Russia Rejects U. S. Proposals On Palestine

Demands British End Mandate by Jan. 1, Withdraw by May 1
By the Associated Press

Moscow—Russia will not be bound by any agreement on Palestine, the Soviet Foreign Minister, Chicherin, said yesterday. He demanded the British mandate be canceled immediately in favor of an international trusteeship and would withdraw his nation's representatives from the mandate area unless it were dissolved by Jan. 1, 1947.

Russia's position was identical with that of the British Government, which has decided to maintain the mandate area.
