Dr. A. Guani Entertained By Officials

Uruguayan Visitor Extremely Fond; Other Social Notes

URUGUAYAN VISITOR EXTREMELY FOND. Mr. and Mrs. A. Guani were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Andrew T. Mellon today. Mr. Guani, the former minister of Uruguay, also served in the Argentine Army of General Velez Sarsfield's time. It was a private dinner.

Other Social Notes

MISS CATHARINE BIRDSPY. The Rev. Dr. W. C. Stearns and children of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Baker, U.S. X.R., are of Mr. and Mrs. Arthurl B. Baker. Their engagement recently advertised in the Chronicle was announced. Miss Bardsley was in the house.

MRS. EDWIN G. LINDSEY. Mrs. John B. Lindley was entertained by Miss Madeleine Wilkerson, who entertained Mrs. Davis, Mrs. Eugene Shell, and Mrs. Reese E. McCord in her home.

MISS ALICE HYNSON. Bride Last Week. Miss Alice Hyson, bride last week, and her husband are entertaining their friends at their home today.

MISS JANE PROUD. Recently Married To Robert White. Miss Jane Proud, recently married to Robert White, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Proud. They are living in their new home in the city.

GENERAL NEWS NOTES. Of the Week From Across the Slides

Miss Jane Duennear And R. C. Lyons, Jr., Visited New York. Miss Jane Duennear and R. C. Lyons, Jr., recently visited New York. Miss Duennear is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Duennear.

Miss Jane Duennear and R. C. Lyons, Jr., Visited New York. Miss Jane Duennear and R. C. Lyons, Jr., recently visited New York. Miss Duennear is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Duennear.

Munillas Hosts

MRS. ROSE HONORED. Mrs. Rose Honored was honored at a tea given by Mrs. Munilla in her home today.

SOCIETY. THE EVENING STAR, WASHINGTON, D. C., MONDAY, JANUARY 25, 1920. No. 3

By the Way—

Blues

The world has been turned upside down, but art has always flourished. And so even amidst the chaos of war, music continues to thrive. The Steinway Shop has ended its six-month clearance sale, offering a wide range of pianos at discounted prices. These pianos have been carefully selected to ensure quality and are available at savings up to 50%. Whether you're looking for a grand piano or a more modest upright, the Steinway Shop has something for everyone. All pianos come with a one-year warranty, and expert delivery is available. Visit the Steinway Shop today to take advantage of these incredible offers and make your musical dreams a reality.