Meeting Season Of Associations Near Close

18 Groups to Gather This Week, Some For Last Time

This month will find in meeting season of associations. Of the 18 groups in the programme, one is for the last time, and others are to return to their regular schedules after meeting recently. The most prominent group is the Board of Education, which will be the first to meet this week.

CIVIC NEWS

PROGRESS ON GRADE SEPARATION—Here is a view near X street and Rock Creek Parkway intersection showing developments toward the grade separation which will carry X street on a viaduct over Rock Creek and then 12 streets on ramps to the juction at K street. The proposed plan will consist of a new bridge constructed of reinforced concrete at the intersection. The new bridge will be elevated from the present level and will be 16 feet above the present level. The following report of these plans and construction as agreed upon by the Board of Education and the District of Columbia is as follows:

Mr. Snyder, president.

Mr. Eicher and John Ricker said. However, until the new bridge is completed, the intersection will remain open.

Civic Problems, Civic Bodies

Prove of Milk Situation Holds Civic Spotlight for the Week

BY JANICE B. GUTER

The district milk situation, a problem which has long been a subject of concern, was the topic of discussion at the meeting of the Citizens' Advisory Council, held this week. The milk situation was discussed at length, and a number of suggestions were made for improving the situation.

Citizens Planning Junior Auxiliary in Forest Hills

Add of Young People to Community a Good Idea

In beginning the second decade of its existence, the Citizens Planning Junior Auxiliary, under the presidency of Mrs. J. H. Wright, president, announced plans for a junior auxiliary to be established. Mrs. Wright said that the auxiliary would consist of young people who are interested in community work and who would be able to assist in the work of the Citizens Planning Committee.

Parent-Teacher Activities

Board of Managers of D. C. Congress Will Meet Tomorrow

The Board of Managers of the D. C. Congress will meet at 10 a.m. tomorrow morning in the rooms of the Board of Managers at 1120 Rhode Island Avenue.

45th Anniversary Of Shod Bake To Be Marked

History of Trade Board Affair Since 1896

When the Washington Board of Governors met in the early days of the city, the members would gather at the Board of Governors' Hall to choose a new president. The meeting was a special one, and the members would be seated in a circle around the table. The new president was chosen by a majority vote of the members. The president was then given a gold watch, and the meeting was adjourned.

The city of Rock Creek and Potomac parkways has been developed, and the new bridge will be opened to traffic in the near future.