Baltimore Police Hold Man on Charge of Robbing Judge George Gray

MAN SAYS HE GOT CASE BY MISTAKE

Since the scandal broke, the Department of Justice, the Treasury Department and the Navy Department have all issued statements expressing their satisfaction with the way the case has been handled.

From a report of the case, it appears that the man was arrested on the same day he was reported to have stolen money from Judge Gray.

The man, who is a former railroad employee, told the police that he got the case by mistake.

He said he had been working on the train when he was arrested, and that he had been allowed to go free after he had paid for the fare.

The police, however, insisted that he had stolen the money, and that he had been released only because he had been caught in the act of taking it.

The man, who is now in the city jail, is said to be very nervous, and is said to be suffering from a nervous breakdown.

He had been employed on the train for a number of years, and had been a valued employee.

The case has created a sensation in the city, and has been the subject of much discussion.

The man, who is said to be a fine young man, is said to be very much distressed by the way the case has been handled.

A number of people have come to his aid, and have offered to help him in any way they can.

The police, however, insist that he has been caught in the act of taking the money, and that he has no right to be released.

The case will be tried in the city court, and will be a test of the law in the state.

The man, who is said to be very intelligent, is said to be very much opposed to the way the case has been handled.
