

Victory, a blue-blooded Chihuahua, recently gave birth to six fine offspring—an unusually high number for these small dogs, the usual litter being only three. The job of caring for the pups has proved too much for Victory to handle. Here she poses with her litter.

19 is such a thrilling age

Bradford Bachrach knows how to photograph the charm and loveliness of a girl in her teens.

The problem has been solved by Flossy, a white Angora cat, who has taken on the care of two of the puppies. Wide World Photos.

The Chapel of the Sanctuary

PICTURED is the Chapel in Cedar Hill's New Community Mausoleum—the "Sanctuary"—where services of entombment and inurnment are solemnized. Overhead, the living warmth of the perfectly matched Botticini Marble walls is enhanced by great skylights of leaded glass, through which the changing light of the heavens reflects a mood of beauty and deep religious character. From a hidden recess, the throbbing swell of an organ pours on hearts bereft the benison of music. Every exquisite detail appeals alike to eye and heart. Every feature is a practical answer to the modern family's demand for permanent respect and dignity. Moderate prices. Agreeable terms.
