SPAIN'S DREADED TORPEDO FLEET COULD STRIKE A FEARFUL BLOW

JUST HOW A GREAT MARINE BATTLE WOULD APPEAR BETWEEN SPAIN'S CRACK CRUISERS, ASSISTED BY HER BIG TORPEDO FLEET, AND THE AMERICAN BATTLESHIPS UNSUPPORTED BY AN ADEQUATE TORPEDO FLATILLA. SPAIN'S TORPEDO BOATS ARE SHOWN TO THE RIGHT OF THE PICTURE RUSHING INTO THE MIDST OF OUR FLEET.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 18.—Theeditorial correspondent of theν Heraldν in Washington says:—

The introduction into American affairs of a fleet of twenty-eight Spanish destroyers, armed with the most deadly of weapons, represents a real menace to the nation.

WILL REMEMBER THE COWBOYS

Full Particulars of the Novel Plan to Organize the Heroes of the Plains

Here's the most strikingly novel offer yet made by the war department.

Judge Terry of Wyoming makes the offer in good faith. He will choose the fifty greatest cowboys in the state and provide them with such equipment as will enable them to carry on a successful military campaign.

The project is one of the most original in the history of military organization.

The scheme is based on the idea that cowboys are naturally expert gunners and horsemen.

The cowboys, it is suggested, could be readily equipped with the necessary arms and equipment.

The scheme is believed to be a practical and effective method of military training.

The cowboys would be placed under the command of experienced officers.

The project is expected to be a great success.

The cowboys would be armed with the most modern and deadly weapons.

The scheme is believed to be a real danger to the nation.

The cowboys would be trained in the art of warfare.

The scheme is expected to be carried out with the utmost efficiency.

The cowboys would be a valuable asset to the war department.

The scheme is believed to be a practical and effective method of military training.

The cowboys would be placed under the command of experienced officers.

The project is expected to be a great success.

The scheme is believed to be a real danger to the nation.

The cowboys would be armed with the most modern and deadly weapons.

The project is expected to be carried out with the utmost efficiency.