

LAST EDITION

MUNICIPAL COURT.

Justice Smith Settles Several Cases at the Police Station.

Municipal Court this morning was held in the police station. Justice Smith presided in the absence of Judge Ball, who is ill, and Deputy Judge Lyman, who is at Ocean Grove. He was assisted by Mayor Harrington and City Solicitor Turner. He disposed of the following cases:

Michael Feeney, drunk, was allowed to go on promise to leave the city within one hour. Daniel Marine, drunk, $2 and costs; Frank Clark, drunk, released on promise to leave the city immediately; James Howe, drunk, $3 and costs; Michael Garvey, drunk, $3 and costs; Reed Butcher, drunk, $10 and costs; James Butcher, drunk, $10 and costs; Edward Smith, charged with assaulting Frank Massey and drawing a knife on him, was held in $200 bail for his appearance at the Court of General Sessions. Alex. Scribner, a 14-year old boy, charged with larceny of money from the store of August Biermann, at Fourth and Tenth streets, was recommitted until Wednesday evening. Wesley Lawes, colored, charged with larceny of rope, was held in $200 bail for a hearing on Wednesday evening.

Market Prices High.

Everything in the way of vegetables is scarce. Peaches sell at 30, 40 and 50 cents per half peck for Crawford's, Stump's and Moore's, respectively, and $1.15, $1.25 and $1.35 per basket. Tomatoes, 20 cents a half peck; egg plants, 5 to 10 cents a piece; canteloupes of the Jenny Lind variety, 50 to 65c a basket; watermelons, $1.00 and $1.50 per 1000; the cantaloupe and water melon crop is a failure; squashes, 30 cents a basket; corn, 15 cents a dozen; string beans, 15 cents a half peck; lima beans, 25 cents a quart; cabbage, 25 and 30 cents a basket, 3 and 5 cents a head; apples, 20 cents a half peck; 50 cents a basket; onions, 20 cents a half peck, 40 cents a basket; sweet potatoes, 35 cents a half peck; white potatoes, 13 cents a half peck; butter, 30 cents a pound; tub butter, 22 cents; cream cheese, 15 cents a pound; chickens, 15, 20 and 25 cents per pound.

To Organize a Company.

The firm of Joseph Bancroft and Sons, owners of Bancroft's cotton mills and bleaching and dyeing mills at Rockland, on the Brandywine, will soon be merged into an incorporated company. William P. and Samuel Bancroft, Jr., the present members of the firm will retain the controlling interest in the new company.

These mills were established in 1831 as a cotton factory, with 1500 spindles. In 1839 the business of bleaching and dyeing cotton goods was added, and William P. and Samuel Bancroft, Jr., taken into the firm, which was organized with the name of Joseph Bancroft and Sons. Joseph Bancroft died in 1874. Since that year the works have been much enlarged. In 1885 the cotton mills were extensively enlarged and refitted, and the equipment increased to 7000 spindles and 100 looms.

Mr. Lawton Withdraws.

The death of Mrs. William Lawton has caused the withdrawal of Mr. William Lawton from the management of the household department and the manufacturers' and merchants' display in the coming fair. Mr. Lawton's letter to this effect has been received by T. D. Brown, secretary of the fair association. No person has yet been selected to fill Mr. Lawton's place. It is a hard position to fill satisfactorily. All those who know the necessities of the two departments left vacant, while sympathizing with Mr. Lawton in his bereavement, regret that he has withdrawn from their management.

The Delaware Peach Shipments.

The number of cars loaded with peaches shipped over the Delaware railroad since yesterday is as follows:

Philadelphia	35
Jersey City	2
Boston	2
Newark, N. J.	4
Chester, Pa.	2
Wilmington	1
Towanda	1
Hartford, Conn.	1
Scranton	1
Syracuse	1
Yonkers	1
Holtzke	1
Norwich	1
Total	59
Previous shipments	750
Total to date	809

Insane Hospital Superintendent.

Dr. D. A. Harrison, who was elected medical superintendent of the State Insane Hospital, has declined to accept the position. He is now superintendent of the Kings county (N. Y.) insane asylum at St. Johnland, L. I. The reasons he gives are that he has a fine home by the sea with his family, and would rather remain there. The board will hold a special meeting at the hospital on Thursday morning, at 10.30 o'clock. There are many applicants for the position and they will probably consider the applications and expect to elect a superintendent.

General Henry DuPont's Will.

Letter testamentary were granted yesterday afternoon on the estate of General Henry DuPont to Colonel H. A. DuPont and William DuPont, Esq. The will was written by General DuPont himself. It is hard to tell the value of the estate until after the appraisement has been made. The bulk of the estate is probably left to his son, Henry A. and William. A number of farms are bequeathed to different members of the family, and it is said that his personal property is left to his widow for life.

To Attend Mrs. Lawton's Funeral.

A meeting was held at the First Presbyterian Church last night, in relation to the death of Mrs. William Lawton, who died on Sunday. The following letter this morning to attend the funeral at Mrs. Lawton's old home, Newburg, N. Y.: Rev. George M. Hickman, James F. Peice, Mrs. Howard T. Wallace, Mrs. John Downing and Mrs. S. R. Lawson. They will return home on Thursday.

A Case Compromised.

Last Saturday Walter J. Johnson was arrested on a warrant sworn out by Nathan B. Johnson for assault and battery. Nathan B. Johnson was arrested on a similar warrant sworn out by Walter J. Johnson. Last evening the two men met at Squire Bertelette's office and settled the affair by each paying his own costs.

The Eighth Street Railway.

The tearing up of Eighth street for the new electric railway was begun yesterday at Shipley street. The square to Market street will not be touched for some time. The street will be repaved with Belgian block to Washington street. The road will be completed by October 1.

Wilmington Clearing House.

The exchange of the Wilmington banks at the clearing house to-day was $1,000,000, $2,500,000, $3,000,000, $2,000,000, $1,500,000, $1,000,000, $500,000, $250,000, $100,000, $50,000, $25,000, $10,000, $5,000, $2,500, $1,000, $500, $250, $100, $50, $25, $10, $5, $2, $1, $0.50, $0.25, $0.10, $0.05, $0.02, $0.01.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

William J. Fisher and wife are at Cape May.

George Brodie is confined to his house with a severe cold.

Miss Lillie Harper of Camden, N. J., is visiting friends in this city.

Miss Maze Raub of Hotel Kirkwood is visiting friends in Lancaster, Pa.

John S. Mullin, Jr., and wife are spending a week at Ocean City, Md.

Mrs. John P. Wales and family have gone to Cape May Point for a week.

Bessie Ash, No. 506 West Ninth street, is at the Seaside Hotel, Ocean Grove.

W. Marvin Truss of New Castle is contemplating a European trip in the fall.

Miss Hortense Keables of the Wilmington Library, has returned after her vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Thompson have left for a several days' sojourn at Atlantic City.

Horace Vernon of Mt. Cuba will leave in a few days to visit friends in Loudon county, Va.

H. Clayton Taylor and family will spend two weeks with relatives in Loudon county, Va.

Misses Maggie Butler and Maggie Carroll will return from a visit to Atlantic City to-morrow.

Mrs. A. C. Brown of Preston street, Philadelphia, is visiting Mrs. M. E. Moses of Hotel Kirkwood.

Mrs. Joseph Robinson and daughter, Bertha Robinson, will spend the remainder of the summer at Atlantic City.

Rev. Martin B. Dunlap, pastor of Old Swedes' Church, and wife, will leave for a sojourn with friends at Galena, Md.

Mrs. William Lindsay, Miss Annie Lindsay and Miss Bertha Cluff went to Philadelphia this morning to spend the day.

Captain Andrew Carey of the sash department of the Jackson and Sharp works, visited his family at Cape May on Sunday.

Miss Edith Trump of Wilmington will leave in a few days for Lincoln, Loudon county, Va., where she will visit schoolmates.

Miss Josephine Arold of Philadelphia, who has been visiting this Misses Link on East Fifth street, returned home yesterday.

Misses Beatty and Sallie Kellogg of Baltimore, formerly residents of this city, are visiting Mrs. David Bruce, No. 600 Adams street.

John Young, who has been in the employ of the Jackson and Sharp company for over a year past, will leave this city on Thursday morning for East Saginaw, Mich., where he has accepted a position in the office of the lumber yards belonging to Harlan Gause of this city.

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF.

The Eighth Ward Republican Club will give an excursion to Atlantic City to-morrow.

The keel of the new pilot boat has been laid at the Jackson and Sharp Company's shipyard.

New Brussels rugs have been put on the floor of the Custom House rooms in the Federal building.

Park Guards Sinclair and Guiney are cutting a foot walk on the north side of the Brandywine Park.

David Lindsey, superintendent of the Augustine paper mills, returned from a week's visit at Cape May last night.

The Rochelle Camping Club of twenty persons returned home from Neahaminy Falls last evening by the B. & O. railroad.

The frames of the new Windsor Lize steamship building at the Harlan and Hollingsworth Company's yard are all in place.

The colored barbers defeated the colored waiters in a game of base ball at Union Park yesterday, by a score of 18 to 10.

Two screws for James A. Simmons of New York will be launched at the Jackson and Sharp Company's shipyard in a few days.

There will be seven prisoners taken to New Castle this afternoon in default of payment of their fines and costs for drunkenness.

The machinery on the new dredging machine built by the Jackson and Sharp Company will be finished by the Pusey and Jones Company.

Two cases of goods have been shipped to Johnstown, Pa., by Russell, Missimer & Co. The goods were purchased from this city's contributions.

The deck is being put on the new transport steamer Maryland, being built by the Harlan and Hollingsworth Company. She will be launched in a short time.

The county tax collectors, who have been receiving taxes for several weeks past at the city tax office on Sixth street, have returned to their own office, No. 602; Market street.

A black and white dog had a fit on Fourth street, opposite W. B. Sharp's store this morning. A small crowd watched his struggles until his owner carried him away in his arms.

A meeting will be held in the rooms of DuPont Post G. A. R., on Saturday evening next, for the purpose of organizing a Society of Sons of the American Revolution. The descendants of persons who aided in any way in establishing American independence are eligible to membership.

The open air concert given at Tenth and Lombard streets last evening by Hyatt's Military Band was attended by a large audience. The band will give its last concert this week, to-night, at the Franklin Street Park. On Thursday night it will give a moonlight excursion to Angustine Pier.

A young woman in a delicate condition fell in a fainting fit at Fourth and Shipley streets last evening. She was carried to the liquor store of William Baxter & Brother and after she had revived she was taken to her home, by two men who knew her. Her name and residence was not disclosed.

A number of employees from F. T. Geyer's carriage works have been camping out at Deep Water Point, N. J. Among them were Robert Liddell, Howard Cooling, Charles Robinson, Frank Murphy, Ellwood Taswell, N. Liddell, Mrs. Liddell, Mrs. Cooling, Misses Ida Collins, Bertha Long, Rachel Liddell, Amy Webb and Mabel Cooling. They were visited by several friends, among them being Thomas Hogue and Benjamin Clymer. They returned home yesterday much pleased with their trip.

Struck by a Freight Train.

Thomas Mullen, a resident of the Ninth ward, was struck by the freight train on the Brandywine Branch of the P. & B. railroad last evening and badly injured. A gash several inches long was made on the top of his head and he was covered with grease. His injury was dressed at Gallagher's drug store.

CHILDREN'S DAY GIVEN.

CLOSING THE SCHOOLS ONE DAY IN FAIR WEEK.

Repairs to the Schools—Dr. James H. Morgan's Contract Awarding to Be Investigated.

The Board of Public Education held its regular session last evening. The Finance Committee presented its annual report which appears in another column. The treasurer of the board presented his report, as follows:

To balance May 31, current expenses, $28,018.82
New building, 1,708.47
Monthly appropriation, 7,000.00
Sale of old books, No. 4, 75.00
Sale of old books, No. 10, 3.48
Sale of old books, No. 2, 3.48
Sale of old books, No. 3, 3.48
Total, $38,240.61

By salary paid teachers, $ 6,720.00
By salary paid janitors, 6,720.00
By salary paid officers and janitors, 501.96
Paid for repairs, 331.44
Fuel, 74.23
Furniture, 74.23
Light school building, 425.11
Miscellaneous, 74.23
Books, 74.23
New building, 1,708.47
Total on hand June 30, 21,710.00

The treasurer was instructed to draw on City Council for the regular monthly appropriation.

The Committee on Books reported having received bids for books for the year and asked that the contract be awarded to C. F. Thomas & Company the lowest bidder. E. S. R. Butler & Son was the other bidder.

The Printing Company received authority to get bids without advertising for them.

The committee on No. 1 school was given authority to increase a mat and to have the gutter on the roof repaired.

The committee on No. 2 reported needed repairs, and were sanctioned by the board. Other repairs are needed and they will be made. The iron fence in front of school No. 4 will be painted.

The committee on No. 19 asked that it be allowed to have the school papered, as it is badly in need of it. The request was granted, and the work will be done by Ross & Brother at $87.

The committee on school No. 11 asked for four new doors. The request was granted. The committee on No. 13 asked that the church people complain of the condition of the school yard. It will cost $40 to $50 to put it in order. The roof also needs attention. Both were referred to the committee on repairs.

The pavement of No. 15 will be repaired. No. 23 will receive attention inside and coat of paint outside. No. 14 will receive a coat of whitewash.

The committee on the new school in the Twelfth ward, was given permission to run a water pipe for the work.

The committee on repairs presented its report, concerning the contracts recently awarded. The special bids were read, amounting to $608.30 in favor of Nutter & Baylis, painters; L. T. Grubb, $63; William Lemon, $5; Samuel Danby, $5. Orders for the alterations to No. 15 school were drawn and issued.

J. A. Magee moved that the vacation be extended one week in order that the children could attend the Wilmington fair. The motion was seconded. President Baird stated that the motion being an amendment to the by-laws, it was necessary to give two weeks notice before action could be taken.

The Finance Committee asked that the salary of the auditor, John S. Grobe, be increased from $12 to $50. Mr. Grobe audits accounts amounting to $120,000 each year. The motion was allowed.

Dr. James H. Morgan moved that the schools close September 2 and remain closed until September 9. Outside of the benefit to the children at the fair he thought the repairs now being made in the schools would require a longer time. Dr. E. G. Shortridge thought the motion wrong, as the children have plenty of holidays, there being but 192 days of school last year. Dr. Shortridge was in favor of one day's vacation. Dr. Morgan spoke for his motion, believing that the fair would benefit the children, especially in the manual training exhibit. Dr. Shortridge moved an amendment that Wednesday, September 4, be a holiday. Mr. Baynard was in favor of the week, as the teachers could recuperate. Dr. Shortridge's amendment was carried.

Joseph Pyle asked that an order be drawn in favor of Ginn & Co., music dealers, for their bill, and it was granted.

A communication casting reflections on Dr. James H. Morgan was received from A. B. Jones and George W. Goodley, and read.

A motion to lay it on the table was lost. Dr. Morgan's explanation of the matter, similar to that published in the EVENING JOURNAL. He thought it a censure on the committee for the board to ask for an investigation. Joseph Pyle thought the explanation good and in order. William Turner, a member of the Repair Committee, said they were ready to have everything investigated. On motion of Mr. McGarrity, the president was authorized to appoint an investigating committee of five.

President Baird appointed the following committee: McGarrity, Simmons, D. R. Smith, Betts and Baylis.

Bills were passed as follows: Phillips & Kane, $1.76; Gawthrop & Brother, $10.73; J. V. Carlisle & Co., 68 cents; W. B. Sharp & Co., $8.02; Miller & Jenkins, 50 cents; B. S. Clark, Jr., $1.50; Johnson & Barnhill, 50 cents; J. Wise, $2.33; L. T. Grubb & Son, $20.78; G. A. Frazer, $12.80; Capelle Hardware Company, $12.90; J. C. Van Trump, $4.85; J. H. Gooding, 50 cents; E. Melchior, 50 cents; G. H. Murphy, $22.50; D. W. Harlan, $16.21; Z. James Belt, 24 cents; H. A. Roop, $20.30; J. J. Pierce, $1.19; W. C. Martin, $5; Kirkman Coach Company, $4; H. W. Lowe, $12; Wilmington Transfer Company, $2.75; Adams & Bro., 96 cents; Journal Printing Company, $2.62; Every Evening, $2.84; S. R. Smith, $49.05; F. A. Taylor, 36 cents; N. D. Sinclair, $3; C. E. Thomas & Co., $134.51; Nutter & Baylis, $603.30; $3.01; L. T. Grubb, $48.88; $14.66; William Leonard, $; Samuel Stanley, $5; Colter & Williams, $63; B. F. Walsh, $16; Peter F. Martin, $12.50.

An Artistic Number.

This week's Frank Leslie's Illustrated Newspaper shows a strong artistic taste. Its pictures and letter-press are equally interesting. The Highland Light, a most picturesque light-house; a splendid likeness of Mrs. Bryce, a leading New York society lady; President Harrison's visit at Bar Harbor; an old junkshop, drawn by Sheppard; the cricket plague in Algeria; these illustrations, with the answer of Dr. Deems, make it the best number under the new proprietors.

Accidental Fall.

Edward Reed, a clerk in the recorder's office, this city, met with a painful accident a day or so ago. Mr. Reed had gone to Philadelphia on a few days' jaunt, and on passing down one of the streets in that city was tripped by a trap door which projected into the street, and fell to the ground. Mr. Reed received several serious injuries about the knee and thigh, thus compelling him to go about on crutches. Dr. Draper dressed the wounds.

CHILDREN RESCUED.

From Immoral Influences—A Base Ball Game Quarrel.

Special Correspondence EVENING JOURNAL. ELKTON, August 13.—Constable E. B. Smith of this town took the four children of Mary Lotman better known as Mary Rabbit, to Baltimore to-day. The two eldest were sent to the Henry Watson Aid Society, the other two to the Nursery and Child's Hospital. State's Attorney, W. S. Evans brought the matter before Justice A. J. Scott, who committed them. It is charged the children were under immoral influences.

The Elkton Base Ball Club visited Chesapeake City yesterday afternoon, and defeated the club of that place by a score of 9 to 0. The game broke up in a wrangle. Henry McCullough started in to pitch for Elkton but was very wild and allowed the Chesapeake to score nine runs in the first inning. In the second inning Perkins was substituted and pitched a good game. In the seventh inning Dr. Howard Bratton the catcher of the visiting club, became sick and wanted to retire, but the home club objected to a substitute and the game was awarded to Elkton by the score of 9 to 0. The playing of Perkins, Hinchliffe, Morgan and Henry was very fine. Richard Maxwell, acted as umpire.

Weather.

For Delaware and Maryland 1 p. m.: Fair, slightly warmer weather, with southerly winds.

New York Herald weather forecasts: The temperature in the Northwest has shown sharp changes, ranging 26 degrees in twelve hours at Fort Assiniboine, M. T.; 20 degrees at Fort Buford, Dak., and 30 degrees at Abilene, Texas. The lowest temperature recorded was 40 degrees at Northfield, Vt., and the highest—92 degrees—at Fort Elliot and El Paso, Texas, and at Salt Lake City, Utah. In his city and its vicinity to-day cool and cloudy weather, followed by a warmer and more humid atmosphere, with southerly breezes may be expected.

Baynard's thermometer, 7 a. m., 72; 9 a. m., 76; 11 a. m., 84; 1 p. m., 88.

Atlantic City.

The new short line to Atlantic City via New Jersey and Wilmington Ferry and West Jersey R. R.

Arrangements have been made for special service for Sunday next, the 18th, which will afford the best of opportunities for all who wish to go to Atlantic City.

A special train of first class West Jersey coaches will leave Pennsgrove upon arrival of the Wilmington passengers, going by special train through.

Two boats will leave Wilmington: One at 7.05 a. m. and one at 7.30 a. m. sharp. Remember, the fare is $1.50; you will have eight hours at the sea shore and will reach home early in the evening.

Two Accidents.

At Brown's livery stands on Orange street one of the employes, while cutting some feed with the cut box yesterday, cut the ends off three fingers of his left hand. Dr. Blocksom attended to the wounds.

Vincent Conway, colored, an employe of the Lobdell Car Wheel Company, had his left foot severely crushed by a car wheel falling on it yesterday afternoon about 3 o'clock. He was carried into Dr. Blocksom's office and had the great toe amputated at the first joint.

Pumping Engine.

The Pusey and Jones Company sent out yesterday a three cylinder pump for use at the ice factory of the Lea Pusey Ice Company. The cylinders are six inches in diameter and have 12-inch strokes. The capacity of the pump is 250 gallons a minute.

A NEW CASTLE TUG PARTY.

Those Who Were on Board—New Castle's Patrol Wagon.

Special Correspondence EVENING JOURNAL. NEW CASTLE, Del., August 13.—Dr. Henry R. Wharton of Philadelphia who has been spending a couple of weeks vacation at the Jefferson House gave a tug party on the tug M. W. Hunt last evening. Refreshments were served on the boat. After a pleasant trip of several hours on the Delaware, the party returned home arriving here near midnight. Those on board were: John H. Rodney Esq., and wife, Thomas Booth and wife of Bethlehem, Pa., Mrs. John J. Black Mr. W. T. Holcomb, M. Thomas Holcomb, Mrs. P. B. Lightner, Miss Mamie and Hela Holcomb, Annie Trappier of Washington, Maria and Alice Rogers, Emily, Sophie and Louise Rodney, Mary Cooper, Ella Tybout, the Misses Barney of Frederickburg, Va., Miss Edith Booth of Germantown, Pa., F. W. B. Durrall of Baltimore, George R. Booth of Bethlehem, Pa., Laussat R. Rogers of San Francisco, Edward M. Herbert, Dr. R. Raymond Tybout, John R. Lambson, Chauncey F. Holcomb and James G. Shaw.

A Wilmington woman whose name is unknown was on the steamboat landing last evening very much intoxicated. Sergeant of Police Williams approached her, but she was too drunk to walk to the police station and the officer procured a wheelbarrow, placed her in it and wheeled her there.

Misses Regina Mahoney and Maggie Kelley of this city visited Wilmington yesterday.

Miss Bertha Rosen of No. 632 West Sixth street, Wilmington is the guest of Miss Mamie Grimes on De la Vars street.

Howard Dunn of Salem, N. J., is the guest of James Challenger.

About 125 people went on the moonlight excursion of the M. E. Church last evening on the steamer Wilmington. The Hushebeck orchestra was on board.

The Misses Carney of Westley, R. I., are the guests of the Misses Dougherty on Delaware street.

The choir of the First Baptist Church gave a straw ride in the country last evening.

Mrs. A. Dubhorn of Chester, Pa., is the guest of Mrs. Charles Hoffman, at the Jefferson House.

John Fleming visited in Philadelphia yesterday.

What Officer Burrows Says.

Officer Burrows said to the JOURNAL reporter at the police station this morning: "Will you please say that when I went into James Weldon's saloon at Second and French streets on Saturday night and asked him to show me the man who had assaulted Claud Butler he replied that the man had slipped out. On the steps another man told me that they were still in the saloon. Weldon, however, would not give me any information about it. I want you to say this contradiction to the article in the Every Evening yesterday saying that Weldon did give us all the information he could about the assault."

Excursion of the L. O. O. F.

The Henry A. Haber pulled out of dock last night with about 100 persons aboard. They were members of the L. O. O. F. and their friends. The managing committee consisted of the following members of the order: Major L. W. Palmer, chairman; Captain John M. Whitford, Lieutenant Isaac Heiser, Chevalier David Truitt, Chevalier William E. Kirby, Captain B. F. Shakespear. Refreshments were served on board. Choice music, both instrumental and vocal, helped to make the evening a very pleasant one. The party returned about 12 o'clock, after a delightful trip down the river.

LICHTENSTEIN & HART

NO. 226 MARKET STREET.

DRY GOODS, CLOAKS AND UPHOLSTERY.

BOOKS.

We opened a few days since 500 volumes of the celebrated and well-known Luipun edition of popular works of fiction. Choice Summer reading. Publisher's price 25c; our price 10 cents a volume.

CASHMERE SHAWLS.

The balance of our Colored Cashmere Shawls are now being offered at the following low prices: $2.00 Shawls for $1.50, $1.50 Shawls for $1.12, $1.25 Shawls for 95c.

LADIES' BEADED CAPES.

We have just fifteen on hand and as our assortment is broken we are offering a discount of twenty per cent. to close them; they are all the latest and choice designs.

MEN'S UNLAUNDERED SHIRTS.

We have about 12 dozen of them; they are made of good Muslin, Linen Bosoms; price only 37 1/2c each.

Lichtenstein & Hart,

NO. 226 MARKET STREET.

GRANT'S,

315 KING ST. 316

Now is the last chance to buy Boots and Shoes at less than manufacturers' prices.

Balance of stock will be sold at Public Auction on Saturday morning at 10 o'clock.

GRANT'S,

316 KING ST. 316

All These Goods on Credit as Cheap as for Cash.

- Furniture, Carpets, Matting, Refrigerators, Baby Carriages, Jewelry, Watches, Silverware, Millinery, Clothing, Hats and Caps, Boots and Shoes, Dry Goods, Underwear, Dress Goods, Parasols, Silks and Laces, White Goods, Ladies' Wraps.

TERMS:—On a Bill of Ten Dollars, $1.00 Cash and $1.00 a Week.

PH