

Top - hat greeting. Henry Ford and New York's former Gov. Alfred E. Smith exchange amenities at the New York wedding of Raymond Peter Sullivan, jr., and Miss Catherine McDonnell, sister of Mrs. Henry Ford, 2d. Henry Ford, 2d, was an usher at the wedding.

John L. Lewis, stepping down as president of the C. I. O., greets his successor, Phillip Murray (left), Scottish-born former miner. Murray was elevated to the post at the organization's Atlantic City convention.

It was a great campaign! And the peaceful patio of a Florida estate on the gently lapping waters of the Indian River is a place to reflect on the pace of American politics. Wendell Willkie finds it so—and so does Mrs. Willkie, who traveled every mile of his record-breaking presidential campaign. The Joseph V. Reed estate is the scene of their vacation. Wide World Photos.

Matrimony links Ernest Hemingway, the novelist, and Miss Martha Gellhorn, kindred spirits of the great outdoors. They are shown after a fall hunt at Sun Valley, Idaho. The 28-year-old bride is a magazine writer of a socially prominent St. Louis family.
