Passed by Senate 73 to 8

WASHINGTON, May 10. In the Senate today the measure was passed by a vote of 116 to 5. The Senate then adjourned for the two-day and one-half before the final vote. It is likely that the final vote will be taken early in the week.

WASHINGTON, May 10. The House today passed the vote of 95 to 13. The bill was then referred to the Senate for consideration.

THE BATTLESHIPS OREGON'S PERILOUS VOYAGE

A Short History of the Battle of the Oregon

The Oregon was a battleship built in 1894. After serving in the Spanish-American War, it was modernized and assigned to the Pacific Fleet. The ship was later renamed the USS Oregon and became a flagship for the battleship division of the Pacific Fleet. It participated in the Boxer Rebellion and the Russo-Japanese War. The ship was decommissioned in 1923 and scrapped in 1925.
