crowd, he was rowed to the middle of the river and stepped overboard. Of course the spirits were not only view-less but sadly deficient in buoyancy, and the fellow went down so far that even his ears were submerged. When he came up to the surface, he employed the boatmen to set him ashore on the opposite side of the river, and he started for Providence, cogitating upon the difference between a crazy man and a fool. The News thinks waterwalking still in its "primal unfolding, and has not yet soared into its ulterior development of a normal condition, and attained a sublime altitude of transcendal quintessence."

MEETING AT LA GRANGE.-The Sonora Age is informed that a large and enthusiastic Democratic meeting was held at La Grange, Stanislaus county, on the 3d inst. Judge Quint, candidate for the Senate from that District, was one of the speakers. The Age is assured that the Judge is all right in Stanislaus, and that he will come out of that county with from two to three hundred majority. Well done for Stanislaus! Keep the ball in motion.

TAKING HIM AT HIS WORD .- A man lately bought a gownpiece at a sale by auction, not a hundred miles from San Francisco. and jestingly said that the first woman who would give him a kiss should have the dress as a gift. A woman immediately stepped forth, kissed him and carried off the gownpiece, to the utter discomfiture of the confounded joker.

It matters not from what cause the disease originated, however long standing or obstinate the case, recovery is certain, and in a shorter time than a permanent cure can be effected by any other treatment, even after the disease has baffled the skill of eminent physicians and resisted all their means of cure. The medicines prescribed are pleasant, without odor, entirely vegetable, causing no sickness, and free from mercury or balsam. During fifteen years of practice, in Europe, the Atlantic States, and California, I have rescued from the jaws of death many thousands, who, in the last stages of the above mentioned diseases, kad been given up to die by their physicians, which warrants me in promising to the afflicted, who may place themselves under my care, a perfect and speedy cure. Private diseases are the greatest enemies to health, as they are the first cause of Consumption, Scrofula, and many other diseases, and should be a terror to the human family. A permanent cure is scarcely ever effected, a majority of the cases falling into the hands of incompetent permanent cure is searcely ever effected, a majority of the cases falling into the hands of incompetent per-sons, who not only fail to cure the disease, but ruin the constitution, filling the system with mercury, which, with the disease, hastens the sufferer into a

But should the disease and the treatment not cause death speedily, and the victim marries, the disease is entailed upon the children, who are born with feeble constitutions, and the current of life corrupted by a virus, which betrays itself in scrofula, tetter, ulcers, eruptions, and other affections of the skin, eyes, throat and lungs, entailing upon them a brief exis-tance of suffering, and consigning them to an early

SELF-ABUSE is another formidable enemy to health. Self-Abuse is another formidable enemy to health, for nothing else in the dread catalogue of human diseases causes so destructive a drain upon the system, drawing its thousands of victims, through a few years of suffering, down to an untimely grave. It destroys the nervous system, rapidly wastes away the energies of life, causes mental derangement, prevents the proper developement of the system, disqualities for marriage, society, business, and all earthly happiness, and leaves the sufferer wrecked in body and mind, prediaposed to consumption, and a train of ness, and leaves the sunerer weeked in body and mind, predisposed to consumption, and a train of evils more to be dreaded than death itself. With the fullest confidence I assure the unfortunate victims of Self-abuse, that a permanent and speedy cure can be effected, and with the abandonment of ruinous practices my patients can be restored to robust, vigorous health.

Mesars. A. B. &. D. Sands,

Dear Sirs—I have for a number of years been troubled with sore and inflamed eye-lids, which though they never caused me much pain, were very annoying on other accounts. I have tried a number of medicines at different times without the slightest success. Seeing an advertisement of your Powers. of medicines at different times without the sightest success. Seeing an advertisement of your Roman Eye Balsam, in spite of my skepticism, I resolved to get some, and at least try it. I am now writing this in the fullest gratitude to inform you (I could almost send you a fifty dollar bill) that a few and only a few, applications have resulted in a complete cure.

Respectfully yours,
