

Miss Margaret Yates Bride Of Rev. Paul Edwin Bohi

Pretty Church Ceremony Held at Seat Pleasant—Miss Genella Alvord Is Married to John Lee Denson.

The marriage of Miss Margaret De Shields Yates, daughter of Mrs. Wade Hampton Yates, to the Rev. Paul Edwin Bohi took place Monday, August 12, at the Seat Pleasant Methodist Episcopal Church, Seat Pleasant, Md. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Robert S. Barnes of Washington before an altar banked with palms and gladioli and decorated with white candles. Preceding the ceremony Mr. William Newgent, organist of the church, played a nuptial program. Mrs. Theodore Robb sang "I Love You Truly" and "My Heart Is a Haven."

The bride, escorted by her brother, Mr. Henry Clay Yates, wore a gown of white mousseline de soie over satin, fashioned with a full skirt and a shirtdress blouse. Her fingertip veil was of tulle net, and she carried a white leather Testament, from which fell a shower of white ribbons and lilies of the valley.

Miss Hetty Roberson, the maid of honor, wore a gown of turquoise mousseline de soie, fashioned like that of the bride. With it she wore a matching hat, and her arm bouquet was of peach gladioli. The bridesmaids, Miss Bertha Howard and Miss Eleanor Roberson, wore dresses of peach mousseline de soie, with which they carried arm bouquets of yellow gladioli. Little Miss Joan Kidwell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Kidwell, was the flower girl. She wore a dress of peach organdy and carried a basket of rose petals.

Mr. Thomas L. Kidwell was best man and the ushers were Mr. Theodore Robb and Mr. David Grimes. Following the ceremony a reception for the wedding party and families was held at the Webster street home of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Crawford Crook, great-aunt and uncle of the bride. The bride and bridegroom were assisted in receiving by the bride's mother, in a gown of figured orchid chiffon, with which she wore a white straw hat and a corsage bouquet of yellow roses. Mrs. Daniel Bohi of Bloomfield, Iowa, mother of the bridegroom, wore a dress of white figured silk, a tan hat, and a corsage bouquet of pink roses.

Later in the day the bride and bridegroom left for a short wedding trip. Mrs. Bohi wearing a navy and white ensemble. Upon their return they will be at home in Washington.

Mrs. Bohi is a graduate of the Fletcher College of Ocasalosa, Iowa, and has been a member of the Alexandria High School faculty for several years. Rev. Bohi graduated from John Fletcher College and Drew Seminary at Madison, N. J. At present he is pastor of the Seat Pleasant Methodist Episcopal Church.

The marriage of Miss Genella Alvord, daughter of Mrs. Katherine Alvord of Brookeville, Md., to Mr. John Lee Denson of Louisiana, now news editor of the Washington Post, took place in Frederick, Md., August 14. Mr. and Mrs. John Randolph of Washington attended the ceremony, following which Mr. and Mrs. Denson returned to the home of Mr. Alvord at Brookeville, where a small supper party was given.

Mr. and Mrs. Denson will make their home at 11 Oxford street, Chevy Chase, Md. The bride is registered at the Dames of the Loyal Legion and is a great-granddaughter of Gen. Morgan L. Smith, a distinguished officer in the Civil War.

St. Gabriel's Church was the scene of a charmingly arranged wedding on Monday morning, August 12, when Miss Dorothy Marie Wise, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Edward Wise, became the bride of Mr. Robert Emmett Talbot, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Talbot, of this city. Father Albert officiated at the nuptial mass following the wedding ceremony.

The church was decorated with palms and gladioli.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, and wore a gown of white silk lace, fashioned on princess lines, with a long-sleeved jacket forming points over the hands. She wore a white tulle hat, with semi-veil. Her corsage bouquet was of bride's roses and lilies of the valley, and she carried a white prayer book, the streamers gracefully looped with lilies of the valley and fern.

The bride was attended by her sister, who wore a becoming gown of cornflower blue net, with pink tulle hat, and pink accessories. Her bouquet was of pink roses and blue delphinium.

Mr. William Talbot was best man for his brother, and the ushers were brothers of the bride and groom, respectively, Mr. Charles E. Wise, Jr., and Mr. J. M. Talbot, Jr.

Several vocal selections were rendered by Mr. Gerald Whalen preceding the ceremony and during mass. A wedding breakfast was served for the bridal party at the Dodge Hotel, following which there was a reception held at the home of the bride.

The bride's going-away costume was of brown-figured crepe with brown accessories. Mr. and Mrs. Talbot are on an extended motor trip through New England and Canada, and will be at home after September 15 at the Parkwell Apartments.

Of interest is the wedding of Mrs. Elizabeth Simmerman Huff of Pulaski, Va., and Dr. George H. Sneed of Richmond, Va., which took place yesterday in the drawing room of the Willard Hotel at 4:30 o'clock in the afternoon. Only relatives and close friends of the bride and bridegroom were present.

Before the ceremony a musical program was rendered by Mrs. Virginia Mitchell Simmerman, sister-in-law of the bride and daughter of former Attorney General George F. Mitchell and assistant secretary to
