Russian Bloc Charges
Allies Prepare to Bar
Settlement on Berlin

By the Associated Press

PARIS—Air-riding Russian Bullets that menace charged in Berlin are the result of years of environment to build their military in Europe. Hence, it is possible that the Berlin trouble may be ended in a few days, as the British and French have agreed on a basis for a settlement and the Allies seem ready to take over all military and police control of the German capital.

The German government has been given a three-day perdiim to comply with the terms of the settlement. If it does not comply, the Allies will begin their bombardment of Berlin.

The Allies have also been given a three-day period to agree on a basis for a settlement with the Russian government. If they fail to agree, the Russians will begin their bombardment of Berlin.
