Will You Listen to Torrey for an Hour?

In fairness to yourself—to your home—to your business and your eternity—will you give not one hour to hear Torrey's message of the Gospel?

You may laugh and scoff at such things—you may think you don't need Torrey and his preaching.

But there's a jolt coming some day—a jolt so sudden and so unexpected that you'll wonder why in the world you put off preparations for your hereafter until the last hour.

Torrey has been through the mill—he knows both sides of life. He knows how easy it is to drift with the world—to get careless and thoughtless.

He is not here to scold you for your weaknesses, but to help you into the straight road, to put you on your feet, to encourage you and strengthen you. He will do it if you will give him an opportunity.

What are you going to do about it?

You must be the arbiter of your own destiny.

NEGRO CHASED, CAPTURED AND THRASHED BY CROWD

Detected Stealing Empty Barley Sacks and Pursued Four Blocks by Constantly Increasing Swarm of Indignant Citizens

No moving picture, show ever presented a more comical scene than did the race by several hundred men, women and school children after a negro, whose name is alleged to be John Hill, who had stolen five empty barley sacks from the Empire laundry sables, Fourth and Hewitt streets, at 12:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

After "sneaking" the sacks the thief started at full speed up Podria street toward Stephenson avenue. However, it happened that Carl Shedd, superintendent of the Empire laundry sables, had seen the place, and he immediately issued from his office and gave chase. Mr. Shedd was soon joined by passing pedestrians, and the shout of "Thief!" attracted others at every cross street.

From Stephenson avenue the negro went up Rose street to Second, through a barn belonging to a Japanese, over a high fence to First and Alameda, and then to Seaton and Fifth, where at last he dropped the sacks where he saw that his pursuers were upon him, headed by Mr. Shedd. Citizens administered a sound thrashing, after which a warrant was sworn out against him on a charge of petit larceny.

LAUNCH U.S.S. NORTH DAKOTA

UNCLE SAM'S GREATEST WARSHIP CHRISTENED

Is Most Powerful Battleship of Dreadnaught Type and Marks New Epoch in Construction of Naval Vessels

[By Associated Press.]

QUINCY, Mass., Nov. 10.—The most powerful addition which the navy of the United States has ever received, an American first all-round big gun battleship, the North Dakota, was successfully launched today from the yard of the Fore River Shipbuilding company.

With the foam of the christening wine streaming down her bow plates from the bottle smashed by Miss Mary Benton of Fargo, N. D., and under the watchful eye of Governor John Burke of the state for which she is named, the North Dakota floated off into the basin, about 60 per cent completed.

Some time next autumn she will be turned over to the government for acceptance, and if she fulfills the tests, will go into commission next September.

The North Dakota is looked upon by naval experts as establishing a new epoch in battleship construction.

The battleship North Dakota is the first American vessel of the Dreadnaught class. When her great prow struck the waters of Fore river the bulky weight of the first fighting ship of the best known type of war vessel.

As the massive hull of the North Dakota stood on the ways ready for launching it presented none of the warlike appearances of the finished battleship. Save for a few temporary fittings the decks were bare and lacking the martial aspect supplied by the great guns and secondary batteries, which are to be installed later. Even the great boilers of the fighting ship have not been installed.

The armament is to consist of ten 12-inch breech-loading, long range rifles, fourteen 6-inch rapid firing guns, four 3-pound and a like number of 1-pound semi-automatic guns, two 3-inch field pieces, two machine guns of 60-caliber, and two 1-inch submerged torpedo tubes.

20,000 Tons Displacement

The battleship will have a displacement of 20,000 tons, 2000 in excess of the original British Dreadnaught. It is estimated that a speed of more than twenty-one knots will be attained on her trial, and that the battleship's horse-power will exceed 25,000.

Including officers, the crew will number more than 800 men. It is estimated that when formally taken over by the government the North Dakota will have cost at least $7,000,000.

To Capt. Charles J. Badger, U. S. N., recently superintendent of the naval academy at Annapolis, will go the honor of being the first commanding officer of the premier Dreadnaught of the United States navy.

More than 10,000 people, including representatives of two states and of the national government, gathered at the yards to witness the launching. While the North Dakota follows nearly a dozen great vessels launched at the Fore River yards, her advent into the sea today was regarded as establishing a new epoch because of her strength, both on the attack and on the defense, by the additional thickness of her armor—eight inches—and by the fact that she is the first all big gun ship of the navy.

HALLOWEEN PRANK HAS SERIOUS CONSEQUENCES

Husband of Woman Whose Gate Was Carried Away Resents Joke and Is Severely Beaten

When Mrs. Hannah L. Williams arose this morning of November 1 she found that somebody imbued with the spirit of Halloween had appropriated her front gate. Mrs. Williams made an inquiry among the neighbors. As a result suspicion fell upon Tiffilo Valdez. Then she told her husband.

Williams is about 70 years of age. He met Valdez on the street and told him to return the property. Valdez is said to have made answer by knocking Williams down and beating him severely. A complaint charging assault was sworn to by Mrs. Williams yesterday and a constable was sent to look for Valdez.

DEMOCRATS IN CHEERFUL MOOD

MEMBERS OF LEAGUE RESUME WEEKLY LUNCHEONS

Messrs. Dockweiler, Gibbon and Norton Discuss Future of Party. No Possibility of Note Is Heard

Members of the Democratic league yesterday resumed their weekly luncheons at the Westminster hotel.

The attendance was as large as during the campaign, and there was no note of discouragement in the conversation that passed before, during and after the spread which has been a fixed function for months.

Most of the Democratic county committeemen were on hand. Talks were made by T. E. Gibbon, Isidore B. Dockweiler and County Chairman Albert M. Norton on the future of the party.

The speakers said the election had come and gone, but Democratic principles would live forever. The organization well started in the past three months would be perfected for the coming city campaign.

Here and there weak spots would be filled by better and more energetic workers and the party's principles would be carried forward on the old lines.

The speakers urged the committeemen to let nothing interrupt their weekly gatherings and the interest in committee work so that there need be no lag or lapse in the work of keeping the Democratic vote in line for coming events.

Society

NO WEDDING of the present season in Los Angeles has been of greater social importance than the Graves-Hubbell nuptials, solemnized last evening in Immanuel Presbyterian church by Dr. Hugh K. Walker, and for which between 900 and 1000 invitations were issued.

The contracting parties were Miss Mary, youngest daughter of Judge and Mrs. Stephen C. Hubbell, and sister of Mrs. William Parish Jeffries, and William L. Graves, Jr., son of Dr. and Mrs. W. L. Graves of Figueroa street, and the interest given the occasion by the social prominence of both families was augmented by the fact that the bride and groom had grown to womanhood and manhood in Los Angeles.

Both at the church and at the house, where the bridal party and a few close friends were entertained after the ceremony, gold was the keynote of the decorations.

Big yellow chrysanthemums against a background of palms and ferns, banked the platform before which the ceremony took place, while from the choir loft sprang a canopy of green which extended to the aisle, and beneath which Mr. Graves and his best man, George Keating, awaited the bride and her suite.

Attending the bride were Miss Lois Chamberlain and Miss Kate Van Nuys, who were maids of honor, and Miss Katherine Clarke, Miss Katherine Bashford, Miss Edith Herron and Miss Helen Wells.

A musical program, under the direction of Miss Mollie Adella Brown, was rendered while the guests were gathering. Miss Fagge playing a violin solo, and at 8:30 the familiar strains of the bridal chorus from Lohengrin were heard, and the bride's attendants entered, three and three, from each side of the rostrum, and advanced down the aisle.

The bride, who was escorted by her father, and to precede her to the altar, and during the interchange of vows "Simple Confession" was softly rendered on the organ.

The gowns of the bride and those of the young women who attended her were striking and of unusual beauty.

Miss Hubbell wore a gown of a delicate cream tint, cut high at the throat and with long sleeves, with which she wore no gloves. Rose point and duchess lace formed the yoke and collar, and a length of lace, starting from the Empire girdle, was draped over the left shoulder and fell to the foot of the long train. The conventional veil of tulle was worn and the toilette completed by a shower of lilies of the valley.

The satin gowns of the bridesmaids were all in Empire effect, with long, gold fringed sashes falling from one shoulder, and each wore a Grecian fillet in her hair, the only difference being in the tint of the fabric, two being in pale gold, two in a deeper shade and the remaining two wearing a still warmer shade of the same color.

The ushers were Messrs. E. W. Currier, Lloyd Lott, James Page, Maynard McFie and Benton Van Nuys.

A reception and supper, followed by dancing, was enjoyed at the Hubbell home on Arapahoe street by a company of young people after the church service. Arend furnishing the music. Wright had charge of the decorations, and Miss Forman arranged those at the house.

Mr. and Mrs. Graves will be away for a month, after which, for a few weeks, they will be guests at the home of the bride's parents. After the first of the year they will be at home in Fresno, where the groom has business interests.

Concerning the marriage of Miss Bremer and Adolph Fleishman, which took place in San Francisco Sunday, the Chronicle of November 9 has the following:

"Miss Helen Marion Bremer, only daughter of Mrs. William H. Bremer

Whatever you do, wherever you settle in Southern California, you will wish to own at least one lot in Los Angeles. You will consider location, improvements, healthfulness, business, church and school facilities, parks and other things that go to make residence sections desirable and for increasing values. On this basis you cannot afford to overlook VERMONT AVENUE SQUARE, the model tract of the popular, rapidly growing new Southwest. The owners of have expended for street work, water, shade trees and other improvements, including a beautiful improved park, which has just been presented to the city and accepted by the Park Board, more than $105,000.

Two years ago this tract was an alfalfa patch; today it contains 200 homes of which only two are rented; the remainder are either building or are occupied by home-owners. The owners of the tract have built no houses in it. We sold 39 lots in October and 26 new houses were begun last month.

UP TO TUESDAY MORNING WE HAD SOLD 24 LOTS THIS MONTH, NOVEMBER. YOU WILL HAVE TO HURRY IF YOU WANT A LOT IN VERMONT AVENUE SQUARE.

Present prices of lots are from $650 up, which is very low, considering the advantages. As announced in our advertising.

Prices Will Positively Be Advanced on December 1, Next

The extraordinary recent sales show that wise investors and home-makers are getting in on the ground floor, before the advance.

See and judge this model tract for yourself. Vermont Avenue Square is on Vermont, Vernon and Normandie avenues. Take Grand avenue car on Broadway marked "West 48th Street" and get off at Vermont avenue. Consult any real estate agent or and sister of Milton Bremer, a well known broker, was married at noon yesterday to Adolph Fleishman of Los Angeles in the beautiful ballroom at the Fairmont.

"One hundred relatives and friends witnessed the ceremony, the ancient Jewish marriage rites being performed by Rev. Dr. Nieto.

"The bride, a jolly, petite brunette, had an attendant only, her tall, regal sister-in-law, Mrs. Milton Bremer, who acted as matron of honor. The groom was accompanied by his brother.

"One end of the mirrored ballroom was bowered by a floral hedge, and behind that artistic barrier were arranged numerous round tables, at which sat various groups of friends at the wedding breakfast.

"By mid-afternoon the bride, attired in a brown traveling dress of limousine, had slipped away to start on the honeymoon trip after all had wished Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Fleishman health and happiness in their new home at Los Angeles."

Dr. and Mrs. Walter Jarvis Barlow entertained in celebration of the tenth anniversary of their marriage last evening with an elaborately appointed dance, the function taking place at Kramer's, and the invitation list including 200 friends.
