Samuel Langhorn Clemens Is Called by the Grim Reaper

Two portraits of Mark Twain. The photographs on the left was taken a few years ago, when he began to affect his famous side of at least The one on the right was often seen after his marriage in 1895, when he was at the height of his fame as the author of "Tom Sawyer Abroad."

"I have just finished the story. I guess it will do. I am sending these sketches to try to get it into the four Folio volumes, though it is pretty short, miss.

Sincerely yours,

Mark Clemens.

Picture of an autographed letter by Mark Twain. The story called "How's Your Health," the story by Clemens in 1905, was done at the suggestion of Mrs. MacDuff, the author. The letter was written to Mrs. Fols, whom Twain had visited.

Dublin, Sept. 27th, 1907
Dear Mrs. Fols,

I have just finished the story. I guess it will do. I am sending these sketches to try to get it into the four Folio volumes, though it is pretty short, miss.

Sincerely yours,

Mark Clemens.

The Convenience of our Charge Accounts

To give you an idea of the exceptional convenience of our charge accounts, we will give you some actual examples of the way we accommodate our customers.

Our customer bought a coat and furnishings amounting to $25. He paid $5 in cash and the balance in eight weekly payments of $3 each.

Another bought goods amounting to $22.50. He paid $7.50 in cash and the balance in ten payments of $2 each.

A third customer bought a bill amounting to $75, and after making an initial payment of $5 paid the balance, $70, at the time, at interest of 10% a month.

Do you know of any house of your standing giving the peerless cash values that we offer in clothing and furnishings, affording such liberal conditions?

Open account today and get the benefit of this liberal merchandising policy.

Our store is open Saturday evenings.

BROWN BROS. & CO.
604-670 Market St.
opposite Palace Hotel