Affidavits Obtained From Union Officials On Fight at Staller

Christmas Cheer for the Homeless

The first肠道 of the St. John's East African Mission was reported today that a committee of the Mission has made plans for a "Christmas Cheer" for the homeless children during the Christmas season. The committee plans to provide food, clothing, and other necessities for the children.

Lithuanians Challenged To Push Christianity

In an address from the Lithuanian Conference, a statement was made that the Lithuanians are encouraged to continue their efforts to convert non-believers to Christianity. The statement emphasized the importance of education and outreach programs to achieve this goal.

Applications Lagging For New Gas Rations

Applications for new gas rations are lagging behind expectations. Officials have reported that the demand for gas rations is lower than anticipated, which may indicate a decline in the overall use of gas.

Above China Corridor Is Cut to 60 Miles

The above China corridor was cut to 60 miles. This reduction in distance is expected to improve transportation efficiency and reduce costs associated with the corridor.

New York...Battle Scars Being Removed--Under the shadow of the 164th year of the great American Civil War, thousands of wounded soldiers were treated in hospitals across the nation. Among those treated were the soldiers from the Brooklyn Boys' Yard, who were given the greatest care possible.

2,000,000 Women to Quit Jobs After War, Miss Perkins Says

Miss Perkins, a social worker with the War Department, estimated that approximately 2,000,000 women will be able to return to jobs after the war. She believes that this number is likely to increase as more women are able to work due to the demand for labor.

Burks Faces Trial Oct. 23 in Gas-Coupon Case

Burks, a member of the gas company, is facing trial on Oct. 23 for his involvement in a gas coupon case. The case involves allegations of fraud and misrepresentation.

Funeral Services Held for Mrs. Martha McKeel

Funeral services were held for Mrs. Martha McKeel, former chairman of the Women's Auxiliary of the American Legion. She is survived by her husband, Mr. McKeel, and two children.

After Looking Sene Eus

We apologize for errors that may have been made in our previous publication about Sene Eus. Our goal is to provide accurate information to our readers.

Why pay a fortune for that custom tailored look?

Haven't you heard about the big switch? Hundreds of men are doing it, every day. That's right, we mean the record-breaking demand for Bond Executive Group Suits. Too long--too long--have you been hoping that some day you'd find custom quality in ready-to-wear clothing? Now it's happened! Look--here's our costly Nordstrom department, much of it done by hand. Plus virgin wool from America's own weavers. Doesn't that rare combination paint the perfect picture of distinctive good looks, and distinguished service? Look again--this time in your mirror. There's the kind of fit you've paid plenty to attain. But now it's yours with no more effort than the selection of the right suit from Bond's 9 different sizes and models. Yes, these are expensive suits. But you'll see no big price tag on them. Remember, you're at Bond!