

CHARGE FRAUD UPON EAGLES

Wilmingtonian Among Members Accused of Misappropriating Aeries' Funds

COMMITTEE WILL REPORT FINDING TODAY

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Aug. 24.—Charges of grafting $9,000 from aeries of the Fraternal Order of Eagles were preferred against Martin Gray, New Haven, Conn.; Thomas C. Hays, Newark, N. J.; B. F. Monaghan, of Philadelphia, Pa., and Edward Krause, Wilmington, Del., in the reports of the grand officers and judiciary committee presented at the executive session of the grand aerie here yesterday.

The administration forces, supported by Theodore Bell and his following, scored a signal victory over the element said to be led by Senator Grady, of New York, the incoming grand worthy president, in forcing the adoption of the recommendation of the judiciary committee that the accused be tried by the combined judiciary and grievance and appeals committee.

Earl Rogers, of Los Angeles, a representative of the United Railways Company, of San Francisco, and a leading criminal lawyer, was chosen to head the trial committee. The opening day of the grand aerie was controlled by the votes of an independent element determined to decide on the merits of the questions before the body. Both the Bell-Hering, or administration, forces and those purporting to be led by Grady met reverses at their hands during the afternoon.

The trial of the accused men will be open to the members of the grand erie. It began at 5 p. m., and is expected to conclude early to-morrow morning. The report of the trial committee will then be presented to the convention to-morrow, in accordance with the present plans. All of accused are making determined defences. Former Congressman L. Irving Handy, of Delaware, is here as counsel for Krause.

INQUEST HOLDS BACK HOOPES SHOOTING TRIAL

James R. Hoopes, 12 years old, charged with having shot and killed Alfred Hanby, aged 12 years, was to have been given a hearing in City Court this morning on the charge of manslaughter, but pending the coroner's inquest, the hearing was further postponed until Tuesday. The inquest will take place probably on Saturday.

DAHLEN WILL COME STRONGER NEXT YEAR

NEW YORK, Aug. 24.—The announcement by President Charles H. Ebbetts, of the Brooklyn team, that "Bad Bill" Dahlen will manage the team again next year, was a bit of welcome news to Brooklyn fans. Despite the fact that the Dodgers can not finish better than sixth place this year, Dahlen is given credit for skillful handling of the team. Brooklyn has lost nearly thirty games this season by one run, which means that if the team had two or three really good batters it would now be well up in the first division.

Dahlen has announced that he will have a 25 per cent. better hitting team next year, and the Brooklynans are again building hopes, the chief amusement since the old Hanlon regime.

POLICE WILL CLEAN UP STATION HOUSE

At the meeting of the Board of Police Commissioners yesterday afternoon Chief Black was directed to proceed with the cleaning and improvement of the police station. The failure of City Council to fulfill a promise to repair and clean the station caused the action.

The cells will be whitewashed, and the sanitary conditions will be improved.

The contract for painting the ninety fire alarm boxes and the fifty-two police reporting boxes, was awarded to James M. Bryan at his bid of $49.70, which is 35 cents a box. Henry Hirszel was the only other bidder, he having made a flat bid of $55. The fire boxes are to be red and the police reporting boxes green.

TEMPERANCE FOLK PREPARE FOR CONVENTION

The return and welcome of Miss Lillian Cade, president of the Kent County W. C. T. U., was a pleasant feature of yesterday's meeting of the state executive committee of the W. C. T. U., held at the headquarters. Miss Cade will not give her report as delegate from Delaware to the International Convention at Glasgow, Scotland, until the State Convention in the fall, but she told entertainingly of her experience on the trip.

Only routine reports were given yesterday. There will be a meeting later to arrange for the presentation of the comfort bags to the Battleship Delaware, and a meeting the second week in September to arrange for the State Convention the last of October.

The executive committee did not consider the matter of Mrs. Longworth and her cigarette smoking. A number of the members say that they do not think it any of their business, although they do not think it right that she should smoke cigarettes, and therefore the matter will not be brought up before the committee.

Alleged Barn-Burner Caught. WEST CHESTER, Pa., Aug. 24.—John Hicks, a negro, of Malvern, has been arrested and lodged in jail here, charged with being implicated in the burning of the barn of Robert Hughes near Malvern, one night last week. State Trooper Ely has been on the trail of the negro for several days and discovered him hiding in a building near New Centerville, in Chester Valley.

CHURCH FOLK EAT MELONS

St. Elizabeth Parish Workers Make Success of Festival

The Watermelon festival given by the young women of St. Elizabeth's parish last night, was attended with a success which was most gratifying to the young women and to the eight hundred guests present. The fete was given on the church lawn, which was brilliantly illuminated with lanterns and electric lights. The tickets of admission included a generous slice of watermelon, and there were cakes, candies and ice cream for sale.

The chief entertainment of the evening was dancing. A feature of interest was a fine model of the battleship Virginia, valued at $75, and made by Mr. O'Connell, one of St. Elizabeth's parishoners. Chances were sold on the model, and will continue to be sold until September, when it will become the property of the holder of the right ticket.

ONE FINED FOR STREET FIGHTING

A fight at Fourth and Walnut streets late last night resulted in the appearance in City Court this morning of Howard Sands and Walter C. Woods, young men, charged with disorderly conduct. Timothy Quinn said Sands and Woods were in a crowd of fifteen young men that attacked him, knocking him down and kicking his face. Neither Quinn nor two other witnesses, however, were able to say that Sands had been directly concerned in the attack and he was dismissed. Woods was fined $1 and costs.

COTTON AND CORN GROWING.

Weather Fine For Crops, The Government Bulletin Reports. WASHINGTON, Aug. 24.—Throughout almost the entire cotton and corn growing sections of the country weather conditions during the past week were generally favorable according to the weekly weather bulletin of the Department of Agriculture issued today.

"In the Atlantic Coast districts, from the Carolinas northward, the conditions were much improved," the bulletin states. "In portions of New York, Maryland and Virginia, there was little rain and drought still continues. Along the northern border, from the Great Lakes westward to the Rock Mountains, only light showers occurred, and the drought in that section remains unbroken."

"What Right Has Heinze to Wed Other Woman?" She Asks

NEW YORK, Aug. 24.—While there were many congratulations sent by wire, letter and telephone to Fritz Augustus Heinze, the copper millionaire, over his announcement of his engagement to marry Miss Bernice Golden Henderson, the actress, none was forthcoming from Mrs. Lillian Hobart French, the handsome blonde of Butte, Mont., who figured last spring as the associate of the notorious Mike Dineen and Mrs. French indulged in many psychic vibrations at the time to keep Heinze, who was under indictment out of jail. Mrs. French sends no congratulations to the financier because she says she rather expected to marry him herself. She was ill in her apartments at the Imperial Arms, Riverside Drive and One Hundred and Thirty-eighth street, when a reporter called there at her request yesterday, but she looked quite fetching in her white linen robe de chambre with its pink ribbon trimming. Her golden hair was massed high above her regular features and her large blue eyes had dark, heavily shaded lashes. She reclined beneath a snowy counterpane and regarded the world frankly with a jaded and sad eye.

ACCIDENTS OF A DAY

The following accident cases were treated at Delaware Hospital yesterday: Bernard J. Houghton, 28 years old, of No. 700 Spruce street, back and arm contused, while at work at the Harlan and Hollingsworth shipyard; William Green, of the P. B. and W. shops, had a piece of steel taken from his eye.

William Snyder, aged 22 years, of No. 525 East Fifth street, had the toes on one of his feet crushed yesterday and was treated. James Corbit, aged 42 years, of No. 1194 Walnut street, an iron worker, had one of his eyes dressed.

Open Bids for Cops' Clothing. Bids were received by the Police Commission this afternoon for winter uniforms and helmets for the members of the police force. Chief of Police George Black was asked to secure bids to be opened at the meeting of the next board meeting.

Fine on Mollie McVeigh. Charges with breach of the peace, Mollie McVeigh was fined $2 and costs in City Court this morning. The complainant was Ella Kelly, of No. 12 Spring Alley, who said Mollie, while drunk, called her names. Mollie had no defense.

Hardup—Amy, we shall have to give up our trip to the seashore. But we'll save the money the trip would cost. Mrs. H.—Yes, dearest, and now I can get the fares that you said we couldn't afford if we went to the seashore.

"Tastes Differ" But Not Regarding Ice Cream The poets used to speak of "crabbed age"—but that was before ice cream was invented. Ice cream is the "touch of nature" (or is it art?) that "makes the whole world kin." From baby to grandma, there is just one subject that can be discussed with absolute certainty of all agreeing—and that's the delicious quality of ice cream. It certainly would have been celebrated by the poets—only it's vulgar to "rhapsodize" on food. (Drink is different). No matter—everyone is his own poet when eating ice cream.
