

SAYS CHARGE OF ARSON IS SPITE Woman Accused of Incendiarism Says She is Victim of Conspiracy

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., June 11.—Declaring that her arrest in connection with the firing of the home of her niece, Mrs. Josephine Maurer, at Woodlawn, Maryland, was the result of spite work on the part of relatives and townspeople, Mrs. Virginia D. Rutter, of 3601 Spring Garden street, who was placed under arrest a few days ago in Maryland on the charge of arson, protested that she was innocent.

JAIL SENTENCES FOR BOOZE SALES

Special to THE EVENING JOURNAL. DOVER, Del., June 11.—At yesterday's session of the Kent County Court of General Sessions, four more negroes appeared before the court and pleaded guilty without waiting for the July term of the Grand Jury, on charges of the unlawful sale of intoxicating liquors.

William Shockley was sentenced to ten months' imprisonment, pay a fine of $100 and costs of prosecution. There is still another charge of the same kind against Shockley. Sidney Wright the negro who escaped from the Dover officers here several weeks ago, with the officer's handcuffs on him, pleaded guilty and was given four months in the workhouse.

"DIVORCONS" PLEAS AT SPRINGS

In "The Divorcons" which is being produced this week at Bradywine Springs Park Theatre by the Springs Stock Company there, is a good, wholesome lesson, which will be readily appreciated by everybody who takes an interest in the family. In short, it proves in a most interesting and emphatic manner, that husband and wife often do not appreciate each other until they are on the verge of separation for no apparent reason, except because of this misunderstanding.

"The Divorcons" will be given each evening this week, with matinees tomorrow and Saturday. The new orchestra is also making a hit with the park patrons.

Dancing at Shellpot Park is proving particularly popular this season both with Chester and Wilmington people. The dancing pavilion is splendidly conducted, and excellent music is furnished. All the amusements at the park are being well attended and the free moving pictures in the evening are proving one of the best drawing cards that has ever been offered at the park.

TROLLEY TAKES FIRE

Traffic on the Delaware avenue line of the Wilmington and Philadelphia Traction Company was tied up at Fourth and Market streets yesterday afternoon when the insulation of the resistor coils on Car No. 5 caught fire. The blaze attracted a number of people and an employee of the company extinguished the fire with several buckets of water.

TO INSPECT ROAD MATERIAL

The Levy Court today accepted the invitation of Thomas H. Headley, of Philadelphia, to visit Philadelphia on June 19 to inspect the Headley Good Roads Company's binder used on several roads. The binder is such that it is a dust preventive and lasts from one to three years and costs only ten cents a square yard. The company does not build roads, but puts on the binders.

MILFORD MAIL CARRIER TAKES RAILROAD JOB

Special to THE EVENING JOURNAL. MILFORD, Del., June 11.—Charles Kesper, one of the city mail carriers, has accepted a railway mail position. He left Milford yesterday to resume the duties of his new position. He is succeeded here by Carl Allen, who has been acting as his substitute carrier.

The collector of town taxes was agreeably surprised when he figured up the amount collected this year on the rebate, as he thought it would run considerably behind that of last year. The total amount rebated on this year was $6229.49, which was less than $90 below that received last year.

The Chautauqua was largely attended on Monday, owing to the fact that there was no charge for admittance. An excellent program was given both afternoon and evening. The address of Dr. Paul M. Pearson, of Swarthmore College, on the "Beauty of Life," was an able effort and highly enjoyed and appreciated.

J. Harry Latham has sold a part of the Kenderline tract, on North Walnut street, to John H. Bennett, of Milford Neck, who will erect a modern residence on the site and make his home here after the first of next year.

At this time there is a general scarcity of fish and few fish of any kind are seen in our markets. Mrs. Lydia Jump has begun the tearing down of her old store property, on North Walnut street, and will replace them with another row of brick buildings.

Work on the construction of the new creamery plant has been started and they hope to have it completed and ready for running in a few weeks. Work on the new residence of George B. Hynson has been started, the foundation having been laid. The new home will be located just at the right of what is known as the "Crow's Nest," nearly opposite the large home of Dr. and Mrs. Frank L. Grier.

William Smith, who is to erect a home adjoining that of Mr. Hynson's, has not started the work on his residence as yet.

Oscar Carpenter, formerly of this town, has been visiting relatives here this week, en route to Buffalo, N. Y., where he will resume his new duties in the express business in that city.

The prospects through this section of Kent and Sussex counties for an excellent wheat and straw crop are said to be better than for many years past.

COLD INJURED PLUM CROP, GROWERS SAY

MILFORD, Del., June 11.—Growers of plums in lower Delaware say their fears that the severe freeze and frosts of April had injured the crops are being verified. Several of the largest growers fear that it will almost be useless to attempt to pick what few plums are on their trees. A few of the larger growers say that where their orchards were protected by woods or other large trees, fair crops will be found.
