HORRIBLE TRAGEDY IN NEW HAMPSHIRE

Seven Persons Were Murdered Yesterday in a Farmhouse at North Pembroke.

ANOTHER KILLED HIMSELF. Farm Buildings Were Burned and Bodies Incinerated.

TWO OF THE CORPSES FOUND. Charred Trunks of a Woman and a Child.

Associated Press Dispatches by Special Wire. Pembroke, N. H., Jan. 18.—The authorities of Merrimack county and of the town of Pembroke today resumed investigation of the grim tragedy in which seven persons were victims and an eighth took his own life yesterday.

Following the murder of Mrs. Lakeman, Mrs. Ayer and the five children of the latter, the farm buildings were burned and the bodies incinerated. Before the fire was discovered by the neighbors, Ayer left home for the residence of his sister, Mrs. George Bailey, in the town of Chichester, six miles distant, where he shot himself, after being informed of the destruction of the property.

The authorities believe that Ayer used an axe or some other noxious weapon, as they have learned that the neighbors heard no pistol shots or disturbance of any kind at the Ayer home previous to the fire. They do not expect that the details of the actual commission of the crime will ever become known.

In his investigation, County Solicitor Clifford learned that Ayer had visited Chichester, where he sold his farm and presumably purchased the revolver with which he ended his own life. His sister, Mrs. Bailey, about 5 o'clock in the afternoon, after Ayer had been informed of the destruction of the property, told Ayer of the burning of his home. Without a word in reply, Ayer drew the revolver from his pocket and shot himself in the head. He never regained consciousness and died at 9:30 o'clock last evening.

Further investigations disclosed the fact that for three months Ayer had been brooding over fancied financial wrongs. (Continued on fifth page.)
