Music Notes

Ormandy Lists Novelties for Tuesday Concert

Coming Events Offer Diversified Fare

Diverse programs will be featured in the concert season at the following institutions: Byrd Theatre, 925 N. 15th; National Concert Hall, 19th and H Streets, N. W.; Washington Memorial Chapel, Foggy Bottom; and the Capitol Theatre, 4th and D Streets, N. W. Special programs offered by the Washington Symphony Orchestra and the East Coast Symphony may be heard this week in the Byrd Theatre and the Capitol Theatre.

Scarlatti's "Gia al Sole del Liquido" for Paris Panist.

A program of Scarlatti's harpsichord music will be heard under the direction of William Havens, harpsichordist, in Byrd Theatre Friday, 8:15 p.m. Dr. Frank B. Spreckels, a great collector of Scarlatti music, has lent his collection to the Washington branch of the American Musicological Society to be used in their Scarlatti conference to be held in the Byrd Theatre Sunday, 5 p.m. The program will include Scarlatti's "Gia al Sole del Liquido," which has never been heard before in the United States.

New Negro Soprano Makes Local Debut

Anna C. Waltz, mezzo-soprano, and the Negro Church Choir will be heard in a recital sponsored by the National Baptist Sunday School and Youth Work Convention and the National Baptist Convention, U. B. L. S. S. in the Byrd Theatre Wednesday, 8:15 p.m. The recital will be presented in cooperation with the Washington City Negro Missionary Union.

Specialist Give Real Songs from Wyoming

With the New England Church Choir, a specialist from the University of Wyoming will appear in the Byrd Theatre Sunday, 8:15 p.m. The choir will present a program of original compositions which have been written by Northwest musicians.

Music City Washington Association, Eastern Tour and Concerts

The Music City Washington Association will take a tour of the East this winter. They will give concerts in New York, Philadelphia, Washington, and other Eastern cities. The concerts will be given in support of the local association.

Deaths Reported

Concert Schedule

The Friday Morning Music Club of the Capital City Music Club will give a concert at the Byrd Theatre Saturday, 8 p.m. The program will include works by Mozart, Beethoven, and Schubert.

Cross-Word Puzzle

Saftey Circus" Talks By Dick Manfield

A talk on "Safety Circus" will be given by Dick Manfield at the Capitol Theatre Monday, 3 p.m. The talk will be illustrated with slides of actual circus accidents.

Uncle Ray's Corner

There are more than 10,000 kinds of snakes in the world. They are found in every kind of country except the desert. Some kinds are small, and others are very large. Some kinds are poisonous, and others are not. Snakes eat many different kinds of food, but most of them eat other snakes or mice or lizards.

I Love Mountains" Makes Hit With Senator Stewart

A talk on "I Love Mountains" will be given by Senator Stewart at the Capitol Theatre Thursday, 8:30 p.m. The talk will be illustrated with slides of the mountains of the United States.

Just Between Ourselves...

"Distributive Education" Class Gets Practical Experience

By Eastern Educator, Jr.

Distributive Education in high school, the trend in the teaching of business subjects, is sometimes seemed as the "average" student's education. However, the students have gained a real understanding of the problems involved in the distribution of certain goods. Students have been able to understand the importance of having good work ethics and good business practices. The students have been able to apply what they have learned in practical situations.

Win a Cash Prize Writing Drawing For Junior Star

If you are not more than 18 years old and are a member of a Junior Star club, you may enter the writing and drawing contest. The contest will be judged on the basis of originality and creativity. The winners will be announced at a later date.

603686 The Sunday Star, Washington, D. C.