AN ACT

Concerning the Western District Court of Pennsylvania.

Be it enacted by the Senate & House of representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That no suit, action, plea, process, or proceeding, at law or in equity, which on the twentieth day of April last, was depending and undetermined in the district or circuit court of the U. States, for the district of Pennsylvania and by law directed to be removed to the district court of the U. States for the western district of Pennsylvania, shall be discontinued or abated on account of the said court not having been opened and holden on the first Monday of June as, aforesaid, by the act of Congress passed on the twentieth day of April last; but that all such suits, law and in equity, shall be deemed, taken, and, to all intents and purposes, be held to be depending in the said district court for the western district of Pennsylvania, as fully and effectually, as if the said court had been opened and holden on the said first Monday of June last.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That the said court be, and is hereby authorized & empowered, from time to time, to make all such rules and orders touching such suits, actions, pleas, process, and proceedings, at law and in equity, as they might or could have done; if said court had been opened and holden on the said first Monday of June.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That all suits, actions, pleas, process, and proceedings, aforesaid, which may be hereafter certified and transferred from the district or circuit court of the U. States for the district of Pennsylvania, to the district court of the U. States for the western district of Pennsylvania, shall to all intents and purposes, be deemed and taken to be depending in the said court, on the first Monday of June last, and the same proceedings may be had therein, as if the same had been on that day entered in the said court, agreeably to the act of Congress aforesaid.
