The Daily Gazette

J. F. JOHNSON, EDITOR and PROPRIETOR

THE DAILY GAZETTE is published every afternoon (sunday excepted), at 416 Market street, and served by carriers to subscribers in all parts of the city and surrounding towns and villages, for six cents a week, payable weekly. Yearly subscribers, $3 in advance.

THE DELAWARE GAZETTE, established in 1784, is the largest and most flourishing weekly paper in the State, and has a larger circulation than any other on the Peninsula. Published every Thursday afternoon, at $2 per year, in advance.

FEBRUARY 4 1879

THE DAILY GAZETTE is sent to all parts of the country, postage paid, for THREE DOLLARS a year, in advance. It contains all the local news and most important news of the day. It gives in brief just the news the farmer or the business man need, at half the cost of the two cent papers; and as much as a man ought to read of an evening or morning. Subscribe for it at once by remitting a money order for a year or six months.

THE Republican continues to harp upon the State Treasurer's banquet. Both the editor and correspondent repeated in various ways their former false and insulting language in reference to the members of the Legislature and State officials whom they alleged were present. After the numerous denials that have been published, this is adding insult to injury.

SENATOR MORGAN, of Alabama, spoke very openly and creditably in the Senate on Saturday in reply to seven-to-eight Edmunds on the latter's bill on the 14th and 15th amendments. The time has arrived when Southern Senators should feel themselves relieved of the restraints heretofore resting upon them in consequence of the threats and abusive language which has been so freely used to intimidate and overawe them in both Houses of Congress. The people have seen that this language and the accompanying threats have been used in all cases simply to hold the Southern people down while the Northern men were taxing them and robbing the government treasury. They kept up the army and navy to assist in robbing the people; they disfranchised the white people of the South that they, the members of Congress and their friends and relatives, might rob the government and their agents do the same in the Southern States.

LOWER TAXES.—A meeting has been called for this evening of citizens who are opposed to the further increase of taxes, to be held in the second story room at Third and Market streets, over the telegraph office. This is a wise movement. We hope the meeting will be large, and that there will be a full, free and open expression of opinion. Now we shall see what attention is given to this matter. If property holders do not respond they will have to take the consequences. The city cannot prosper as it should unless there is more economy in its administration than there has been in the last ten years. Other cities are awakening to the damaging consequences of high taxes upon the value of property and are resolving to secure lower taxes. Let Wilmington not be behind in this matter. If the meeting to-night is a success, we shall hope to see it repeated until a sound and healthy enthusiasm is created in favor of economy and lower taxation.

IT NOW APPEARS that a large body of the Republican party are anxious to have the tyrannical enforcement laws, passed previous to the campaign of 1872 to enable the Grant administration to secure his election by the use of U. S. Marshals, U. S. Supervisors at elections, and the army, repealed. They begin to fear that if these laws are allowed to remain they may be made to serve the Democrats who will have both Houses of the next Congress, and are likely to carry the next President also. They see that if Return Boards can be used to elect a Republican they may also be used to elect a Democrat to the Chief Magistracy. Notwithstanding all this we hope these iniquitous laws will be repealed. The action of U. S. Marshals here in 1872 and in 1876, were bad enough, but the conduct of Davenport in New York, and other U. S. Marshals in Baltimore, Philadelphia and in the South has been outrageous.

CONKLING'S TYRANNY ENDED.—Our readers know very well that the GAZETTE has not shown much love for Hayes or John Sherman. They are quite as bad as Conkling; but it was simply impossible for us to witness the manner in which that Senator has been suffered to bring to his aid to re-elect himself the whole power of the Custom House in New York, and to sustain also the hundreds of acts of villainy and robbery that had been shown to have been perpetrated under the very men whom Conkling endeavored to keep in office. This thing has existed too long already, and we cannot withhold an expression of pleasure at finding the votes of the Delaware Senators against the wily New York Senator's proposition to continue his pimps in office in the Custom House of New York. Mr. Bayard's speech is said to have been very decisive in tone, and to have exposed the glaring frauds that had so long been practiced in the New York Custom House by which the merchants and importers had been swindled. It will be remembered that he was a member of the Congressional Committee that was sent to New York to examine into the alleged Custom House frauds in that city; and that his exposure of these iniquities gained him much of the immense popularity he has since had with the merchants of that city. It is well known that the officials in that Custom House, and we expect it is so in others, have winked at the grossest frauds—that the wealthy who have visited Europe every summer make purchases of nearly all their costly attire and thus save about as much as their traveling expenses. In fact they often say it is cheaper to go to Europe and spend the summer than it is to go to our own fashionable watering places. While the poor are taxed excessively by the high-tariff, these wealthy people thus escape much of this taxation.

SUPERVISOR DAVENPORT'S DEFENCE that in arresting the holders of the '68 naturalization papers he made no distinction between Republicans and Democrats, is one of the best jokes of the season.—N. Y. Herald.

WASHINGTON.

Confirmation of Messrs. Merritt and Burt—33 to 24.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—The consideration of the nominations of Edwin A. Merritt to be Collector of Customs and Silas W. Burt to be Naval Officer for the Port of New York was resumed by the Senate in executive session to-day at one p. m.

Senator Bayard, as soon as the doors were closed, submitted a motion that they be reopened and that all proceedings be conducted in public.

Senator Edmunds objected to the present consideration of this motion, and it therefore went over under the rules.

SPEECH OF SENATOR BAYARD.

Mr. Bayard then took the floor, and made a speech of considerable length and much earnestness in favor of confirming the nominations. He referred in detail to the testimony taken by the investigating committee, of which he was a member, some years ago, showing, as he alleged, gross maladministration of the New York Custom House under Collector Murphy, and he claimed it was then, and had been since, a mere political machine and a source of corruption. He heartily favored the President's declaration of an intention to reform its administration by placing it on business principles, and to this end would vote for the removal of Messrs. Arthur and Cornell and the confirmation of the pending nominations as a step in the direction of much needed reform.

IN OPPOSITION.

Mr. Edmunds was the next speaker. He strongly opposed the removal of General Arthur (the pending question being on General Merritt's nomination only), and insisted that no sufficient cause had been shown to justify it.

Mr. Conkling, in conclusion, intimated that he would go into the matter at more length were the session an open one and if the hour were not so late, but under the circumstances he would content himself with asking for the Senate's decision.

A vote was then taken on the matter for recommittal, and it was lost by 7 or 8 majority.

THE VOTE ON THE NOMINATIONS.

The roll being next called on the question of confirming the nominations the vote resulted yeas 33 nays 24, as follows:—

YEAS—Messrs. Bailey, Bayard, Beck, Burnside, Cameron of Wisconsin, Coke, Conover, Davis of West Virginia, Dawes, Dennis, Ferry, Gordon, Grover, Harris, Hereford, Hill, Hoar, Johnston, Kirkwood, McCreery, McMillan, Matthews, Morgan, Morrill, Oglesby, Randolph, Ransom, Saulsbury, Saunders, Shields, Whyte, Windom and Withers—33.

NAYS—Messrs. Allison, Anthony, Blaine, Booth, Brince, Chaffee, Cockrell, Conkling, Davis of Illinois, Eaton, Garland, Hamlin, Howe, Jones of Nevada, Kellogg, McDonald, Mitchell, Paddock, Patterson, Rollins, Sargent, Spencer, Teller and Voorhees—24.

Letter from Seaford.

SEAFORD, Feb. 3.—A large fleet of oyster boats, which has been ice-bound at various points in the Nanticoke for some two or three weeks, are now lying in our docks discharging their cargo of bivalves, and it is estimated that over twelve thousand bushels have found their way into the packing houses since Saturday. Although the temporary suspension operated against the interests of the packers, they retained most of their old customers, and as telegraphic orders are coming in rapidly, it will require but a short time to exhaust the supply now on hand. They are apprehensive of another freeze, as the sudden change in the temperature indicates more cold weather. A strong northwest wind is prevailing and several abortive attempts to snow have been made. The winter has so far been an unusually severe one, causing a general stagnation in business in this particular locality.

The festival for the benefit of the Masonic Lodge, which closed on Friday night, was highly successful, pecuniarily and will assist them materially in the furnishing of their new room.

As some of the topographical engineers have expressed the opinion that the route from Secretary creek, in Dorchester county, Md., via the Nanticoke river to Lewes, Del., was the most feasible as well as the most economical for the proposed ship canal, that Major Hutton would be prepared to submit his report of the surveys to the present Congress for definite action. This, however, will not be done and the matter will have to languish until next winter. In the interim our people can make it a refreshing subject for argument in lieu of the stereotyped talk about the peach crop.

It is generally regretted that Mr. Dean's resolution, introduced into the House of Representatives on Wednesday last, inquiring into the amount of fees and allowances received by county officers, was so summarily disposed of. A matter of so grave importance—one in which the tax-payers of the whole State are directly interested—should not be thus hastily passed by. One of the cardinal virtues of Democracy is reform, and as it is an open secret that illegal fees are charged in various cases by unscrupulous officeholders, it would be a reproach upon the party to permit their watchword of reform to become a cloak for rascality within its own ranks. The investigation should be general, and the people—that is the Democracy of Sussex—hope Mr. Dean will fortify his bill with all the necessary constitutional requirements, and persist in its passage. If the Democracy of Delaware intends to eradicate the evil of corruption, and maintain the confidence of the people, let it practice what it preaches.

The New Senator from Louisiana.

Hon. B. F. Jonas, just elected United States Senator from Louisiana to succeed Mr. Eustis, is a leading lawyer in New Orleans, and a man of fine ability. In returning thanks for his election before the joint caucus of the Assembly Mr. Jonas said: "I have been linked with the fortunes of the State since my boyhood, and since the war, which I regard as a barrier between the present and past. I have endeavored to advocate the interests of Louisiana under the auspices of the Democratic party. I believe that that is the party which will eventually restore prosperity to the people, and it may confidently be anticipated that, with the two houses of Congress Democratic, the era of prosperity will dawn after the 4th of March next. While always a Democrat, it shall be my earnest endeavor to protect the colored citizen in all his political rights, and no colored man can charge me with treating him with injustice. While opposing drains upon the national treasury for the benefit of private corporations, I shall advocate those enlightened measures of international improvement—the construction of levees and the Southern Pacific railroad." In conclusion Mr. Jonas alluded to the election of Mr. Spofford two years ago, and pledged himself that he would not rest until he had been seated in the position to which he had been elected.
