

NEWS HAPPENINGS IN DELAWARE AND MARYLAND TOWNS

NEW THEATRE AT MIDDLETOWN

'The Everett,' Modern in Every Way, Dedicated Thursday

BUILT ON SITE OF OLD HOUSE

Special to The Evening Journal. MIDDLETOWN, Nov. 11.—'The Everett,' Middletown's new motion picture theatre, is completed and was opened to the public Thursday night.

The opening night was featured by a large crowd, the audience first being permitted to inspect the theatre before the motion picture performance began.

Throughout the evening the Doer orchestra of six pieces, furnished music. Dr. Warren S. P. Combs, organist, Daniel W. Stevens and W. Lee Pennington acted as singers.

The picture chosen to initiate the Everett's new screen was 'Under Two Flags' with Priscilla Dean in the leading role.

The Everett has seats to accommodate about 500 persons. Five balconies can be seated in the orchestra sections and 300 in the gallery.

James A. Bader and Company, of Wilmington, were the contractors of the theatre, Hoffman and Henson, Philadelphia, who designed the $100,000 Stanley Theatre in that city were the architects.

The name of the theatre was chosen by a contest. The name Everett was finally chosen out of several hundred suggested by the residents of this town and vicinity.

DANCE AND DINNER FOR U. OF D. VISITORS

Special to The Evening Journal. NEWARK, Nov. 11.—Members of the Kappa Alpha Fraternity who are holding their first annual convention here will be the guests of the University of Delaware-Haverford football game this afternoon.

James Lee Best of Philadelphia, commander of the Princeton president of the business meetings held yesterday and this morning.

Those attending the convention and the chapters they represent follow: L. P. Crommiller and Sidney Kerringer of St. John's College; Unfield Posey and Page Gardiner of the University of Maryland; Carl Luckhauser and J. A. Cochran of Johns Hopkins University; W. H. Hunt, Robert W. Brenner, H. H. Posey, Richard McPherson and H. Van Alstyne of George Washington University; F. J. Helme of Bethel College and E. M. George and A. Temple of University of West Virginia.

ST. JAMES' CHURCH SUPPER. Special to The Evening Journal. NEWPOINT, Nov. 11.—Women of a St. James' Episcopal Church of Stanton, will hold their annual chicken supper on Wednesday evening, in Masonic Temple, New-

FRESHMEN GIVE COSTUME PARADE

$85 in Cash Prizes Awarded to University of Delaware Students

C. E. GREEN GETS $10 FOR NEW SONG

Special to The Evening Journal. NEWARK, Nov. 11.—University of Delaware Freshmen held their annual costume parade last night, followed by a "pep" meeting and smoker in Old College to arouse interest in today's football game with Haverford.

The parade was started shortly before 8 o'clock. Headed by the college band, the paraders marched to the Centre Station and back to South College avenue, on Main street. The next to the Women's College and returned to Old College.

Many of those in costume were Sophomores and as about $75 had been offered in cash prizes there was keen competition among the students for these prizes.

The judges awarded the prizes as follows: $20 for best costumes divided between J. C. Snyder, C. A. Tilghman, J. M. Miller and E. L. C. Taylor; best skit, $10, divided between K. D. Given and W. F. Lank; a team, and C. E. Green, for new college song composed by a student, first prize, $10. C. E. Green, and second prize, $5, Johnson Rowan. Other prize winners, C. Smith, W. R. Hill, R. Heineold, C. E. Maxwell and team of five carrying supposed remains of Haverford on a stretcher, $5 each.

STANLEY R. PIZECK BUYS 'NEW ERA'

Special to The Evening Journal. MIDDLETOWN, Nov. 11.—Stanley R. Pizeck, of Philadelphia, has purchased the 'New Era,' which was the property of the late Caleb J. Freeman for 35 years. The New Era began under the management of Freeman & Webber, but Mr. Webber retired and Mr. Freeman has since been in possession of the paper. The Era has always been a Democratic paper and will continue as such, but will be independent.

Miss Katherine Wood, of Newark, will give the first of a series of lessons on "home dressmaking" on next Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Earl Pleasanton, near McDonough.

The Ladies' Mite Society of Bethesda M. E. Church, will hold a bake sale on Saturday, November 25, at W. S. Letherbury's store.

At a meeting of the Pleasanton Summit W. C. T. U., Miss Levina Lynch was appointed superintendent of flowers and Mrs. Marie Biddle, superintendent of white ribbon recruits. Sixteen bouquets were reported to have been sent to the sick. The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Carrie Goll.

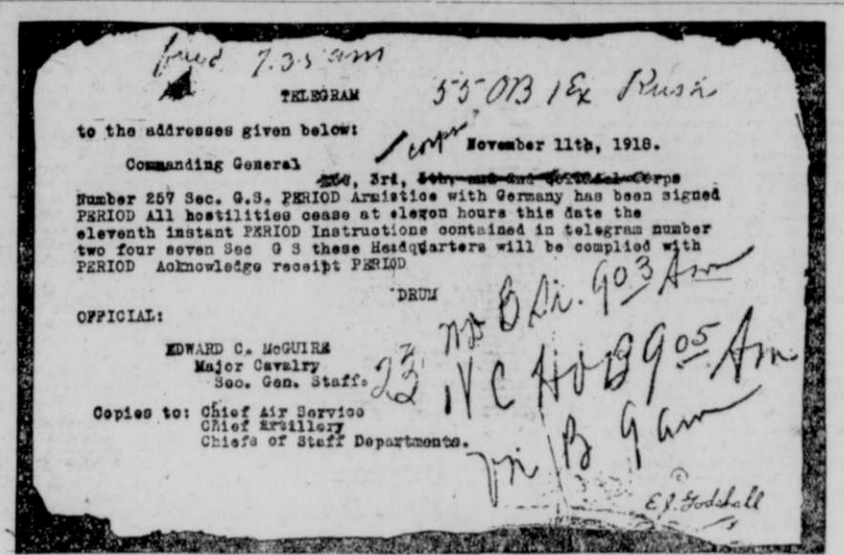

The engagement has been announced of Miss Frances R. Cochran, daughter of Robert F. Cochran, and Albert Isaac Stafford, son of Mrs. A. R. Stafford, of Middletown. Bishop Theodore S. Henderson, of Detroit, Mich., will speak in Bethesda M. E. Church next Thursday evening, on 'The Battle of Monte Mario.'

SCHEDULE MEETINGS TO DISCUSS BUDGET

Special to The Evening Journal. DOVER, Nov. 11.—Governor Denney has arranged the following schedule of budget hearings to be held at the State House in accordance with the budget law passed two years ago:

Monday, November 13, 10 o'clock, with Society for Prevention of Cruelty to Children; 11 o'clock, St. Michael's Day Nursery and Hospital for Babies; 2 o'clock, Delaware State Hospital for the Insane, November 14—10 o'clock, Ferris Industrial School; 2 o'clock, Delaware Commission for the Blind; November 15—10 o'clock, State Board of Agriculture; 2 o'clock, Commission for Feeble-Minded; 3 o'clock, Mother's Pension Fund; November 16—State Board of Education, 10 o'clock; November 17—10 o'clock, State Highway Department; November 20—10 o'clock, University of Delaware; 2 o'clock, Child Welfare Commission; November 21—10 o'clock, Adjutant-General Department, National Guard; 2 o'clock, State Board of Health; November 22—10 o'clock, School Tax Commissioner; 2 o'clock, Delaware State Tuberculosis Commission; Piano Specials, today, 3; $55, $100, $125, Jessup Piano Co., 2 E. 7th St.—Adv.

CEASE FIRING

This is a photographic reproduction of the 'cease firing' order issued by American general headquarters to the United States troops at the fighting front in France—an armistice had been signed in the World War.

The order, as will be seen, was addressed to the First, Third and Fifth United States army corps and to the Second Colonial of France.

A FITTING PRAYER

THE WHITE HOUSE WASHINGTON

The increasing enthusiasm with which our people join in the annual observance of Armistice Day enforces the conclusion that it is destined to be one of the notable anniversaries in our calendar, and indeed it well deserves to be all of that, for it marks the victorious culmination of our Nation's most impressive participation in the affairs of the world.

It is our duty to recognize that our relationship to those wider concerns which involve the welfare of all mankind. I think we have come to realize, as a Nation, that we cannot hope to avoid obligations and responsibilities, often arduous and burdensome as part of the price we must pay for our fortunate relationship to the community of the nations.

It is our duty to recognize that our relationship to those wider concerns which involve the welfare of all mankind. I think we have come to realize, as a Nation, that we cannot hope to avoid obligations and responsibilities, often arduous and burdensome as part of the price we must pay for our fortunate relationship to the community of the nations.

It is our duty to recognize that our relationship to those wider concerns which involve the welfare of all mankind. I think we have come to realize, as a Nation, that we cannot hope to avoid obligations and responsibilities, often arduous and burdensome as part of the price we must pay for our fortunate relationship to the community of the nations.

It is our duty to recognize that our relationship to those wider concerns which involve the welfare of all mankind. I think we have come to realize, as a Nation, that we cannot hope to avoid obligations and responsibilities, often arduous and burdensome as part of the price we must pay for our fortunate relationship to the community of the nations.

It is our duty to recognize that our relationship to those wider concerns which involve the welfare of all mankind. I think we have come to realize, as a Nation, that we cannot hope to avoid obligations and responsibilities, often arduous and burdensome as part of the price we must pay for our fortunate relationship to the community of the nations.

It is our duty to recognize that our relationship to those wider concerns which involve the welfare of all mankind. I think we have come to realize, as a Nation, that we cannot hope to avoid obligations and responsibilities, often arduous and burdensome as part of the price we must pay for our fortunate relationship to the community of the nations.

Advertisement for Burns Easy Electric Vacuum Washer, featuring an illustration of the machine and text describing its benefits and availability at Judson C. Burns.

TO LECTURE ON MOSLEM WORLD

Synd Hessain Will Discuss This Subject at Newark November 18

IS NOTED ORATOR AND JOURNALIST

Special to The Evening Journal. NEWARK, Nov. 11.—Syud Hessain, the Mohammedan orator and journalist, will lecture at the University of Delaware Saturday evening, November 18th, on 'The Moslem World and Western Civilization.'

Mr. Hessain is a brilliant orator, who can speak with authority on this subject, and at this particular moment when the whole Moslem world is in a ferment from Morocco to China, and the Near East crisis is casting an ominous cloud over European politics, Mr. Hessain's subject ought to be a mostly timely one.

He has lectured in Great Britain and on the Continent. Since his arrival in the United States, Mr. Hessain has appeared on several of the foremost platforms in New York and Washington. Syud Hessain is a leader in one of the world's greatest movements today.

Equipped with all the resources of western training, and yet knowing from the inside the vital factors of the Eastern situation, Syud Hessain can interpret the new movements—spiritual, social and political—in India and the Middle and Near East—with rare accuracy and insight. His lectures will break ground which is new to American audiences.

Five attractive numbers of the arduous series remain. Tickets for single admissions or for the entire course may be had in advance by application to the business office of the University.

Columbia New Process Records at Jessup Piano Co., 2 E. 7th St.—Adv.

services. Governor Denney attended the funeral. The pallbearers included R. F. Hartman, J. W. Clarke, J. A. Frear, J. W. F. Cooper, S. J. Speal and Stanley Ledgum.

PRODUCE MARKET OPENING PRICES

Quotations Today for Provisions, Grain and Poultry in Philadelphia

Following are the opening quotations today in the grain, provision and poultry market in Philadelphia: EGGS—Higher. Nearby, extra firsts, 61c; do firsts, 60c; do, Western extra firsts, 58c; do firsts, 49c; fancy selected, packed, 49c.

SUES WOMAN FOR $100,000 DAMAGES

WEST CHESTER, Pa., Nov. 11.—Suit has been started in the Chester County Court by attorneys representing Henry Filleaux, of Philadelphia, against Miss Mary E. Passmore, of Oxford, to recover $100,000 damages for the death of his niece, Martha Hann, 1 year old, who died of injuries after she had been struck by an automobile driven by Miss Passmore on a road near Oxford in June.

Recently Miss Passmore was ordered held without bail by the Coroner, following an inquest in Philadelphia, but left the hearing room, and her counsel, A. M. Holding, promised to produce her at any time she was wanted. So far no bail has been fixed for Miss Passmore by the Chester County Court and she is still at her home. No time has been fixed for a hearing in the case started today.

ESTATES OF THE DEAD. Letters of administration have been granted by Register of Wills Isaac R. Brown, to Frances E. Ryan, on the estate of Francis R. Ryan, of Wilmington hundred; Catherine E. Kelleher on the estate of John J. Connor, of Wilmington hundred.

Advertisement for Nature's Rouge EX-LAX, The Sweet Chocolate Laxative, describing its benefits for constipation and skin health.

Large advertisement for Thompson Spring Co., Inc. featuring the text 'ANNOUNCEMENT' and 'At $3.00 Per Share', along with details about share allotment and company information.