It may come to this in ice hockey. The game has become such a slam-bang affair that Emmett Venne, goalie for the Seattle, Wash., Seahawks, wore this knightly armor in a recent exhibition game to preserve his good health. Associated Press Photo.

Deep snow and green valley. Yes, it's California and the view is from Lake Arrowhead, in the high Sierras, with the famed San Bernardino Valley verdant in the distance. Associated Press Photo.

Aviation has come a long way since the Wright brothers flew at Kitty Hawk. This comparison of a pioneer plane and a modern airliner was exhibited at the San Francisco airport on aviation's recent 30th birthday anniversary. Associated Press Photo.

Just another camera. And Kay Francis and Kenneth McKenna face it with smiles as they arrive for one of those august Hollywood premieres. Associated Press Photo.

A comic bit from the Princeton Triangle Club's current production, "Fiesta," which is being presented at the Shubert-Belasco Theater tomorrow night. Left to right: W. H. Harrison, '35, as Virginia; R. K. Ritchie, '34, as Willie, and H. T. Sears, '34, as Col. Carter.

As a baby vamp, Patricia Ellis shows you something novel and nobby in coiffures. You'll see her thus in a forthcoming movie.
