Philharmonic
To Present
Folte Work
Orchestra Music
To Be Broadcast
From This City
Arthur Foote's "Suite in B Minor" for piano orchestra, which the Philharmonic-Symphony Orchestra will play on its program at Carnegie Hall, will be heard over the airwaves, "The New York Times" and "The American Record Guide" have announced.

Hofmann To Give Piano
Recital This Afternoon
World Famous Player Comes
To Local Engagements as One
In Music Series Here

The second series of piano solo concerts under the management of Backenstos and纤维, management firm, will open today, January 11, at 8:15 p.m., at the Lincoln Theatre, with a recital of the famous Russian pianist, Mr. Sergei V. Hofmann, who was born in Moscow, is a graduate of the Moscow Conservatory, and has made a name for himself in Russia and abroad as one of the foremost virtuosos of his day. He will appear at a salary of $500.

The concert will begin at 8:15 p.m., and will consist of four programs, each lasting about 20 minutes. The first program will be devoted to the works of Russian composers, while the second will be devoted to the works of German composers. The third program will be devoted to the works of American composers, and the fourth program will be devoted to the works of French composers.

The concert will be conducted by Dr. Max H. Kretschmer, who is well known as a conductor of orchestras and choral groups. He has conducted many of the leading orchestras in the United States, and has been a regular conductor of the Philharmonic-Symphony Orchestra for many years.

The concert will be broadcast over the radio stations WMAL (1150 AM), WTOP (870 AM), and WTOP-FM (1350 AM), and will be heard by everyone who subscribes to the radio service.

The concert will be held in the Lincoln Theatre, located at 14th and H Streets, N.W., and will be open to the public at a cost of $1.00 per ticket. Tickets may be purchased at the box office of the theatre.

Hofmann's recital will be one of the highlights of the concert series, and it is expected to attract a large audience. The concert will be conducted with great skill and precision, and the audience will be treated to a wonderful musical experience.

The concert will be a great success, and it is sure to be a highlight of the musical season. Hofmann's performance will be a delight to the ear, and his playing will be a treat to the eye. He is a master of the piano, and his playing is always a treat.